THE LION'S ROAR '74

South Fulton High School
East Point, Ga.

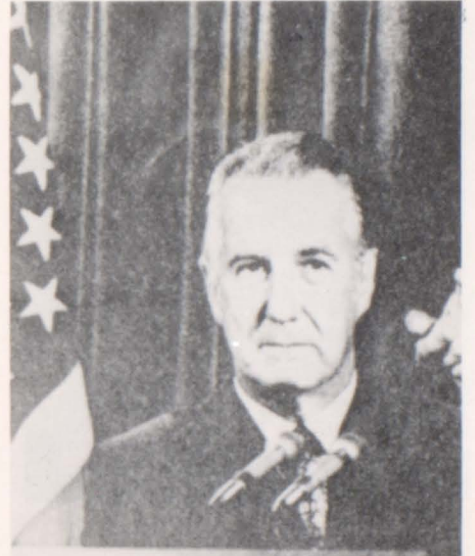

OUR WORLD IS CHANGING

Hate is everywhere . . .
Streets filled with violence wars . . .
People dying
Pollution

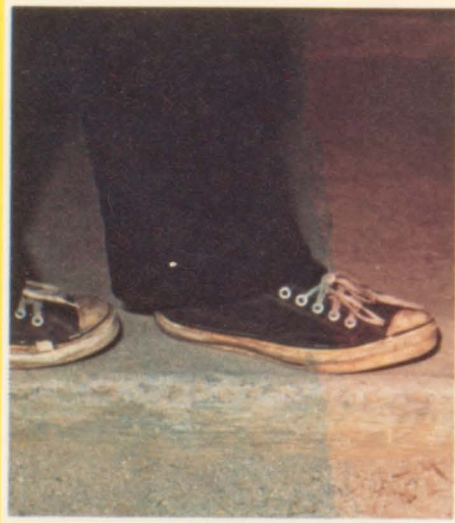

Corruption has infiltrated our government.

WHAT ELSE CAN HAPPEN?

WE CAN HAPPEN!

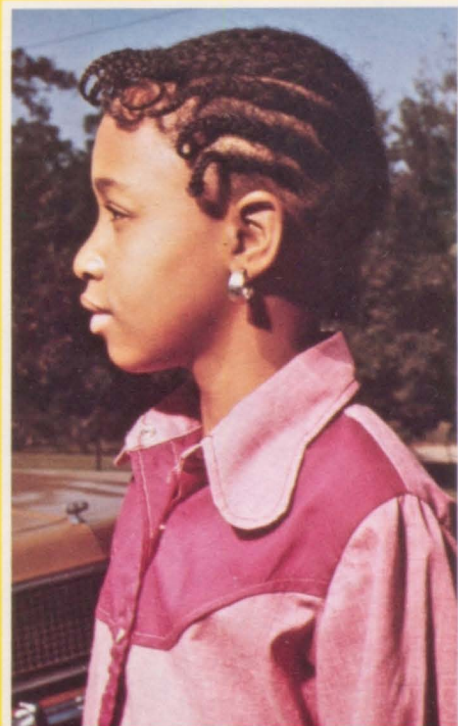

Our actions . . .

Our dress . . .

