OF

THERE IS A TIME . . .

THE YEAR OF THE LANCER is not only one of memories but also of looking ahead as the new decade approaches. One of the things we reflect upon is the tremendous spirit we have shown throughout the school year. We also remember the pride we have taken in being a member of one of the best schools around. And most importantly, our year reflects the sincere dedication we have taken in being a Lancer. Even though we must all eventually leave Lakeshore, we will always carry with us the memorable times we have had throughout our high school years.

Through long hours of practice and hard work Lakeshore has maintained a high quality of performers, whether playing on a field or court, acting in front of a large crowd, or singing to the top of their voices. Lakeshore students keep in mind that Friday and Saturday night's successes are achieved through the week's hard work and training.

Practice

Friday 3:10 — the weekend's here. Whether some of us go to a party, a disco, a skating rink, or the football game, the weekend gives us all some time to forget about books and have some fun before Monday comes.

Weekends

*S*pirit ('spir·it) n. 1. an emotion, frame of mind, or inclination governing one's actions. (school spirit). Whether they just wore a color or went to a football game or yelled at the pep rallies or helped to decorate the halls, during the 79-80 school year Lakeshore students showed more spirit than ever.

During halftime at the Lakeshore -

Campbell football game, the 1979 Homecoming Court was escorted onto the field. The highlight of the evening was when the courts paraded in front of the excited spectators. The senior court waited anxiously as the Lakeshore High School Homecoming Queen was announced.

The 1979 Homecoming Queen — Miss Jacque Bryant

On November 2, 1979, after the football game in which Lakeshore defeated Campbell of Fairburn, the Homecoming Dance was held by the Senior Class. The song chosen by the seniors as the theme was "The Long and Winding Road." With a large turnout, the dance was a success and everybody had a great time.

IT'S ALL IN A STATE OF MIND

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you won't;
If you like to win, but don't think you can,
It's almost a cinch you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost;
For out in the world you'll find
Success begins with a fellow's will;
It's all in a state of mind.

For many a game is lost
Ere even a play is run,
And many a coward fails
Ere even his work is begun.

Think big and your deeds will grow,
Think small and you'll fall behind;
Think that you can and you will;
It's all in a state of mind.

If you think you are out-classed, you are;
You've got to think high to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man,
But sooner or later, the man who wins
Is the fellow who thinks he can.

IF

If you can keep your head when all about you
 Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
 If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
 But make allowance for their doubting too;
 If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
 Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
 Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
 And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream — and not make dreams your master;
 If you can think — and not have thoughts your aim;
 If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
 And treat those two impostors just the same;
 If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
 Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
 Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
 And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can take one heap of all your winnings
 And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
 And lose, and start again at your beginnings
 And never breathe a word about your loss;
 If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
 To serve your turn long after they are gone,
 And so hold on when there is nothing in you
 Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
 Or walk with Kings — nor lose the common touch,
 If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
 If all men count with you, but none too much,
 If you can fill the unforgiving minute
 With sixty seconds worth of distance run,
 Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
 And — which is more — you'll be a Man my son!

Hold Fast Your Dreams

Hold fast your dreams!
 Within your heart
 Keep one still, secret spot
 Where dreams may go,
 And sheltered so,
 May thrive and grow
 Where doubt and fear are not.
 O keep a place apart,
 Within your heart,
 For little dreams to go!

Think still of lovely things that are not true.
 Let wish and magic work at will in you.
 Be sometimes blind to sorrow. Make believe!
 Forget the calm that lies
 In disillusioned eyes.
 Though we all know that we must die,
 Yet you and I
 May walk like gods and be
 Even now at home in immortality.

We see so many ugly things —
 Deceits and wrongs and quarrelings;
 We know, alas! we know
 How quickly fade
 The color in the west,
 The bloom upon the flower,
 The bloom upon the breast
 And youth's blind hour.
 Yet keep within your heart
 A place apart
 Where little dreams may go,
 May thrive and grow.
 Hold fast — hold fast your dreams!

*Once time was quantity untold/Just there to try my patience
But time has turned as I've grown old/And altered our relations*

*'T' was time I figured for a fool/And time I used to curse
In knowing time is nature's tool/To school the universe*

*With time I grew more wise and strong/And as I hit my stride
Time brought experience along/To serve me as my guide*

*Experience it was in fact/That led me to the truth
By taking me behind time's back/To view my dying youth*

*Old time had taught my youth to flee/And with my youth had flown
But now my youth was left to die/As time flew on alone*

*Time being a twinkle in my eye/Assured me I was cute
Then played the hours fleeting by/With me in hot pursuit*

*I begged my youth, don't die like this/Remain with me awhile
Time turned and gave us both a kiss/And youth died with a smile.*

WE LOVE YOU
LAKESHORE

SENIORS 1980

As we, the Lancers of Lakeshore High School, come to the close of another school year, we realize just how important the year has been. In remembering the past, we will always cherish the memories of the pride, dedication, and spirit that were all a part of the YEAR OF THE LANCER. But we also dream of the future as the new decade promises us a life of happiness and success. When the time comes for us to leave Lakeshore, we can all proudly say that we were part of a school that had its own special Year.
