foreword

This book is more than a mere collection of pictures and copy.

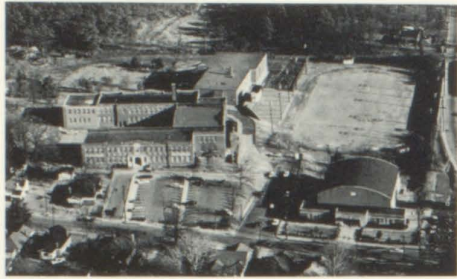

It is a record of twenty-five years of activities which have become traditional at Hapeville High. This HILLTOP is designed to emphasize the pride and honor in the hearts and minds of the students.

Its pictured pages portray the fighting spirit of a student body supporting its teams; a do-or-die spirit of players; joyous social affairs from formals to sock-hops.

Sports and socials, however, are not the major concerns this book shows. Most of all, The HILLTOP presents the program of the school's people who will continue to give character to Hapeville High School through their various activities—for another twenty-five years of academic achievement.

hapeville high school

The school began in 1931-32 with only an eighth grade, housed upstairs in College Street elementary school. Everybody took the same academic subjects.

Each year thereafter, another grade was added, and the subjects broadened to include business education, fine arts, and vocational courses.

In January, 1938, two hundred-sixty-eight students, freshman through juniors, were moved into the first unit of the Hapeville High School building. In 1949, the second unit was completed with cafeteria and auditorium for 464 students. Ninety-three seniors graduated.

In 1959, the third unit was completed. The physical education classes moved from the City Gym to the school campus, thus accommodating its present 860 students.

After twenty-five years of expansion, the school, housed in a complete plant, operates as a fully accredited senior high school.

Oh, we love the hills of Hapeville High
Where whispering pine trees sway;
Where azure skies surround thy halls,
And gentle breezes play.
We laugh and learn each day
With eager steps, or slow
That sweep us to the rosy afterglow.
To thee we sing in praise
And reach for goals anew
That foster dreams when we have said adieu.
For we love the halls of Hapeville,
Where cherished memories stay,
Where love and laughter echo still,
And softly fade away.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

February 28, 1964

TO MY FRIENDS OF HAPEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL:

All my days I shall remember that New Year's Day of 1939 when student body and faculty assembled for the first time in the brand-new high school on the hill-top. I remember the fresh, clean, new-paint smell of the school on that January day twenty-five years ago.

There was one thing about the school in its early days that amused me, and those of you who were there then will remember it - that dinky little platform or stage in the auditorium. When as many as three people were on it, its capacity was taxed.

But we were all so proud of this new school which had been developing year by year over at College Street, and which now was ready to move out on its own. Students were proud of it, the faculty was proud of it, and the community was proud of it.

And twenty-five years later we still are proud of Hapeville High School. We are grateful for the thousands of young men and women who have found in the school such a rich source of qualification for life and vocation. The contribution these young people have made and are making in so many areas of service to community, state and nation is incalculable.

And so it is in these who have been students at Hapeville High School that we find our greatest pride.

It was a rare privilege and one I shall never forget to have been the first principal of the new Hapeville High School. My associations with students, faculty and community are among the most pleasurable of my life.

But while it is good to think of the school's past, it is even better to think of her great potential for the future. It is a wonderfully fine school today with an able principal and faculty, a challenging student body, and serving one of the best communities to be found anywhere.

And so while rejoicing in the bright legacy of Hapeville High School's history, I congratulate the school upon the promise of her future.

Sincerely yours,

Douglas G. Macrae

PAUL D. WEST, Superintendent
 Fulton County Schools

Edmond Ezra Day gave this definition of a free man: "The free man has an inquiring mind, an appetite for new truth. He respects knowledge and, as opportunity offers, acquires it. He is prepared to suspend judgment until the available evidence is in and weighed. He seeks constantly to be unbiased, objective, fair-minded, honest; to think freely, critically, clearly. He is humble enough to admit the possibility of his own error, and hence is tolerant of the honest thinking of others who disagree with him"