Our speech and our thoughts

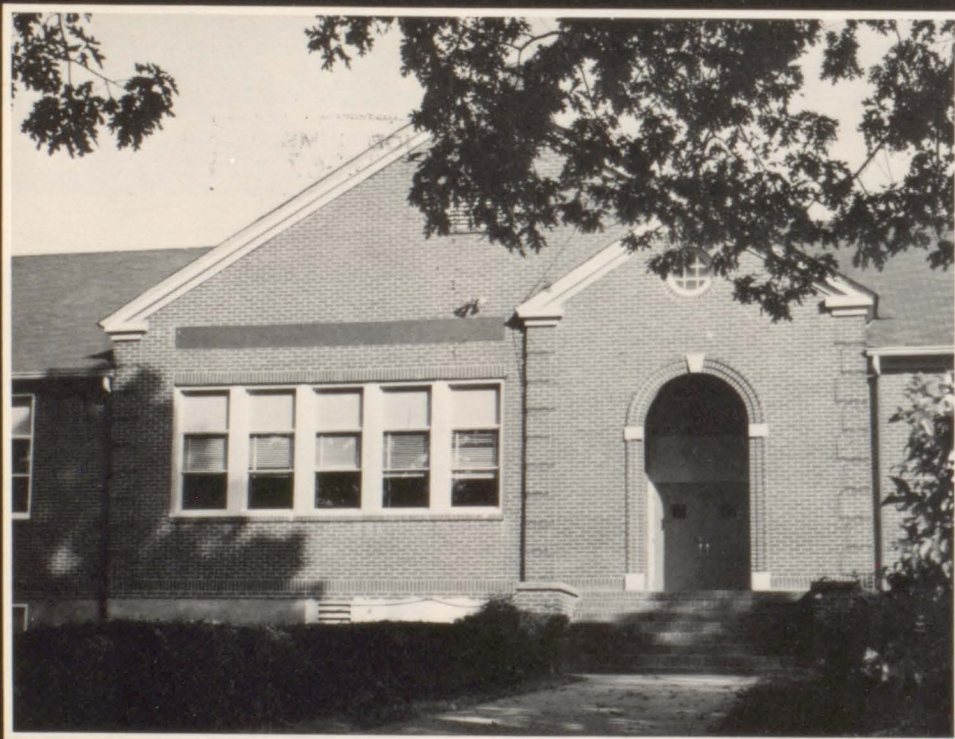

We affect the people around us.

NOW

*Compared to the rest of the world
we may seem small.*

But we can start petitions . . .

Pitch in!

Express our opinions make a contribution to society.

*The students of South Fulton
are working for a better world*

Trying for a better tomorrow Demonstrating peace, friendship, and understanding.

LEARNING

Since 1972, Mr. Hugh Wingo has been principal of South Fulton High School. He is admired and respected by both students and faculty because of his friendliness and fairness.

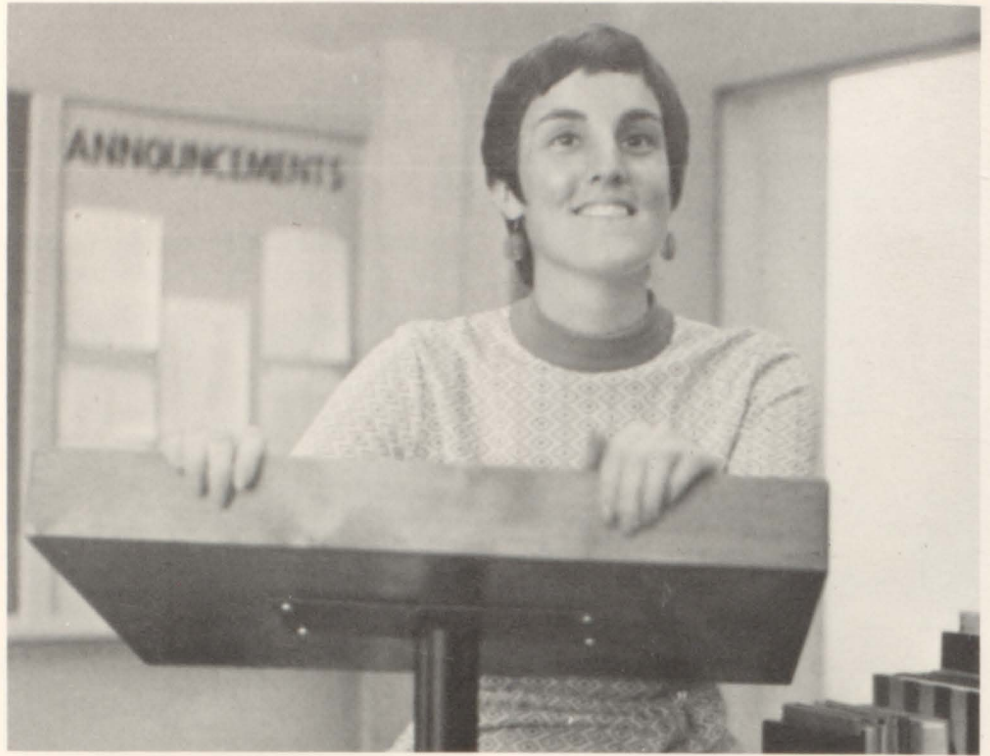

Mr. Turner has been assistant principal at South Fulton High School for three years. He is in charge of student scheduling and disciplinary problems.

