The greatest ambition of the sub-freshmen is to become SENIORS. This ambition has been attained by the following one hundred and eighty-eight students.

The memories we carry with us of Russell will be those of our days of work, fellowship, and pleasure. We are greatly indebted to the halls of Russell for the past five years which have better prepared us for the journey of life ahead.

Speaking of New York, PAT WALKER ees now playing in her own comedy review written by ROBERT HUDDESTON.

Ees now time for everyone to leave, so ze final song weel be "Auld Lang Syne," by ze Singing Six, SUE COLLEY, MILICENT KIRBY, PATRICIA KUPFER, DAVE MADDOX, RONALD RUSSELL, and ROBERT SHACKELFORD. "Should auld acquaintance be forgot, well I know some that should . . ."

Ees all ze crystal ball well show, nize-a leddy, ees all ze Russell graduates—you pay me now, yes? Ah . . . Five dollars! For five lousy dollars I should have told ze truth!
