Ridgeview High Senior: This is your life!

Waking up early because homework was too tough, the senior stumbles out of bed and heads for the shower ...

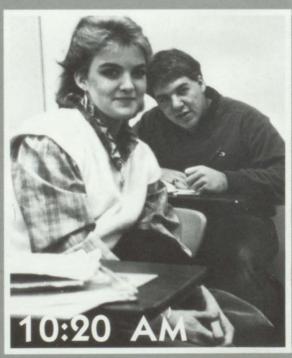

After parking diagonally, the Seniors rush to class to overcome the trials and tribulations of yet another day.

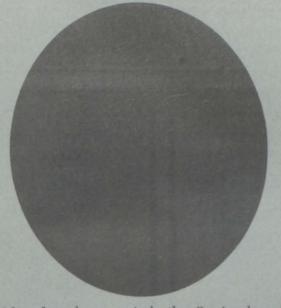

Teachers just don't understand the importance of sleep.

Day after day Seniors enjoy a pleasant meal that could be their last supper ...

ear doctor.) Sincerely, Marcies Mom

April 1, 1985

Marcie's Mom

To Who It May Concern,

Please excuse my daughter, Marcie Manhattan at 12:15 today, as she has an appointment with Dr. Mick L. Lobe (her

After four long periods the Senior has defeated lunch and now it is time to head for home.

12:14

With a forged note and a capable car, the Seniors can move on to fun.

By the time a student has reached Senior status, they know how to party. One problem; the teachers are even older and wiser, but with effort, anything can be overcome!

Perhaps little known but now published:

The inner provocative thoughts of the faculty of Ridgeview High School.

We'll get along fine just as soon as you realize I'm God.

Come on Jane, say hello to the nice man.

Whatever you do will be insignificant, but it is very important that you do it.

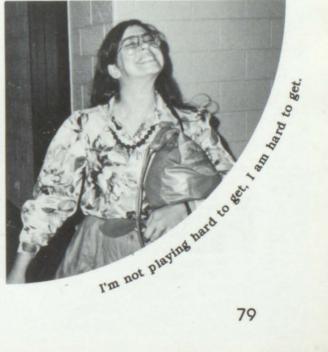

Welcome to the zoo.

I'm not deaf, I'm ignoring you.

I don't care, I don't have to.

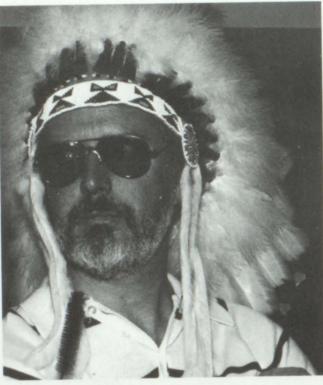

Life is too short to be taken seriously.

When I want your opinion, I'll beat it out of you.

It's a Sealy Posturepedic morning.

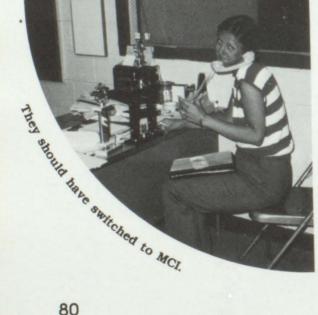

I may get older, but I refuse to grow up.

