*God is its author, and not man; he laid
The key-note of all harmonies; he planned
All perfect combinations, and he made
Us so that we could hear and understand.*

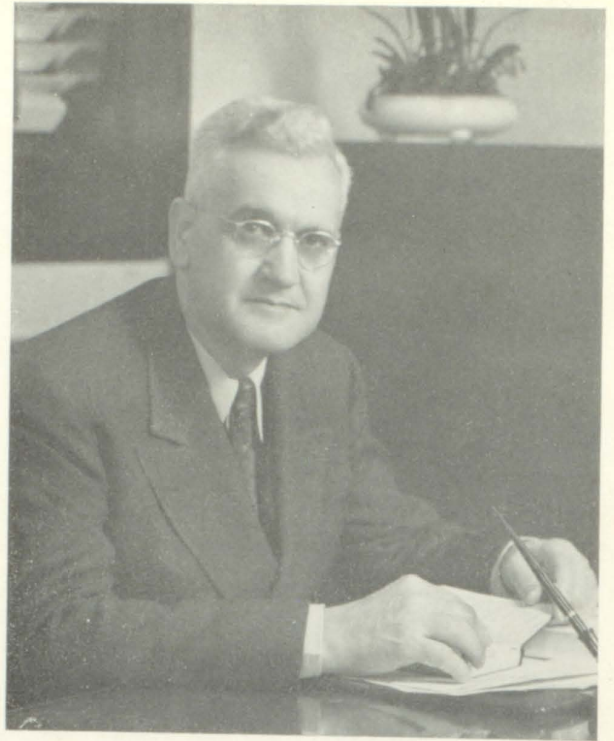

—J. G. BRAINARD

CLASS HISTORY

In the year of 1946, the graduating class of 1951 entered College Park High School. Some of us were bewildered; some, carefree; others, serious; but all of us were excited over the prospect of going to high school. The idea of having new and adult subjects with different teachers was wonderful! The mere thought of indulging in such school activities as football, basketball, glee club, the school paper, and other important organizations and clubs filled us with awe.

For the first time in the history of College Park High School, there was to be a class which would start the practice of graduation after five years of high school. This was our class of 1951. As wide-eyed sub-freshmen, we were anticipating four more years of learning, playing, and growing. In exchange for the added time in a secondary school, we were to receive a greater wealth of knowledge as well as a bounty of experience with which to conquer the problems likely to confront us in a world of chaos and confusion.

During our sophomore year, great improvements were started on College Park High School. Our library was expanded and developed until the school pridefully boasts of it as one of the most beautiful and well equipped in the country. Besides all this, we added a modern wing to our building. This new wing now contains music rooms, an art room, and several other class rooms.

In the course of the junior year of the class of 1951, the Parent-Teacher Association sponsored a great drive to secure the benefits of an Inter-Communication System. This made the school even more up-to-date. The students of our class have appreciated the opportunities for a better education that our parents, faculty, and friends have given us throughout our years of high school.

The members of our class have excelled in many activities. Music students of the Glee Club and Band have participated in the Music Festival and numerous concerts, while the literary inclined have attended press associations. A Student Council has been formed, and many of the outstanding people of our class are leaders in this organization. Our class has contributed a large number of representative athletes to the various sports. The military department has been aided by the capability of the R. O. T. C. officers from our class. The betterment of the school has been the chief goal in the eyes of the Junior Civitan Club, the Library Staff, and the National Honor Society.

In general, all the students of the graduating class of 1951 have tried to get the most from College Park High School through participation in the varied activities. We have attempted to give all our services to our Alma Mater, and hope that her future students will enjoy learning through doing as we have.

Historian, Class of '51.

I, Henson Freeman, leave my ability to skip class to Jimmy Bennett.

I, Dorothea Fristoe, leave my ability to waste time to my brother.

We, Ann Goddard, Carol Cole, Patsy Embry, Genie Lee, and Frances Atkinson leave our most honorable club, the "Filthy Five," to Jane Miller, Gwen Weant, Barbara Thompson, Glen Joyner, and Ivan Parr, in hopes they will carry it on with the spirit it was started with. It will also be their duty to keep 4th period study hall in an uproar.

I, Lee Hale, leave my membership in the Honor Society to Allen Durden.

I, Jo Hanes, leave my many talents to Collen McDonald.

I, Wanda Harris, leave my technical ability to Joan Sand.

I, Ralph Holt, leave my five o'clock shadow to Bunny Evans.

I, Merita Hope, leave my ability to pass Algebra to Charlie Hope.

I, Chuck Hayes, for the good of C. P. H., just plain ole leave.

I, Pat Inman, leave my pin-up art to Lester Loach and Jimmy Jackson.

I, James Kaiser, leave Ed Heasley a Chemistry set and a Fire Extinguisher.

Being of sound mind, I, LaGroom Kelley, am taking everything with me.

I, Janice Kerlin, leave my long fingernails to Frances Shelnut.

I, Walter Krauth, leave my height to Espy Ball.

I, Charles Lambeth, will not and never will.

I, Eleanor Lane, leave my heart with the basketball girls and Mr. Badgett.

I, Julia Lassiter, leave my ability to fight to Betty Bleckley.

I, Bob McAdams, leave to a certain Chemistry teacher, RO-MANSON by name, all ex-cheerleaders.

I, Mackie McBayer, leave my ability to get speeding tickets to Emmett Allen.

I, C. T. McCurdy, leave nothing because I have nothing to leave.

I, Ray MacMahon, like a true Scotchman, leave no one anything.

