Senior's Last Will and Testament

I, Lisa Allen, being of partially sound mind and body do hereby leave the following things to the following people: to my sisters Angie and Terri, I leave many fun-filled years at CPHS and the hopes that they enjoy theirs as much as I have mine. To Mrs. Graham I leave a six pack and a Go-Go's tape to use when they go caroling, also a new, more illustrious annual staff. To T.B. and T.P., two exciting basketball games to clown around at. To Sam Wilson, a life-time supply of "Tasty Pizza" and a bag of oregano. To Buzzard, many more semi-wonderful years together. To Mr. Barchi, the pizza he never received, and a wonderful office aide to take my place. To the Senior Class of 1983, the hopes that they will have as much class as we did, and also the ability to get as many cars in the Senior Parking Lot as we were able to. Finally, to College Park High School, I simply leave!

I Patricia Allen being of sound mind and body, hereby leave to my friends and Family: To Terri Allen, I leave you my sense of humor, my locker and album, and all the success there is. To Ricky Allen I leave you more young ladies and my C.P. jacket. To Janus Allen, I leave you to handle all the ladies in the near future. To Cheryl, all my phone numbers on my wall. To Darlene Lewis, I wish you the best with basketball and Ronnie Hall. Sandy Brewster, I leave you my seat in Chorus, and all the concert tickets. To Mike Williams, only a person like you will know what I wish for you. To Cecil Cook, all the sharp clothes. To Darrell Harper, I will you all my school books to carry. To Sharon Russell, I leave you with Clarence. To Mrs. Hogan, I will you all my art work, and my name to carry on.

I Christine Barber, with very intelligent mind and great body would like to will Tressie Barber, my business classes. To Letha Askew, the saying: (It don't sound like it). To Russell Smith, my love. To Concheto Cochran, my letter to Michael Jackson. To Sarita Arnold, my beautiful fingernails, and last, I leave College Park.

I, Susan Chappell, do hereby leave to the following: Tammy Grove, a white Woodward shirt and a Defender game. To Gina Ors, a 3 weekend cruise for Stella. To Mr. Z, the drum majorette's hat. To Troy, my drum major's baton (with-out all the dents!). To Leslie Morrow, Phillip Preston's scattered wardrobe. To Sandy Myrick, my "Senior Privileges" and her fine friend Snoopy. To Donna Cross, Charles McLinskey's body. To Tim Harris, a 21 piece barrel of Kentucky Fried Chicken! To Jimmy Orr, some J.D. To Mr. Johnson, a ceiling that doesn't leak. To Keith Lee, my height. To Coach Cunningham, another well behaved 2nd period class. To Jan, my good looks and my C.P. jacket. To Mrs. Redwine, all the attentive homoerotics to make the morning announcements. To Miss Mac, a center. To Mr. Kimes, a smile. Otis Wells, Pediculus capitis. To Mr. Z's father, the ability to chaperone Florida Trips. To Doyle Stroup, "white lightning". To Ms. Sweezy, Shakespeare's body. To Mr. Robinson, an adopt-a-doll. To Robyn Daniels, my drum majorette's uniform. To Randy Tedder, my basketball abilities. To C.P., I finally leave.