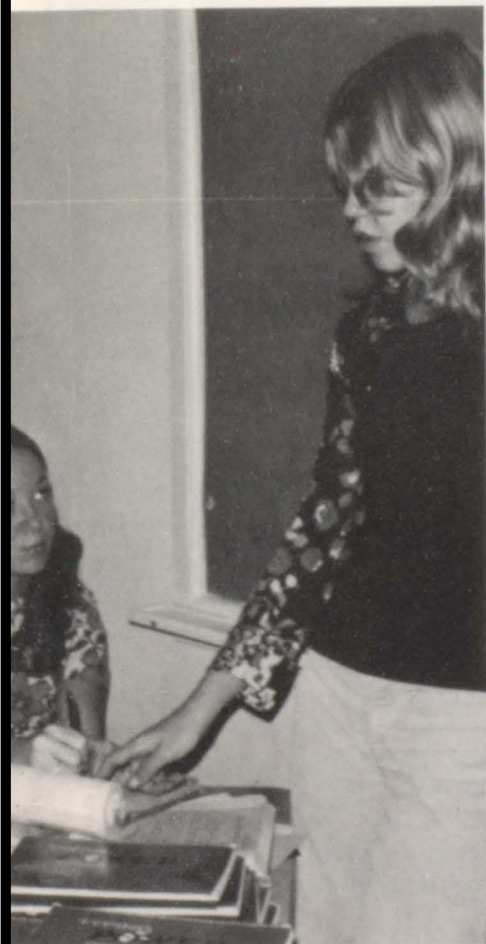

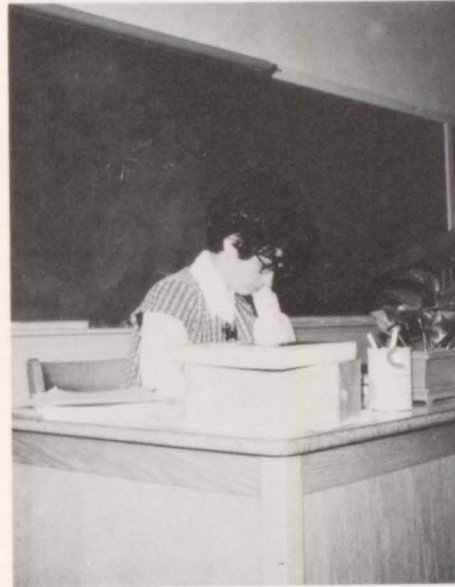

This is Mrs. Blackwell's first year as counselor at South Fulton High School. She is always available to help students with any problems they might have.

Miss Smith, originally from Minnesota, has been teaching English at South Fulton for the last three years. She and Mrs. Brantley, who also teaches English, are co-sponsors for the annual staff. They can usually be found in the Reading Lab or busily at work on THE LION'S ROAR.

Mrs. Jones teaches English and social studies. She has successfully managed the financial campaign for the yearbook for the last two years.

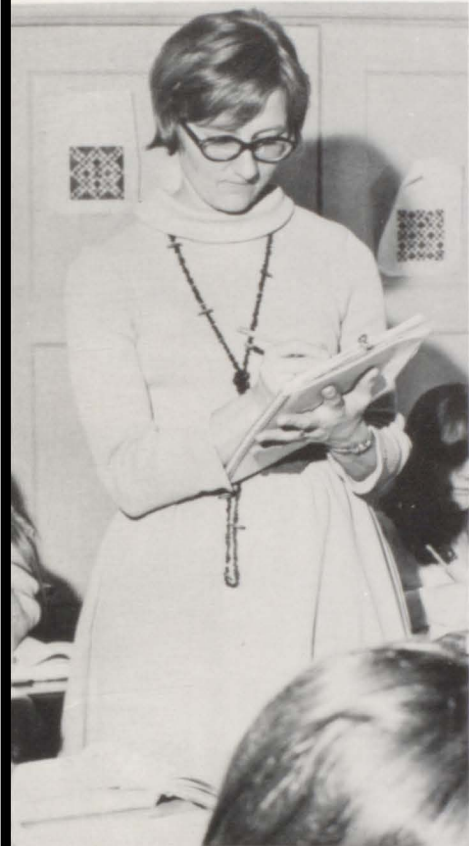

Being a first-year teacher has its trying moments, but Miss Wood has found it to be fun too. She teaches typing and social studies and sponsors the Y-Teen Club.

Miss Williams has taught social studies at South Fulton for the last two years. Her classes are always busy with new and interesting projects.

South Fulton is proud to have Miss Atchley as chairman of the Social Studies Department for our school and Eva Thomas High. Miss Atchley is also the sponsor for our Student Council.

Mrs. Shelby, who teaches math, is also sponsor of the Beta Club and Knitting Club. Since South Fulton became an eighth grade school, Mrs. Shelby has been here working hard for us.

To sum it all up, math + football + basketball = Mr. Porter.

Miss Lehrner is in her first year at South Fulton. She teaches math and science and is always conducting interesting experiments in her science class. Miss Lehrner sponsored the Pep Club this year.