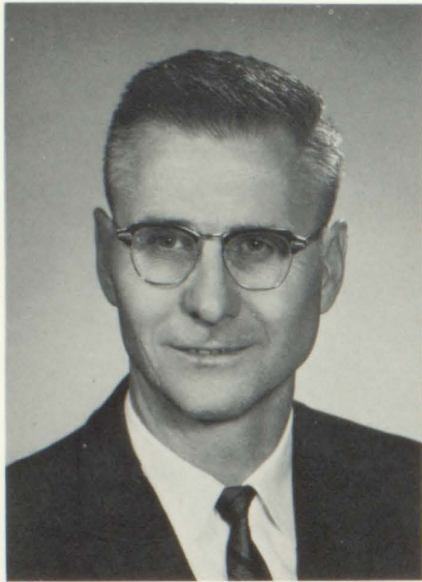

Within the framework of this wholesome philosophy Hapeville High School came into existence as a full-fledged four-year high school in 1938 - twenty-five years ago. The initial student body had come from a two-year high school program that was in progress at the College Street School; from Russell High School which had included all third and fourth year students residing in the Tri-Cities from 1927 to 1938; and from other public and private schools in Metropolitan Atlanta. Although separated from a single school during this period, there was on the part of all a thread of sound scholarship and wholesome spirit which had been engendered during the elementary school days at North Avenue School and at College Street School. These high standards had been a matter of general knowledge throughout the Fulton County School System.

This background gave to Hapeville High School from its very beginning a mold and a purpose to which all succeeding student bodies have subscribed with sincerity of purpose and the resultant achievement. The diversified recognition that has come to the School during these twenty-five years has bespoken fully the high caliber of its program and its personnel. Successful, outstanding and purposeful products are the best index of the quality of the individual school. Hapeville High ranks high in this evaluation.

The members of the Fulton County Board of Education and the other members of the Administrative Staff join me in these expressions of sincere congratulations as your school begins another quarter century of service to the community, to Georgia and to the nation.

STUDENTS APPRECIATE THE TEACHERS

The teachers at Hapeville High are a professional group. From their unselfish dedication to duty, they have the appreciation of the students. ## SUBJECTS

LANGUAGE—ARTS

LANGUAGE SKILLS ARE BASIC: grammar, syntax, usage—all of this and diagrams, too, show relationships in Latin and Spanish. Then, reading classics, outlining, memorizing "The curfew tolls . . ." and essay writing, both expository and creative—all of this helps to develop appreciation in aesthetic arts.

SENIORS IN ADVANCED CLASSES study classical culture from FILMED LESSONS.

ACADEMIC ATMOSPHERE OF LECTURE, DISCUSSION

Foreign LANGUAGE LABORTORY aids in CONVERSATIONAL Spanish.

Art talent thrives in SCULPTURE laboratory.

MUSIC relates to other classics.

VOCATIONAL AND INDUSTRIAL STUDIES

STENOGRAPHIC skills and bookkeeping are useful in self-employment or handy helps in future college study. Mechanical drawing gives training in practical household needs. Home making? There is no substitute for lessons learned in the economy of better living concerning food and clothing.

In DIVERSIFIED COOPERATIVE TRAINING students analyze job data as related to work, time, and pay.

EXPERIMENT, FOSTERS INTEREST IN ARTS, SCIENCE, AND VOCATIONS.

HOME MAKING includes machines, general business, and the arts.

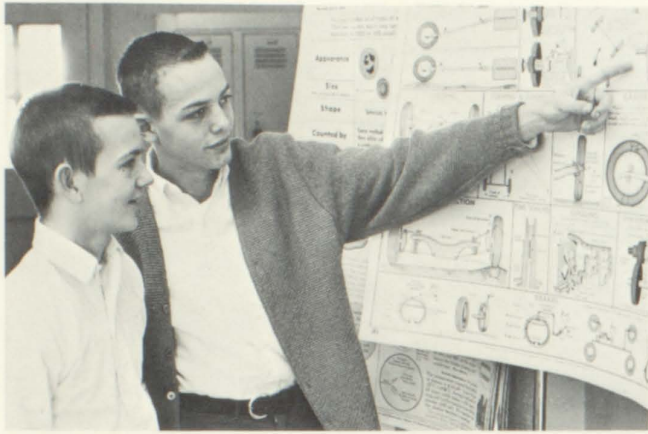

TYPING is still basic in machine age.

LAB SKILLS result in do-it-yourself.

Beginners get overview of field from GENERAL SCIENCE.

