DEDICATION

For outstanding interest and work with the Senior Class and for her many contributions to the betterment of our Biology Department, we, the Senior Class of 1957, wish to dedicate the Pointer to . . .

MARTHA S. GALLOWAY

APPRECIATION

We, the Senior Class, of 1957, extend our appreciation to Miss Eleanor Burgess for her interest and devotion to the Music Department, and for her diligent work with the Seniors in preparation for graduation.

To Mr. C. W. Aldridge we wish to express our appreciation for outstanding achievement in the field of athletics and for his interest in molding student character.

For his ready smile and good humor, and for his constant interest in bettering our school, we extend our appreciation to Mr. William S. Ruff.

ALMA MATER

*Bravely, bravely stands old Russell
Waving Gold and White
Emblems of true sons and daughters,
Loyalty and right.
Russell, Russell, dear old Russell
We will ever be Proud to claim our Alma Mater
Russell, hail to thee.
Every memory we shall cherish
Hold them sacred, too,
Let us sing our praises gladly
O'er and o'er anew.*

SENIOR PROPHECY

RRRing . . . Quick! Where are my clothes? This new-fangled phonic-vision really keeps me on my toes—or rather in my clothes. I never know when I pick up the receiver who is going to be staring in at me. Most disconcerting. Hello? . . . No, this is not Elvis Presley's Tea Room. *#‡"?†—!! Well, as long as as I'm dressed I think I'll have a little fun. I'll dial a few numbers at random and watch the results.

Dum de dum dum! Hello! Well look at that! It seems we've gotten connected with the Parrishide Room of the Martin Motel, co-owned by LEO PARRISH and LEWIS MARTIN. The charming hostess to whom we are speaking is none other than DOROTHY BOOTHE. It looks as though they have a fabulous show planned for tonight, with JAN CARTER and her Exotics Extraordinaire, including PATSY GENTLE, PATRICIA INGLEBRITSEN and PAT PORTER. Next on the show is DOROTHY ALLGOOD, the new singing rage, and her accompanist, BEVERLY PEACOCK. Also, our very special guest tonight is the new recording star, BOBBY GOSS, who has made everyone forget Elvis. His new release, "Wildead," has sold ten million copies, making very happy men of VIRGIL BAKER and JERRY BURNS, owners of the B&B Recording Company. Also sharing in the greenery are his manager, BOBBY LINZEY; his discoverer, CAROLYN DIXON, and his private secretary, POLLY ANNA McBEE. Look who's coming into the lounge now! There's HAROLD McDONALD, the new Governor of Georgia, with his advisory staff, including WILLIAM SMARR, JERRY COUCH, BOB JEFFERSON and CARL HAMPTON. The bevy of Georgia leaches—er, peaches accompanying them are BARBARA NOLAN, HARRIET LEE, BECKY BROWN, NINAJO TARVER and JUDY LEE. The show is about to begin, so let's try another number . . . RRRring . . . Listen! That sweet voice belongs to LINDA TUCKER, secretary to General DANNY SHANNON, commander of the Strategic Air Command. Walking into his office is a group of his ace pilot bombers, EUGENE STELL, BILL NOLEN, BOBBY WHITE, DOUGLAS BURKE and RONALD LANE. Those lovely nurses standing by (in case of crash landings) are JOANNA SIMPSON, NEILA HOUSTON, SUE JOHNSON, PAM WHITE and DIANE AUSTIN. So long, girls!

R-Ring! Ring! Ring! It seems like no one will answer this time—Oh! Hello! That cutie looks familiar . . . of course! It's DIANE "BUBBLES" HADDLE, the famous Esquire calendar girl. To whom did I wish to speak? Believe me, honey, you'll do! Where are we now? I do believe that's Miami Beach! Say, Bubbles, do you mind talking to us for a few minutes, while we watch these lucky people strolling? There go CONNIE VINCENT and VAN WARR, who recently retired to their "Honeymoon Haven" down the beach. They are avidly describing the advantages of married life to playboys BUDDY McGLON, JIMMY GOAD, SANDY MOSLEY and JERRY HUDGINS. The former JEANNETTE WILLIAMS, KAY McGREGOR and HAZEL McDUFFIE, who are the proud mothers of those good looking children playing in the sand, have joined in the discussion. I'm sure they'll soon be convinced. There's TOMMY RODDY, the renowned artist, sketching some of the beautiful scenery. His lovely models are JOYCE HOUSE, JOYCE ANGLIN and GAIL MOON. That looks like—it is—BOBBY LARGIN and SYLVIA FARMER, the co-authors of the best seller "Interlinear Translation" for French textbooks.

This little book, which is the answer to every French student's prayer, is published by the Shwann Publishing Company, owned and operated by DICK SHELLY, JOHNNY STARR and RHODES WALLER. Those carefree characters just coming into view are JIMMY ROUNDTREE, BOBBY WISE, CALVIN POSS and JIMMY BUSBY, the chaps who have developed a new system for predicting which horses will win the Kentucky Derby.