Teen development and Home Economics are Mrs. Widener's courses. She strives to teach and prepare her students for their future. Mrs. Widener is the sponsor of the F.H.A. Club.

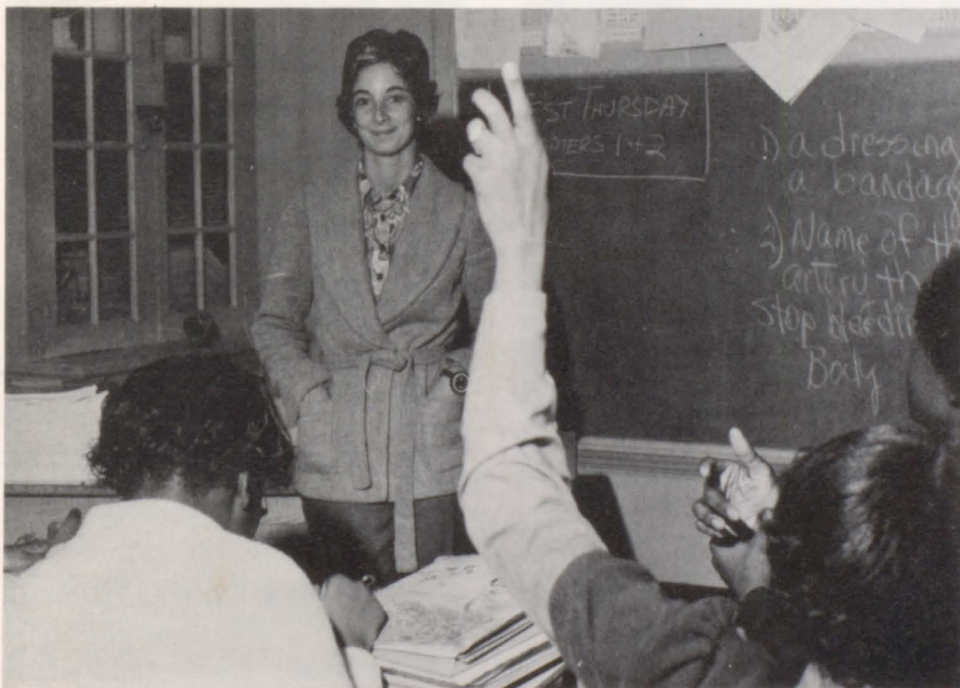

The Boys' Health and P.E. teacher is Mr. Lunsford. This is his first year at South Fulton. He works with the boys in P.E. Club also. He "happily" agreed to be Santa for our Christmas program this year.

Mrs. Castillio has been teaching at South Fulton for four years. She devotes much time to projects for improvement of her students such as the Special Olympics held annually.

Miss Morris is experiencing her first year at South Fulton. With her warm personality and patience, she successfully teaches the Special Education students.

