THESE WESTWOOD DAYS OF OUR LIVES

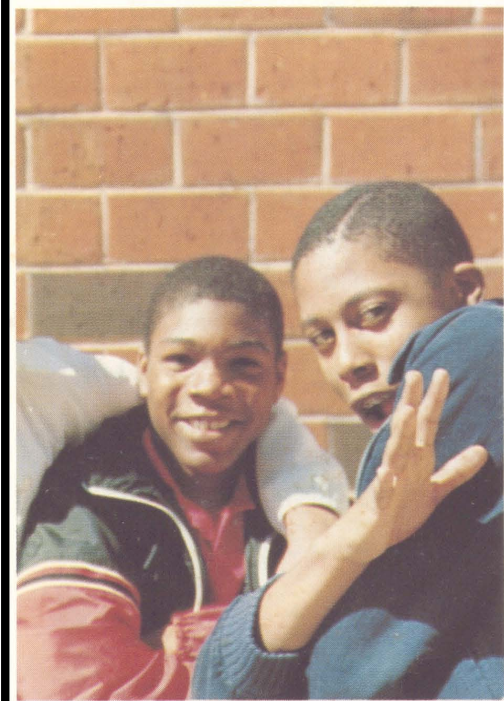

MOVE UNDER THE CHERRY MOON

TEACHERS, PARTNERS, BEST FRIENDS

MAY BE GONE WITH THE WIND

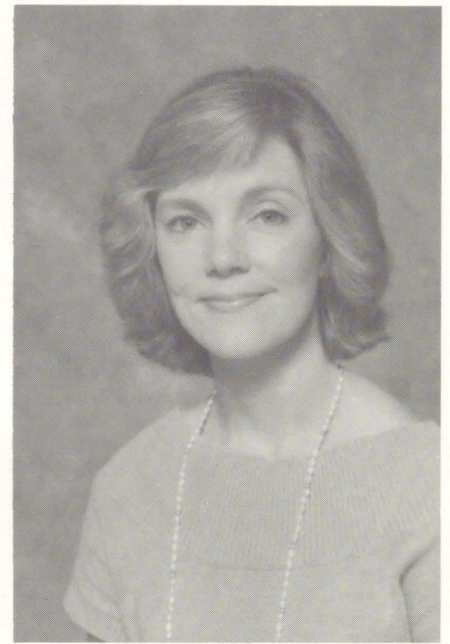

BUT OUR MEMORIES WILL LAST OUR LIVES THROUGH

MY FAIR LADY

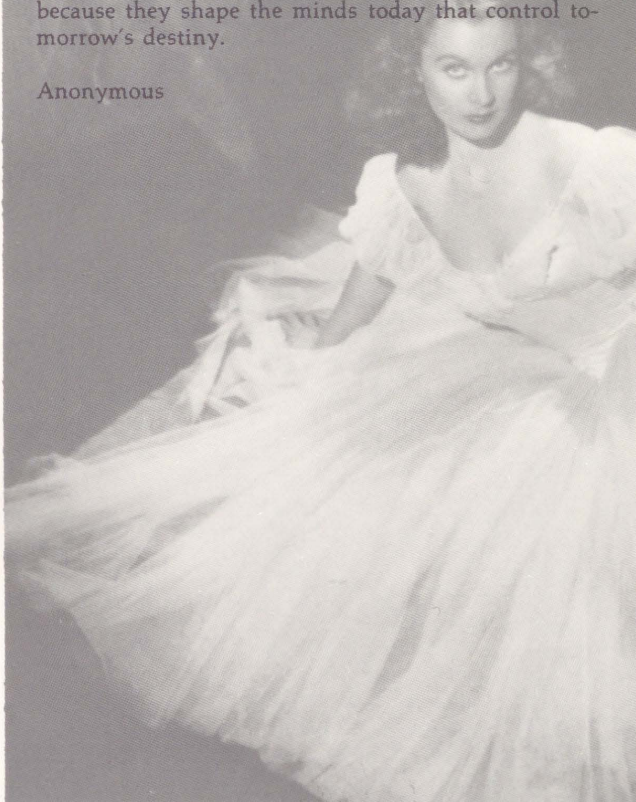

Now Wouldn't That Be Lovely

Debbie Lowe

When a person makes the decision to become a Teacher they assume an awesome task and a tremendous responsibility for they must find the key that opens a child's mind to wonders of knowledge and create an awareness in the child of his or her instinctive, insatiable thirst for learning, known as curiosity. Parents can give a child Life, and Home and Love, but since the dawn of Man it has been the Teacher who gives the child the foundation of their future and molds the character of their childhood. All great people can look into their childhood past and find at least one Teacher who influenced the incentive and ambition resulting in success. How tragic that Mankind has failed to recognize the Teacher as its greatest asset, for of all the professions to be a Teacher is the most important because they shape the minds today that control tomorrow's destiny.