I Ricky Chastain, being of ingenious mind and average body, do hereby leave the following things to the following people: To my baby sister Stacy, I leave my love, and wishes that she may have a super time in high school as I have had, enjoy it while you can, it will be over before you know it. To Donna, Lisa, Sherry, and Jimmy I leave all the great times we've had at C.P.H.S. and may all of you have many more. To Lloyd, I leave hopes that someday he may become a football player for the Georgia Bulldogs! To Mrs. Redwine and Mrs. Cook I leave the ringing phones and errands. To all the teachers I've had, I leave many thanks for helping me get my education, your'e all super. And to one teacher who stands out all the rest, Miss Lee, I want to say I really appreciate all your help, and all of your advice which I know I'll use in the future. I think one of the hardest things about leaving C.P.H.S. is going to be leaving you. Year Super! And thanks again, I could have never made it without you. And to my sisters and brothers Wanda, Ronnie, Randy, Ray and Stacy, I love you all very much. Thanks to Ronnie for your advice on matching clothes. Thanks to Gary for giving me the positive attitude that "I could make it". Thanks to Randy for lending me the Bird on all those special nights during my Senior year, if you ever need my corvette, just let me know! (Ha! Ha!) Thanks to Ray for the gas money, and to Stacy for cranking up the car on all those cold winter mornings. Thanks to my favorite and only sister-in-law Cheryl for everything. (If I wrote down every thing you've done, I'd take up a whole page, I love ya! Ha! Ha!) And finally, special thanks to the World's Greatest Parents! "MINE", for each and everything you've done for me since first grade. I love you very much. (Now where is my Vette)? Just kidding. I love ya. And to College Park High, I finally leave!!!!

I, Sonya Crawls being of sound mind and body would like to leave Corey Hayes all my love and treasured years at C.P. To Dedrena Lewis, the ability to handle drinks like me. To Darlene Lewis, the niceness that I have and stop being so cold to guys! To Tim Love, best wishes in basketball next year, and stop calling me Sonya Crawls. I leave Chet and Janice all my love and my position on the basketball team. I leave Michelle Carter plank. I leave Sabrina Person my outstanding looks. Last, but not least, I leave my dear brother Jesse Crawls, all of my heart and my basketball tennis shoes.

I, Laura Davis, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave the following things to the following people: To Miss Mac, another elf. To Mrs. Hudson, all the memories and fun of "Ramette Season." To Coach Ross, I leave two more statisticians and more successful Basketball seasons. To Mr. Barchi (chief), I leave another aide to take my place. To Miss Bowman, I leave another friend and my 4th period rap sessions. To Bobby Brown, I leave the ability to drive the Park-n-Fly bus. To the Class of '83, I leave the fun of being a Senior and a whole year of SENIORITY. To Mrs. Graham, I leave the deadlines and headaches of annual staff, a Co-editor, and my JANE GRAHAM running suit!!! Finally to CPHS I simply leave.

I, Elissa Downes, being of intellectual mind and lovely body do hereby leave. To Mr. Barchi and Mr. Moore an aide who can fulfill all your needs. To Mrs. Gilmer I leave the frustration and responsibility of new BETA Club members and to the new President I leave the headaches. To Mrs. Cook I leave sunflower seeds and to Mrs. Redwine I leave the ability to tell the students when to go to class and how to do it. To Miss Partington, I leave a new friend to take my place. To Mrs. Marks, I leave all interesting (ha-ha) politics of 500. To Mrs. Graham, I leave all the fun times you have shared with us and hopes that you will have a clan of students as great as we are. To the Class of '83 I wish you the best of luck in trying to be as wonderful as the class of '82. To Charles I leave love and wishes that Hapeville will learn to play football. To my Mom, I leave my love and all the times we have shared throughout all these years. And to CPHS I leave with fond memories.

I, Sherlane Furbee, being of hyperactive mind and body, do hereby leave the following to the following people: To Anne Gray and Ivey Saylor, I leave Tardy Station, To Coach Snyder, I leave another friend and many memories. To Robyn Daniels, all my purple clothes. To Marlina Jordan I leave a big stick of toffee. To Mrs. Ivester, I leave a great lasting friendship and my shorthand pad. To Mr. Kimes, I leave another "magical friend." To my handsome brother Bart, I leave all the Senior Privileges, (there aren't any!) I leave a big stick to fight the girls off with. Also I leave a Big Kiss. I Love You, Bart! To Lenora Miller I leave another great summer with the youth. To Mrs. Hudson, I leave the memories of football season and Ramette practice. To Mrs. Redwine & Mrs. Cook, I leave another person to chat with and help in the office. Finally to CPHS, I leave!!!