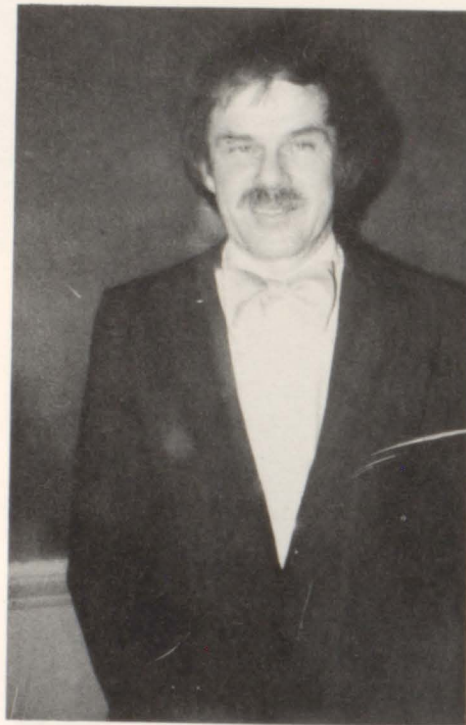

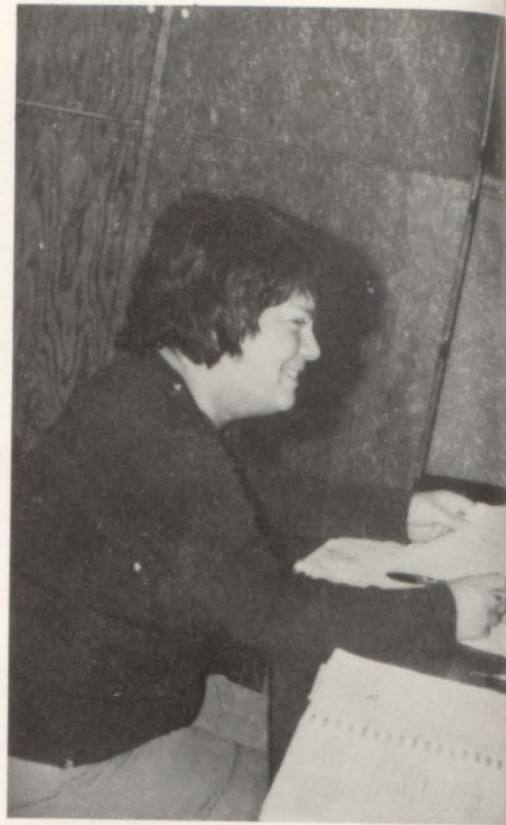

Interesting art projects in many media come from art students of Miss Croft. A talented artist herself, Miss Croft introduces students to new ways of expressing ideas.

Drafting and woodshop are the classes Mr. Dudley teaches. He helps students to learn how to use their hands to produce useful and beautiful furniture and other projects. Mr. Dudley sponsored one of the Games' Clubs this year.

Our Spanish teacher is Miss Pallares. She has been at South Fulton and Russell for the past few years.

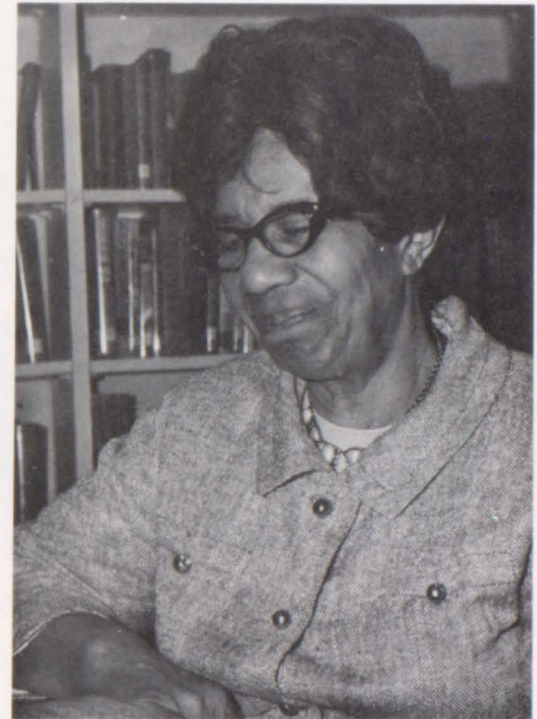

Mr. Gatlin teaches French. He is the French teacher at Russell High and is Chairman of the Foreign Language Department for Russell and Headland.

Mrs. Parker is a very special teacher. Supposedly retired, she comes every day to tutor reading students.

FEATURING

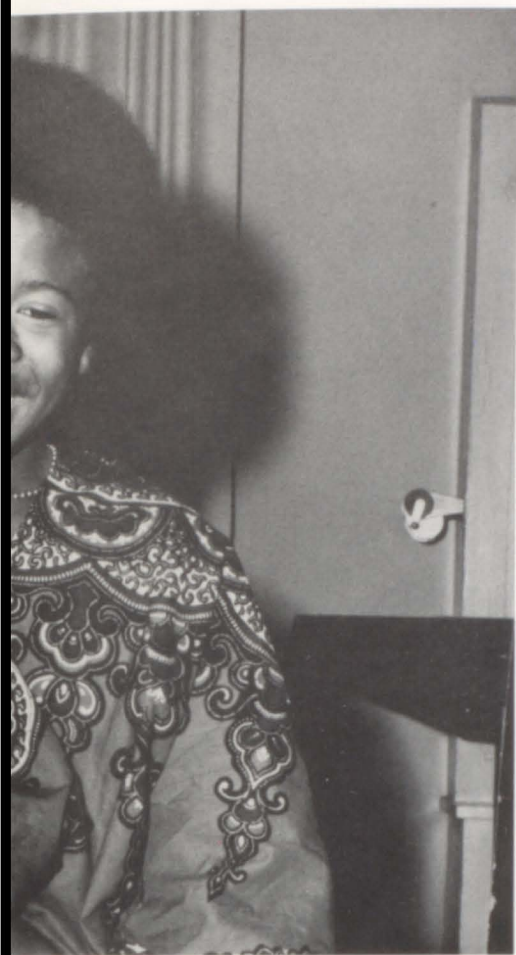

As President of the Student Council, Clyde Mitchell is considered everybody's friend. He is always easy to get along with. He presides at special activities.