OUR WORLD OF SCIENCE

Accent on science is still "a must" in modern living. Disease hunting calls for microscopic observation; caloric counting prompts food analysis; space penetration means precision trajectories. The science department accents these studies.

CHEMISTRY is related to foods and health.

Testing FORMULAS in lab encourages SCIENTIFIC STANDARDS.

BIOLOGICAL science shows importance of science in the care of the human body.

PHYSICS dominates the field in atomic and electronic living.

MATHEMATICS is basic to all the physical sciences.

SOCIAL STUDIES

AND ITS PEOPLE

WORLD GEOGRAPHY puts us in orbit; WORLD HISTORY spins us through the ages, from medieval times to America's centennial. ECONOMICS shows us the place of Georgia's products in world trade. And we are concerned as to where we are.

WORLD GEOGRAPHY makes us feel so close together.

ROTC CADETS PRESENT COMPANIES FOR INSPECTION BY GHQ STAFF

Tuesday and Thursday afternoon is drill time for cadets in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, for it is on the field that cadets learn discipline and proficiency necessary to attain the rank of officer.

Officers are responsible for operational scheduling; for intensive drill in small units so that cadets may learn to react correctly to specific commands. Cadets are responsible for knowing the material in the manual and for being up-to-date on current happenings.

A cadet's reaction to weekly drill is reflected in the pride he takes in excellence of performance of his company during the annual County Competitions; and in his aspiration to be someday an officer in the United States Armed Forces.

Father Martin listens to daughter Crifasi's plea that she "needs experience to be a writer."

Mother Hicks sends Maid Looney to the garden with more cookies to "quiet the confusion."

"Uncle Mervin" Rast consoles Penny after news that Chuck's glider had fallen.

HIGHLIGHTS

FROM THE FOOTLIGHTS

Big shot "Roger" Warren cuts in on Mervin with "orchids exchanged for gardenias."

Heart broken Penny realizes she's been the "goat" at her own party.

Director Jackie Moore watches from backstage as the play moves along.

"Mother, they laughed at me," sobs Penny in her adult finery.

SPIRIT

For The Honor Of The School

COMPETITIVE SPORTS AT HAPEVILLE HIGH HAVE ALWAYS AIMED AT BUILDING STRONG BODIES AND MOLDING CHARACTER

Competitive spirit with Hornet teams and their fans began a quarter of a century ago. College Park was the lone opponent. Then came Russell; and others, the big ones. Hornets always played there. Why? No field here. Just a boggy cow pasture. Hornets won more than a majority, until Russell and others went big league.

Lack of depth, a playing field, or equipment, however, never dampened Hornet spirit. Bodies colliding, muscles straining, nerves grinding—all this has through the years symbolized athletic contests. Sports competition has been hard.

The sports program has grown. To football, basketball, and track were added baseball, tennis, bowling, soccer, and wrestling. Coaches have fielded many a splendid team and have sent on to college and professional leagues some seasoned players.

Wherever the play, or however hard the struggle, the fighting spirit of Hornet players is seen and felt; yes, even heard through the conflict of battle. Competitive spirit that cuts clean and leaves no scars fosters a thriving end-product—strength to survive.

Sports competition at Hapeville does that.

AFTER 25 YEARS

the students

Eight hundred and sixty students keep 49 teachers busy teaching them 43 different subjects. Of these, only 11.4 per cent failed anything; 6 per cent made the Honor Roll; 50 per cent took academic courses; 25 per cent took business education; 25 per cent finished as general students.

In addition to classes, 85 per cent of the students belong to "extra" activities under the sponsorship of 25 teachers.

Hapeville High School is a busy place: morning, noon, and night.

CLASS OFFICERS: Thearon Eidson, President; Ronnie Nix, Vice-President; Diane Kirkland, Secretary; Mary Ellen Bolton, Treasurer.

THE HILLTOP PROUDLY PRESENTS 25th SENIOR CLASS . . .

The graduating class of 1964 appreciates the 25 year heritage of its predecessors. The class hopes to contribute something worthwhile to the school and to the community that will strengthen the fiber of a pattern already strongly woven, and colorful. The class appreciates no less, the training it has received here and the fine spirit which nobly characterizes Hapeville High School.

HOME-COMING QUEEN Wade is attended by her two runners-up, Diane Kirkland and Earlene Bryan.