I, Ronnie Godwin being of unsound mind and average body do hereby leave to: Bart Furbee, my tennis playing ability even though he is the best. To Tommy Stepp I leave rib protectors and memories of a white moon (Mark Volkmer!) To Robert "Hugh" Brown, I leave my common sense and ability to graduate on time. To Tarbush, I leave a new Ferrari (312). To Gloria Graham, I leave my class ring because I never got it back! To Ivey, I leave a small piece of my broken heart. To Kelly Mitchell, I leave myself, and Finally I leave!

I, Thomas Joseph Gray, being of body, my mind was usually somewhere else, Mrs. Graham's class so she wouldn't have any more troublemakers. To "White Boy" Tedder, I leave my trombone ability. To Ivey Saylor I leave a piece of my broken heart. To Danny Evans, I leave the Key Club. To Mike Campbell, I leave the offensive line. To Mrs. Sweezy, I leave alot but mainly a closet that never got cleaned, a visit after second period, Shakespeare, Beowulf, Queen Elizabeth, and my troubled Love Life. To Grant Gay, I leave my membership card to Kirkpatrick Watchers. To Lisa Clancy, I leave some of Caroline's fudge. To Chris Perkins, I leave a morning fudge, a mom away from home, and rain, sleet, or snow. To Mr. Z I leave my three sisters and a brother on the way. To Pam Kirkpatrick, I leave a tiny Rubie's cube solved. To my twin sister's Laurie and Mary, I leave all the candy they refused to sell me. To Marlina Jordan, I leave Devo and a new tradition. To Dean Spencer I leave a high five. To Anne Gray, I leave a new best friend if she can find anyone worthy. To Bobby Brown, I leave a Park-n-Fly van. To Tena Gowen, I leave a car with it's own mind. To Glen Long I leave all the sticks at Park-n-Fly. And from College Park I leave.....

I, Bettina Hayes, being of sexy and lovable person do hereby leave my sweet brother Corey Hayes my crazy personality and my place on Annual Staff. I wish Janice Pricilla Smith my good patience to stand twelve years of school. I leave Jesse Bettina Hayes to play basketball and my lunch money everyday. I leave Dedrena Lewis my drinking ability. I leave Chet Cochran my hair. I wish Janice Ballard all the luck in basketball. And I definitely leave James Ponder to Venus Bolton, since she thought I wanted him so bad! I leave Tracy Jackson all the luck in the basketball next year. I leave Michelle Carter my height. I leave Theresa Willis my beauty. To all I leave my love, May God Bless You All.

I, Chandra Jackson, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave the following things to the following people: To Taurie Stinchcomb I leave someone else to borrow a quarter from. To Letha Askew I leave someone else to hit while walking down the halls. To Mrs. Graham I leave another capable editor such as myself. To Mrs. Howell, I leave another daughter who is as lovable as I am. To my sisters Sabrina and Tracy I leave much love and success. To the girls and boys basketball teams, I leave love and success. To Darlene Lewis I leave my ability to keep cool. To Dedrena Lewis I leave love and friendship, and to College Park, I sadly leave.

I, Robyn Virlene Toland, being of sound mind, body, and soul do hereby leave the following to the following: To Tracy Jackson, I leave all my love, happiness, and all the great times we've shared together. I also leave you all the success in the world. I know you can handle it. Love always. To Greg (Pete) Williams, I leave the success of becoming a great athlete, (your already good). I also leave the fun times we've shared and all my love. (To Sebrum (Dirty) Rose and Cecil Cook, I leave all the great times we've shared for the last 3 years). Hopes you can make it next year without me. To Michael Williams, I leave the memories of when you left for lunch with the Seniors. (To Sebrum you're a fresh-men!) You may not be so slick next year. To Beth and San Cha, I leave you the ability of becoming great managers the way I did. Love Ya! To Margaret Gunn, I leave you my great personality, and the ability to succeed in whatever you do. To Wanda Merriweather, I leave the memories of when you almost had your baby in my car and scared us to death. To Lady Michelle, I leave you just as you are, sweet, crazy and a wonderful friend. To Mr. Johnson, I leave all my love and thanks for your help. To Mrs. Howell, I leave you someone else to write a locker pass for during lunch. Thanks and love always. To Mrs. Graham, I leave someone else the headaches and pleasure as editor over the ads. To the Girls Varsity Basketball Team, I leave you the ability of going all the way to state. You can do it! Finally, to C.P.H.S. I leave!!!!