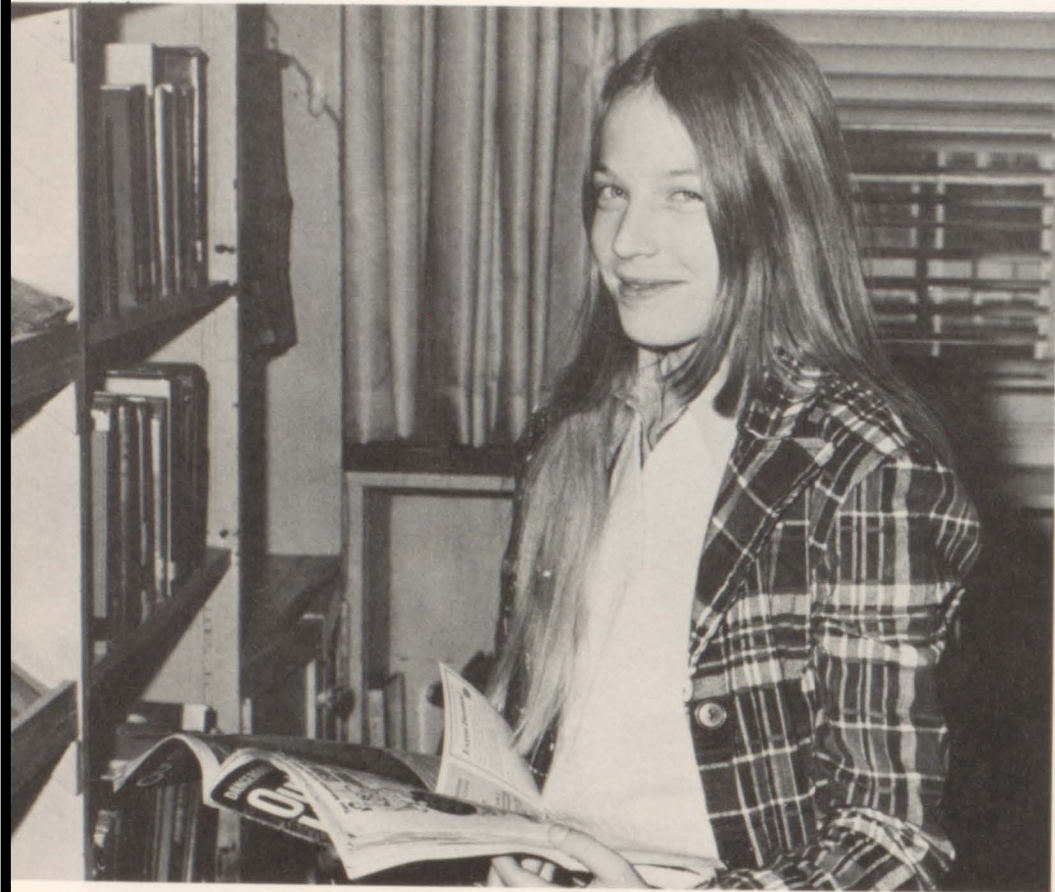

Each year a person is chosen who has attained a high level of academic achievement. Nancy Conner has consistently done well in all phases of her school work.