There goes FRANCES BRITT, the nation's leading gossip columnist, who writes a daily column in the "Evening Moon," edited by JOEL BRYANT and TOMMY COLLINS. Frances is getting ready to interview ELVIS HARTLEY, the new world's champion sharpshooter. Some of the people looking on are ELEANOR FOLSOM, MILDRED PADGETT and HELEN BOGGS, who are enjoying a year's vacation as the recent winners of the "Name the Nut" contest. This contest was sponsored by the Nixbet Nut Company, owned by ROBERT NIX, CLYDE BETTIS and MITCHELL BOWDEN. Those three happy guys coming toward Bubbles now are C. J. MOWELL, SAM STRICKLAND and BILLY HINNANT, the inventors of a new process for dehydrating girls so that they may be stored in the boy's back pocket until the proper moment. I see a storm coming up, so we'd best leave.

Buzz . . . "Hello, this is the "Knight Voyage," bound for Belleguse, the new star. JEANNETTE COX speaking!" Well! If it isn't the "Knight Voyage" owned by JIMMY KNIGHT and EDWARD GROVE. Who are those charming hostesses? They're none other than DIANE LEVERETTE, MARCIA FOSTER and JUDY FOWLER, and there are CAROLYN HART, SANDRA NORRIS and SHIRLEY CARVER, who are hired especially to keep the bachelors on board happy. These bachelors include RALPH BROOK, TOMMY ADAMS, BILL CRIST, PERRY HOLT, THERON DUNAWAR, JERRY WATSON, FRANK BREWER and Captain TOMMY WASHBURN. It looks as though he is keeping his crew, including LARRY JONES, BOBBY JOHNSTON, BILLY LANDRUM, JERRY HASTY, JOE JENSEN and DANNY WHEELER, very busy. If we listen closely, we can hear BRENDA MUNSEY and GLENDA EASON trying to teach BEVERLY COLE, MARIE CORT, LINDA DAMON and CAROLYN MURDOCK how to speak Afghanistani. Let's peek through this porthole and see who runs the beauty and fashion advice shop. Well, wouldn't you know, it's GERI REEVES and MARTHA CAMP. Who are those lovely models? It looks like DOT RICE, MONTENE SWAFFORD and LINDA DUKE. Guess they stay busy these days, trying to keep all the ladies around the space ship in fashion. I'm getting air-sick, so I think we'd better dial another number.

Let's try this number! Wrrrr . . . burrr . . . zz . . . UM, it's beginning to sound strange . . . Hello! Look where we are now. There's CHRISTINE BURNETTE, secretary to JOHNNY SHEATS, president of Harvard. Strolling into his ultra-modern office are TAMAR WEAVER, professor of physical education, JEAN MARSHALL, professor of Music, CHARME ROBINSON, Navy ROTC instructor, NANCY GRIFFIN, professor of history, and CHARLES BARRETT, the head of the math department. JOHNNY'S new administration building at Harvard was designed by LINDA HAMLIN, the renowned architect, and constructed by the DICKIE and JIMMY McLEROY Company. JIMMY'S wife, the former TERRY THOMAS, is the owner of a famous horse farm. The decor was by BOB CROKER and DAVID JONES. That's enough book-learnin' for now. . . . Why don't we try our special cross-country button and look in on some people in Hollywood? R-R-ring! We must have dialed a theatre. It looks as though they are having a world premier of the new movie, "Barbecue," by the noted playwright, JACKIE WHITE. The movie has been called the greatest since "Picnic" by critics MARY ANN WARD, KNOX CHILDERS and JUDY CARMICHAEL. It is a MIKE CALLAHAN-PAT GIBSON production. The stars, CAROLYN HARTLEY and NELSON FOWLER, have just made their entrance amid tremendous ovation. Other celebrities here are RANDY GOBER and LARRY GRANTHAM, the owners of the Gober-Grantham movie company; SARA KIMSEY and JOANNE BOLTON, veteran actresses; the renowned orator, PATSY MORRIS, and, of course, America's favorite couple, JUDY KAUFMAN and RICHARD CARROLL. That's enough of those dazzling celebrities. Let's get back to some old Georgia scenes.

R-r-ring . . . ! Say, that looks like CAROL LAWLER answering the phonic-vision in her lovely "Bachelor's Arms" apartments. This unique little establishment, originally organized by women, has become the haven for many forlorn males, including JERRY KORTES, JOE KING, BILL CROWE, RONALD HANEY, WAYNE MULLINS, RONNIE PEEK, ULDIS PALDE and TOMMY CARTER. Some of the feminine tenants are JEAN STEELE, SHIRLEY FOSTER, PEGGY De RAMUS, BETTY FAMBRO, JO EVELYN BOWERMAN, DIANE LAWRENCE and BETTY KIDD. NANCY KING, famous marriage counselor, has her office on the ground floor, in case of emergency. Let's leave the poor souls to their play.