We, Doris Morris, Dot Honea, and Dot Gibson, leave our ability to pop chewing gum in Miss Maddox's classes to Rebecca Lee, Joyce Herman, and Doris Bradberry, if you promise never to go to class without it.

We, Diane and Annette Neely, will our love and devotion for each other to any two persons born the same year, day, and hour.

I, Nickey Nichols, leave my love for all the good-looking girls to Joe Bishop.

I, Clyde Nix, leave my ways with the women to Emmett Allen.

I, Pete Pappas, leave my ability to shoot pool to Jean Harrell.

I, Helen Parker, leave to my sister, Sybil, my place in the Honor Society.

We, Edward Pierce and Tommy Padget, leave our good looks, high grades, and quietness, to the most stupid member of the Junior Class.

I, Mason Richardson, leave my curly hair to Pat Maloy.

We, Anne Riggs and Sue Stephenson, leave our love for JB's to Shirley Ramsey. Good luck! You'll need it!

I, Ada Robinson, bequeath my bottle of red hair dye to Charles Stockton.

We, Eve Robuck and Carole Wallis, leave our good looks and sweet personalities to Jennie Rae Dodson with the hope that she will never be dateless.

I, Jesse Scroggins, leave my ability to drive safely to Tommy H. Wiggins.

I, David Sussman, leave my winning way with the girls to Robert Perry.

I, James Taylor, leave my nickname and laughing ability to Russell Johnson.

I, Jerry Thompson, leave my ability to get dates to Jimmy Holliman.

I, Jimmy Walker, leave my place on the smoking grounds to Charlie Hope.

I, Frank Warinner, leave (and I thought I'd never make it).

I, Edward White, leave my charming ways with barnyard animals to John Wimberley.

CLASS PROPHECY

Good morning, here are the announcements for April 1, 1961, over the College Park High School Inter-Communication System: There will be outdoor recess today if it does not suddenly rain. We shall have a regular schedule all day. Now here is a message from our librarian, Miss Robuck:

"Boys and girls, we have entirely too many overdue books. Please come into the library and check with my assistant, Miss Embry, to see if you are guilty."

Thank you, Miss Robuck. We now have a special program about the graduates of 1951 done by the Radio-Workshop Department and its instructor, Miss Lee Hale:

"Hello, students, this is just a report concerning the alumni of 1951. First we'll begin with a few of our teachers who graduated then from College Park High School. Of course there is our principal, Mr. Charles Lambeth, and his assistant, Mr. Warren Berry. Also, the physical education teacher, Miss Ann Goddard, who left to get married yesterday, Miss Janna Boggs, our chemistry instructor, and Miss Loretta Bertsch, the mathematics teacher, are in this group.

"Anne Riggs and Ada Robinson have a television show with sponsors Mark Adams and Nickey Nichols, the business tycoons who manufacture 'Slippery, Slidey, Sloppy Soap'. Also in the entertainment field are Annette and Diane Neely, torch singers. Gloria Florence is Fred Daring's accompanist and Frank Warinner is his leading vocalist. Louis Epps has a boogie band composed of soloists Ed White, Gyneth Waldron, Barbara Davis and Nancy Florence. Ed Pierce, Tommy Padgett, and Chuck Hayes are famous ballet dancers now.

"In New York, Pat Inman is a great fashion artist. He has designed dresses for such models as Genie Lee, Jeannette Daves, Carol Cole, Doris Morris, and Bunkie Bond. Douglas Groover, Walter Krauth, and Jimmy Walker are Wall Street brokers. Ray MacMahon is chief of the Chicago police with Mackie McBrayer as traffic director. Carlton Harper, James Taylor, Clyde Nix, and Gerald Keller are midget auto racers and give Mr. McBrayer a great deal of trouble on his highways. C. T. McCurdy is directing a new play by Charles Washington that is a smash hit on Broadway. Its stars are Jimmy Bradley and Carole Wallis.

"In the domestic field, Greta Flowers, Dolores Bradford, Betty Jo Hanes and Joyce Benson are all happily married. Eulalia Dudley and Caroline Wallace have changed their names to something French and are running a charm school. As rival physicians, James Kaiser and Harold Youmans keep their patients satisfied.

"David Sussman is teaching philosophy at Yale with Wayne Seagraves and Jesse Scroggins as associate professors. At Georgia Tech, Wanda Harris and Patricia Knight are conducting a course in engineering. Merita Hope is also at Tech teaching Organic Chemistry.

"Helen Parker has written six volumes of love poems. Another person in the literary field is Frances Atkinson, who has just written a novel entitled Cold Soup.

"Sue Stephenson owns a newspaper with Dorothea Fristoe as editor.

"Ralph Holt pilots Howard Hurley, the great diplomat, to various foreign countries. Martiele Yancey and Dorothy Honea are Mr. Hurley's private secretaries. La Groon Kelley, Janice Kerlin, and Audry Stevenson are having success in the restaurant business.

"Julia Lassiter, Eleanor Lane, James Alexander, Henson Freeman, Jerry Thompson, Tommy Durden, and Herman Norrid are professional athletes. The popular laundry, "The Dirty Dud," is well-managed by Pete Pappas, Billy Dewell, and Ira Doyal. David Richardson, Kenneth Vickery and Bob McAdams are running the 'Snarling Snake,' a new night club.

"Frank Durham is a patent agent. He recently patented Mason Richardson's novel perfume, 'Almost, But Not Quite, Unconquered.' I think that I have left no one from this report except Mary Anne Cantrell. Because of her success on Radio Station WTJH, Mary Anne now has a spot on a national hook-up. Thank you for your time."

You are the one to thank, Miss Hale. That was very enjoyable. Those are all the announcements for this morning.