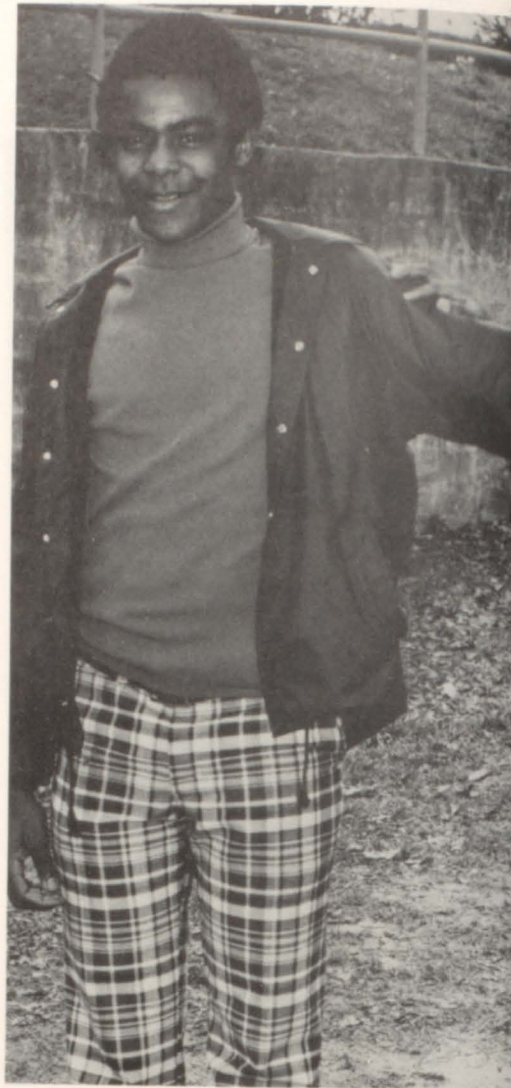

Kelly Leach was elected captain of the cheerleaders by her fellow cheerleaders because of her good sportsmanship and terrific school spirit.

Doug Loggins, editor of the yearbook, really took the fate of the annual to heart as he enlisted the support of the greatest number of patrons.

A magazine drive was one of the fund raising projects for the annual. Denise Wallace showed her support of the annual and the school by selling the most magazine subscriptions.

M-m-m those candy bars tasted good - all 200 of them. Bruce Miller won a tape recorder as high salesman in the candy sale which also supported the 1974 annual.

Mike Wilder acted as co-captain for the basketball and football teams. Mike is a good athlete and added much to both our teams.

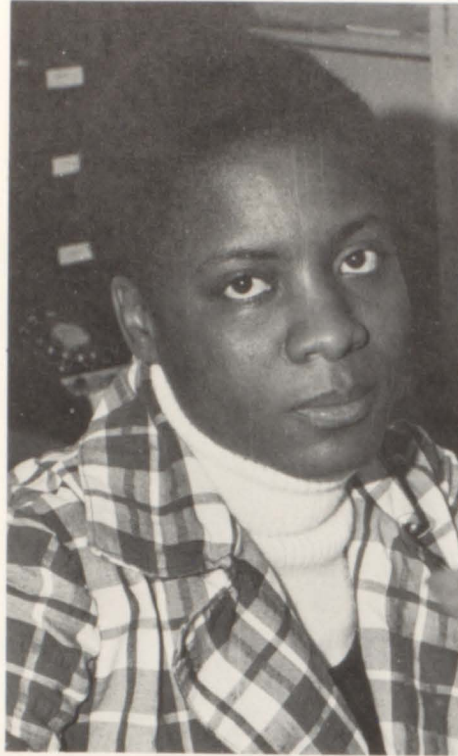

One of our leading scorers on the basketball team was Charlie Walker. He was one of the co-captains of the team and proved to be a real asset to the Lions.

David Widener was a co-captain of the football team. Often the position of quarterback was filled by David and he led the team well.

Under the direction of Mrs. Rampy our cafeteria provides nutritional menus. In addition, Mrs. Rampy's pleasant personality makes lunch a special time of the day.

Mrs. Cotton is the library clerk. She assists students with library projects and is co-sponsor of the knitting and crochet club.

The office of South Fulton High can be a hectic place. Mrs. Goode, our school clerk, keeps things moving efficiently for faculty and students.

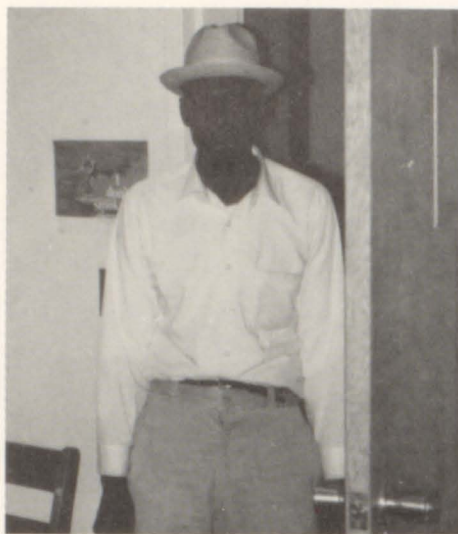

Keeping students fed and our school clean is no easy job. We are fortunate to have these capable women who take pride in their work and our school.