A VERY SPECIAL FEATURE FOR A VERY SPECIAL FRIEND

In her first office—a desk by the radiator—she checks attendance, carefully.

Miss S. counsels students on next year's schedules.

The art class dresses the desk in her new office.

Miss Spratling assists student council in presenting thanksgiving baskets.

Beta Club honors a former Sponsor—Miss Spratling

TO OUR FRIEND

Fragile is her beauty,
Stern her sense of right,
Faithful she to duty,
Ready, for cause, to fight.

Gracious is her friendship.
Quick her helping hand,
Whatever be the problem
She seeks to understand.

Selfless is her living,
Service is her creed,
She never counts the giving
If she can meet a need.

The years she gave to Hapeville,
Have shown her measure tall.
God use her as He will,
But bless her over all.

DFDS

MISS FRANCES SPRATLING
Assistant Principal
1951 - 1962

In September, 1951, Miss Spratling came to us as Assistant Principal. She stayed till September, 1963, working to improve Hapeville High in every capacity—in attendance; in student activities; in academic standards; in student character; in PTA functions; in community interests. Her twelve-year stay was almost half the time of Hapeville High's glorious 25 years.

During this time Miss Spratling became a personal part of everything pertaining to the school. She became personal sponsor for certain special activities. It was she who stimulated student council growth—its party campaigns and elections, with definite platform objectives; its citizenship-point system; its talent shows; the Fall Ball and Twerp Week—all these came to life under her sponsorship.

It was she who made "truancy" a painful experience for errant students. It was she who brought organization and regulation to an ever-growing ambitious school and who maintained standards that have given Hapeville High School a record of enviable quality.

Her interest in academic achievement stemmed from her own personal ideals as well as from her former sponsorship of the Beta Club and the yearbook at West Fulton. For these ideals, these standards, these services, the seniors wish to thank Miss Spratling for helping make their "Alma Mater" a better place for her having been here.

It is in recognition of her years of service and in appreciation of her professional contribution to the school that the senior class devotes this space in The Hilltop to Miss Frances Spratling as our Superlative Teacher—a very Special Feature.

Hapeville's Business Has Prospered in the Hands of the Graduates For 25 Years.

Dr. James Dowdy sells pain pills for every ill.

Bradley's Good Gulf keeps Hapeville's wheels turning.

Thrailkill's Grocery offers Kwik-Pik goodies.

Rudy Jones keeps the houses trimly painted.

Circulation Managers: Paul Wallace; Dorothy Fleming.

Miss Jacobs assists the Staff in EDITING.

Hilltop Business

begins with cut-throat competition among all seniors to sell ads and get on the Staff—a procedure to establish half the budget. Once the Staff is organized, Circulation Managers whip up sales for the other half of the budget. From then on, it is laying-out, proof-reading, collecting, and writing “thank you” to advertisers. Just like that.

HOME ROOM AGENTS are the school’s “Best Sellers.”

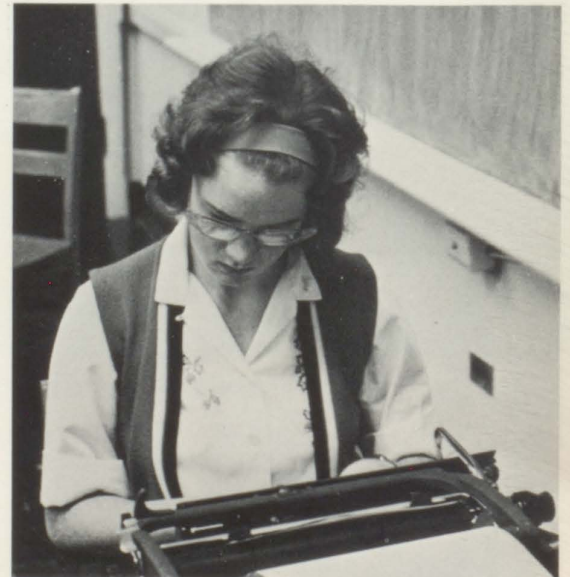

HILLTOP Representatives: L. Summers, L. Myers, J. Wise, B. Ivey, B. Camp, C. Summers, J. Gay, B. Smith, A. Cook, T. Irvine, R. Sims, E. Holland, M. Strickland, L. Montgomery, J. Crawford, C. King, C.