I've Grown Accustomed To Their Faces

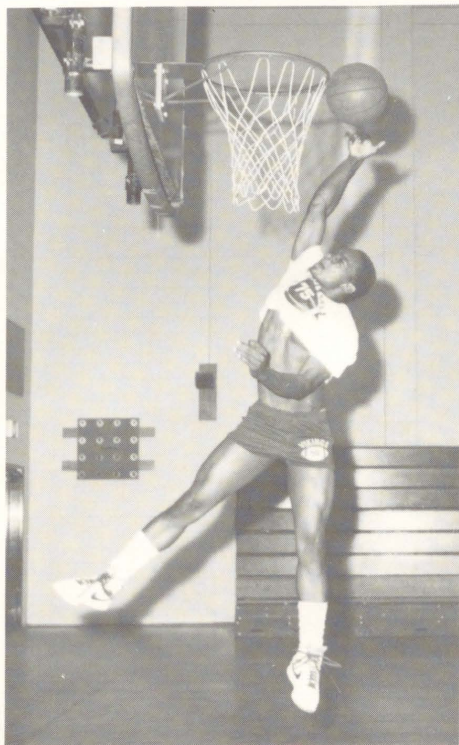

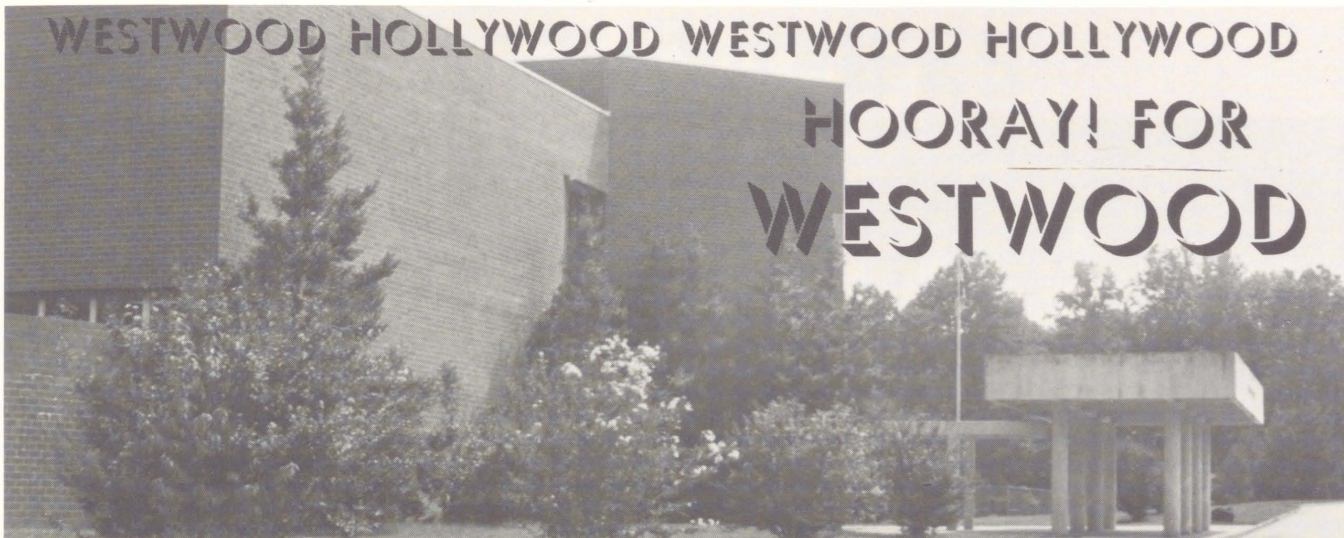

The Graduating class of 1987 dedicates the yearbook to Mrs. Debbie Lowe. She was chosen by the Seniors because she exemplified the idea of being dedicated, helpful, caring, knowledgeable, interesting and well liked. Our Seniors appreciate Mrs. Lowe's unsurpassed helpfulness and wisdom in providing us with the best quality English education a student could ever have. She is truly one of Mankind's greatest assets.

"Little Bit"

May your smile give to others the joy you have given me.
May God's grace and love help you become the person you want to be.
May his love and kindness be ever present in all you say and do.
May you always find strength and courage in the fact that I LOVE YOU!
Dad

To my Graduate! Kim Nelson

When I first layed my eyes on the first born of God's two miracles, I knew as you grew older you were going to make me a very proud father. God showd me many times that you were truly an angel; this I shall never forget. You have been more to me than a daughter — my friend, my confidante, my joy! Thank you for being the type of daughter any parent would be proud to have. We all love you very much.

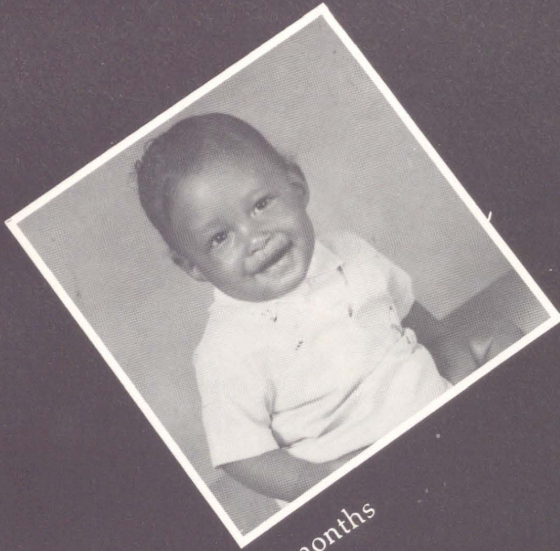

Now my little girl has grown up and is about to begin preparation for her life. Just continue to be as you have been, keep your hands in God's hands and you will do just fine. May God continue to bless you and keep you in his care!

Good Luck Baby!

God Grant Monica . . .
Courage and hope for every day.
Faith to guide her along the way
understanding and wisdom too.
And Grace to accept what life challenges her to do.

DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit . . .
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a person turns about,
When they might have won had they stuck it out,
Don't give up though the pace seems slow . . .
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup;
And he learned too late when the night came down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success if failure turned inside out . . .
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit . . .
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

May You Be Blessed
With Continued Happiness and Success
Love,
Mom, Ott, Thomas, and Carlos

Congratulations
Crystal

Three Years ago I started out,
 Not knowing what a yearbook was all about;
 All that typing and cropping
 Almost drove me insane!
 But it was never, ever, ever, in vain.
 For I became the Editor of The Saga,
 Westwood's reign.
 But at times, it has been a pain.
 This Saga is better than any before.
 And I hope that there will be many more.
 So here's to the class of 1987,
 The best class by far,
 May your life be as precious
 As these pictures truly are!