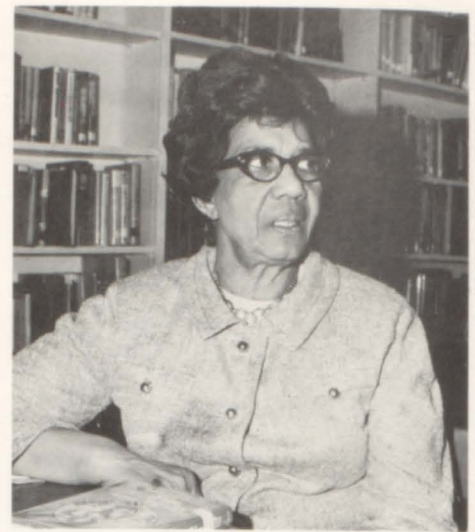

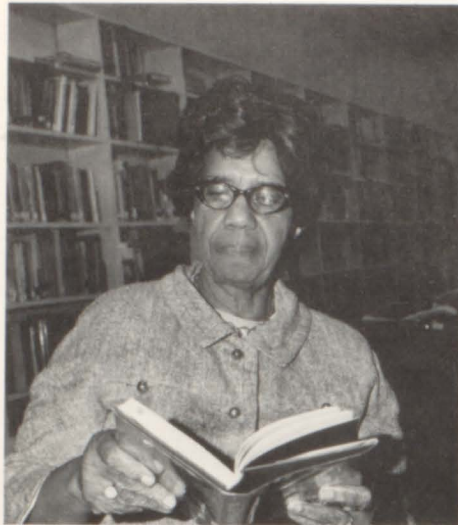

The custodians of our school work daily to keep our building and grounds in order. Mr. Williams, Mr. Roberts, Mr. Pettaway and Mr. Rose make up the custodial staff. We appreciate their efforts.

After thirty-five years of service to South Fulton High and Fulton County, Mrs. Ruby Dhye is retiring.

Mrs. Dhye is synonymous with all that is good in education. She has endeared herself to both faculty and students during her years of teaching.

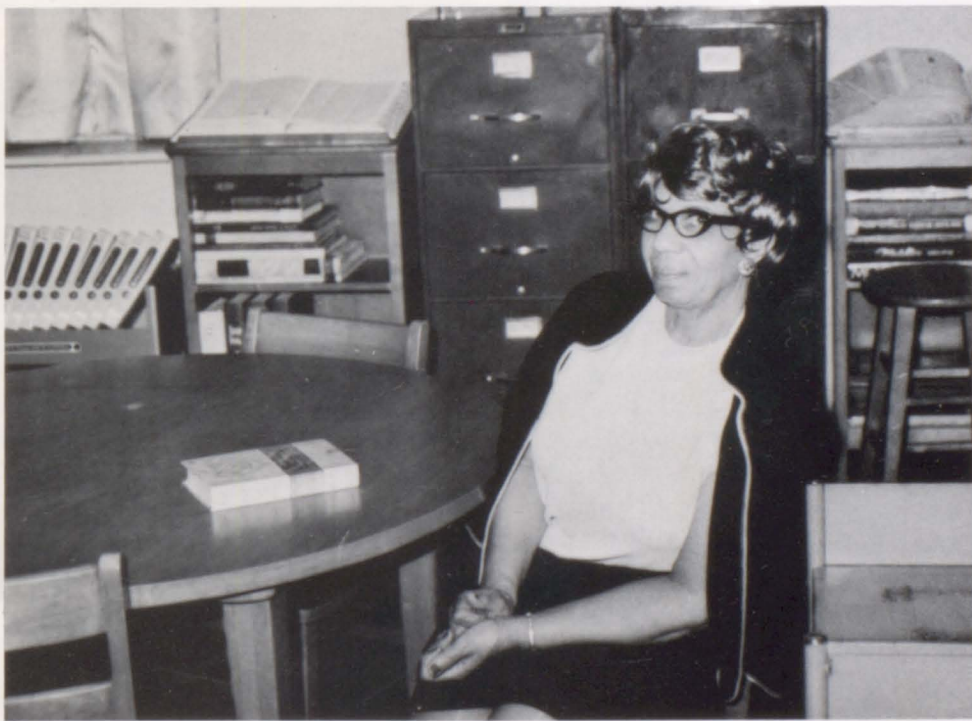

The stacks of book and magazines and the hours of work could not begin to reflect the influence Mrs. Dhye has had on the young people with whom she has worked.

Mrs. Dhye, we love you.

For years of untiring work, years of undying devotion, and years of unending inspiration to South Fulton and its students, we the Lion's Roar Staff of 1974 extend our deepest appreciation to you, Mrs. Ruby Dhye.

In the final days of our school year, you may be . . .

Wondering what next year will be like

Wondering what triumphs and tragedies you might be facing

*Wondering about the future
as a whole*

Wondering what the world will be like when you're an adult.

The only way you can insure a better world in the future is to work for one . . .