This dials like a good number. Rrring! Well! This is a well-known scene for all music lovers. The new home of the Metropolitan Opera Association is East Point. There is Maestro FRANK COOPER, conducting the orchestra, as they rehearse for tonight's performance of "La Forza del Destino" or "Now is the time to say good-bye." It stars the world famous opera singer, LOUISE BRANDENBURG, in the role of Lenora, who gets stabbed, poisoned, strangled, and shot. Perhaps she wasn't the saintly type. The new managers of the Met are GAIL WINKLES and JACKIE LEE. The scenery was designed by famous impressionists MICKIE SANDERS and RAY HOWARD. Where is everyone going? This famous troupe is being entertained at the home of socialites BARBARA HILL and NANCY BAILEY for an afternoon tea. Let's ring them and have a gossip session. Rrring! Oh, look! Here's NANCY MITCHELL pouring tea (on Louise's dress). What a shame (?). DIANE SHOCKLEY is escorting the troupe and JUDY JAVORSKY is also assisting in this splendid social boo-boo—'er, fete. We hope they have a lovely time. Now our connection with Paris has come through. We plan to visit Madame VIRGINIA, creator of the world's most beautiful gowns and dictator of the fashions and trends. Madame CURRAN is having a spring showing today. We expect it to show her most fabulous creations yet. Here we are, inside her house. One familiar model wearing a beautiful rose gown is NANCY FIELDER. MARY GREAK is wearing a cute swim suit, which displays her nice figure. Here come JEANETTE GRESHAM and BARBARA MEARES in lovely dresses. Their hats are the latest space helmets, adorned with primroses and anemones. Quite fascinating! RICIE COUCH, DORIS SHAW and SUE JACKSON are also in this racket—'er—business. They are buyers for American Markets, Inc. JUDY LINGEFELT, also a model, is wearing a dress designed for the coronation of Prince Charles. Now, we should leave, for this gets to be quite expensive.

Back in New York, we can visit with our old friends MARGIE KURKENDALL and JERRY EDWARDS. They co-own the famous sporting goods company—Mi-Lady's Tennis Raquets. SHIRLEY MCGINNIS is the vice-president and JIMMY CATO is the sales destructor—that is, director. Of course they must test their products, and BOBBY TURNER, MADISON SOWELL, RANDALL BUSBY and JOHNNY MORRIS make fine stooges. Down the street, JOHN SPEED owns the shoe company—"Speed Shoes." His slogan is—"If your feet aren't speedy, speed them to Speeds and they'll be speedy."

I understand that HAROLD PEACOCK has inherited "Peacock's Skid Row," that exquisite eating joint. Let's visit him. Buzz . . . rring . . . There it is! The head waiter, JOHN ALSTON, is escorting someone in. Why, it's KENNETH COOMBS, superintendent of the Sanitary Department of East Point. Over in the corner are SAM MERRITT, BOBBY BALLARD, WILSON PROSSER and GEORGE BAUER, the famous comedy team. They are discussing plans for a Las Vegas night club act, which will include LUCRETIA HILL, BARBARA EUBANKS, MARY JO LIVINGSTON and CAROLE CAUDLE at Bill ROGERS' gambling house. LAMAR CANNON, the District Attorney, has been trying to dissolve this gang but he can't make the charges stick. MIKE MATTHEWS and EARL EDMUNDSON must be in on this! HARRIET POPHAM and PATSY McELWANEY, manufacturers of the new sports car invented by PHIL HUGHES, ARVEL IVIE and JOHNNY JACKSON, have come to speak to their famous "Safety First" driver, MARY JUNE HARKINS. They are saying that JOHNNY MULLINAX, KENNETH PORTER and JACK RAINWATER have just invented a new night signal which detours other vehicles around parked cars—way around! This new gadget is being tested by JOYCE SEGREST, DANNY MILLER, ADRIANNE CARVER and CHARLIE THOMPSON. It's getting late, and we must leave. I've promised to visit PATSY MOORE, the great teacher who is known for her school for the mentally retarded. She does such a wonderful job in this field. I must go there sometime.

What's happening here? This odd sound can mean only one thing, our phonic-vision is ka-put! That's the trouble with these new-fangled contraptions, built by inventors DAVID GREEN, JAMES HALE and CLYDE HOLLAND. They break down after just a little use. I'll have to call repairmen ALTON GLOER, STANLEY HARDEE and KENNETH BEARDEN who fix(?) anything! Perhaps they can find the trouble. Until then,

So long.

THE BAND

The Band has added many memorable moments of music to the various Ruessell programs. The band's loyalty to school projects was shown throughout the year.

The marching shows and encouraging tunes presented by the band were indeed highlights of the football games.

The ROTC marched with more pride as the band played patriotic melodies; the colors waved with greater dignity.

The Christmas season was heralded by the Band's Yuletide spirit combined with the choral groups.

The 1956-57 Band did not end its year with these fairly standard duties, but found other ways of raising its musical standing. The Music and Arts Festival and the trip to Washington, D. C., are two of the outstanding achievements.