I, Michael R. Weeks, being of stubborn mind and argumentative body do hereby bequeath the following: To Mr. Manning, I leave all the irrational numbers he can prove exist. To Robyn Daniels, I leave a new P.A. aid. To Marlina Jordan, I leave the no longer honorable title of SENIOR. To Cindy Lindsey, I leave the concertmaster's chair of the orchestra. To Miss McElwaney, I leave someone more ideal than myself. To Anne Gray, I leave a zerkov. To Randy Tedder, I leave the trombone section of the band. To John Stitt, I leave my talent at handling Mr. Everts. To Bart Furbee, I leave the Key Club. To Mrs. Howell, I leave a backgammon player she can win against. To my loveable sister, Julie, I leave my skill and grace at the art of hand roaming and all the boys she can ever want. Finally, to College Park High with much joy and sadness, I leave.

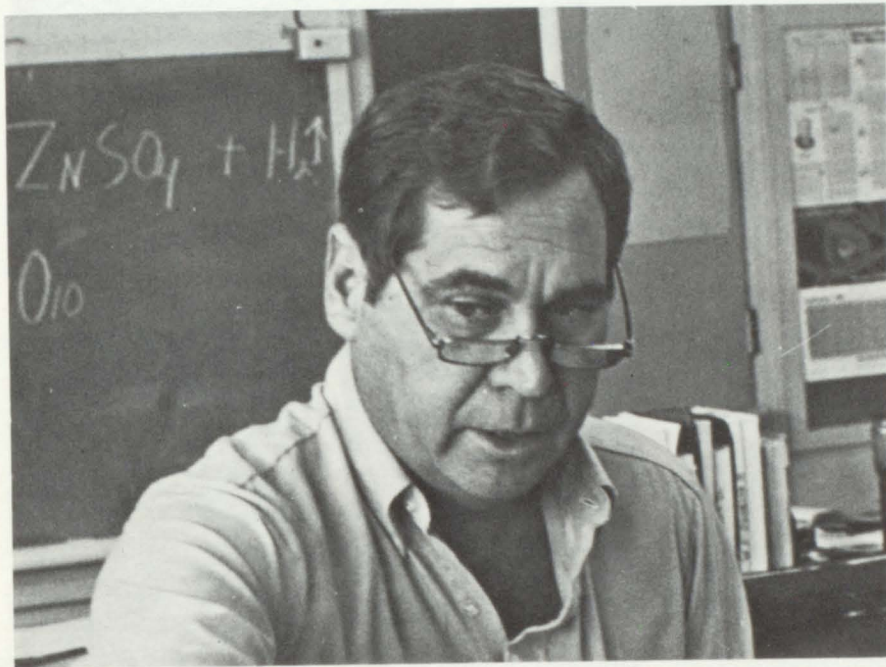

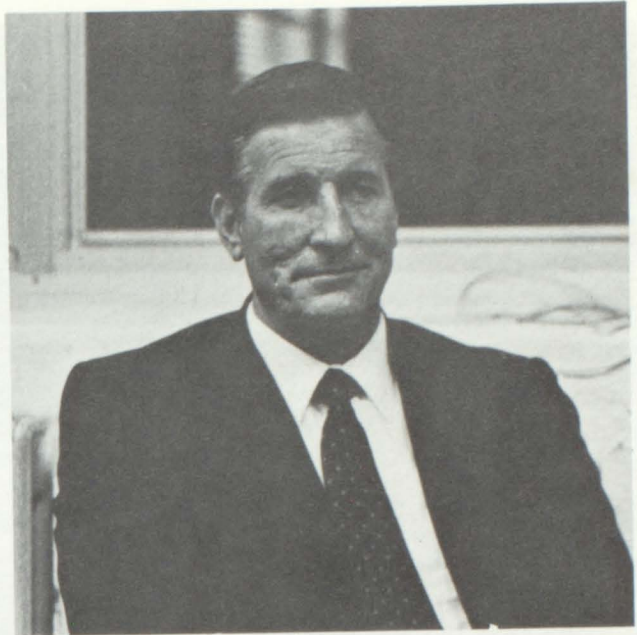

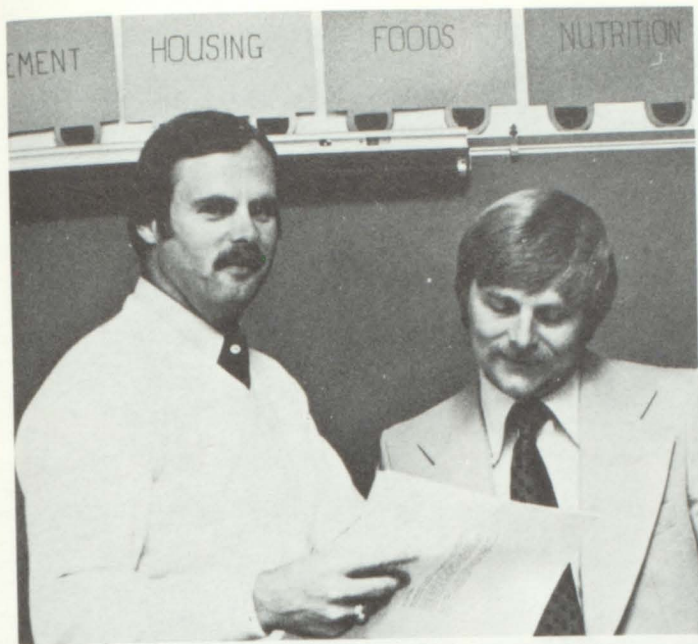

I, Ken White, being of sound mind and body leave to anybody who takes wood tech my abilities and skill in wood. I leave all the teachers and students my ability of mechanics. I leave Ms. Shaw the ability to take the key out of her ignition. To Mrs. Hudson, the ability to put headlights on her cars and to Coach Cunningham, the ability to tune up his car. To Cindy Lindsey, I leave the memories of walking to class together. To Mrs. Graham, I leave someone to take your test every Friday and write your term papers. To Bobby Brown, I leave the fun of being SENIORS. To Robyn Daniels and Molly Gaston, I leave the best of luck in school and in life. But, last of all, to all the students at CPHS, I leave the school, and the best years of your life!!

DEDICATION

- Chief . . . .
- Concern for others . . .
- Understanding . . . .
- Fun-loving and kind . . .
- Generous . . . .
- A great friend . . . .

MR. NORMAN S. BARCHI

There are certain characteristics that a person must possess to make him special. He must be caring and kind with a concern for the individual; at the same time he must be fun-loving and understanding. He must be a friend in the truest sense of the word. Because you personify these characteristics and more, we, the 1981-82 Aries Staff proudly dedicate this annual to MR. NORMAN S. BARCHI.

HIGHER DESTINY

We are born for a higher destiny than that of earth; there is a realm where the rainbow never fades, where the stars will be spread before us like islands that slumber on the ocean and where the beings that pass before us like shadows will stay in our presence forever.

Edward Bulwer Lytton

The tissue of life to be
We weave with colors, all our own
And in the field of Destiny
We reap as we have sown

John Greenleaf
Whittier

Ideals are like stars. You will not succeed in touching them with your hands; but, like the seafaring man, you choose them as your guide, and, following them, you will reach your destiny.

Carl Schurz

What lies before us is only the beginning of our destiny . . .