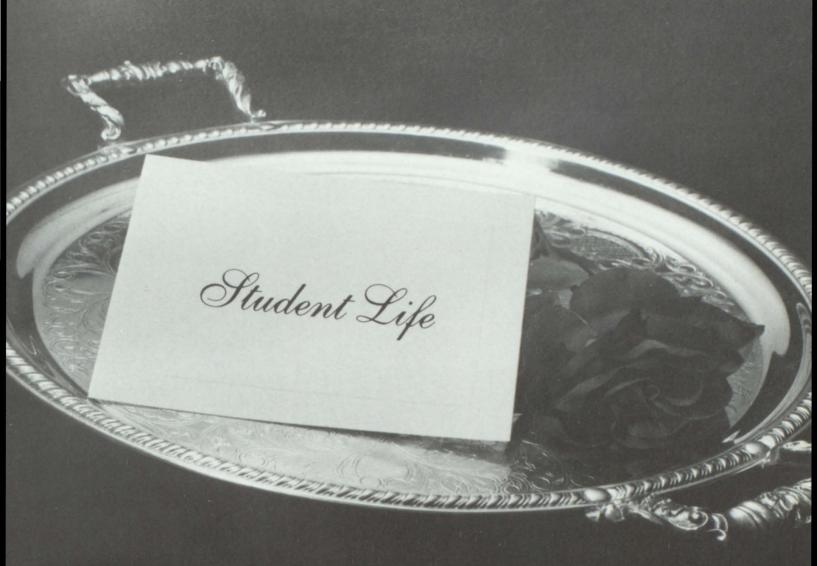

It's hard to soar with the eagles when you're surrounded by a group of turkeys.

Your typical Auburn graduate.

Come VEE with me.

Due to decreasing enrollment, Ridgeview High School was forced to forego its Varsity football season; therefore, homecoming was postponed to basketball season. Homecoming was the first regular season basketball game which was against Sequoyah. In a hard fought contest, our boys fell short by a few points. At half-time the 1984 Ridgeview Homecoming queen was crowned. This year the seniors chose five representatives. They were Lisa Frost, Lynn Garry, Nancy Johnson, Mia McGaughy, and Rana Simonson. Completing the court were Freshman representative Ellen Morris, Sophomore representative Lisa Blank, and Junior representative Amy Myers. A school wide election resulted in the crowning of Rana Simonson as the 1984 Homecoming queen.

Sponsored by student council, spirit week was a special time which helped make homecoming an exciting occasion. Throughout the week spirit links were sold. Although all the classes competed in amassing the most links, a battle ensued between the Freshmen and the Seniors for victory. As one entered the lunchroom, one could hear the fingering of dimes flowing forth to buy the precious links. The week culminated in a pep rally unrivaled by all others. With an island day theme the students and the cheerleaders raised the roof. Each class displayed their banners, the junior class banner being voted the best. Overall, spirit week represented the feeling of pride in each Redskin.

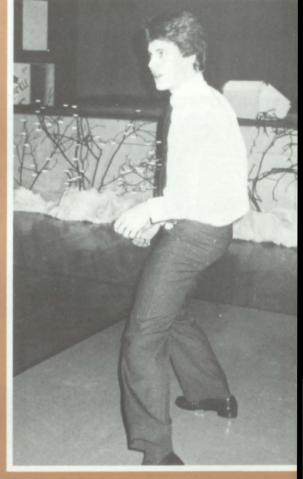

On December 15, 1984 the Homecoming dance was held in the gym. To the music of Sparkle, a local band which plays jam music, Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen alike partied the night away. This dance was the best in years with over a 150 students spending the night dancing together.

During the years at RHS, we have seen many classics in the world around us. From movies and their stars to television and its personalities to musicians and their groups, we have witnessed individuals and their production of enduring excellence. In some particular way these movies, stars, shows, and groups have moved us to the point of deeming them: The Classics Of Our Generation.

Welcome to the days of old, the Knights of the Round Table, and the enchanted castle of Camelot. The 1985 Miss RHS pageant took place in this mystic realm with eighteen contestants competing in talent and evening gown competitions. The field was then narrowed down to five, (Shay Burdette, Jennifer London, Ana Moore, Laura Panarelli, and Kathryn Rogers) and later to one, after each was asked to expound on a topic.

Nick Demos kept the audience entertained while the judges made their decision -

Miss Ana Moore crowned Miss RHS 1985.

Mr. Bird's class: sit back, relax, and enjoy the show.

Life is a beach!

4 fumbles: why did coach take me out?

Sometimes you just gotta say ... what the heck!

Go ahead, make my day!

Before ...

When you close your eyes do you dream about me?

What can you say about her that hasn't already been said?

After.

I just can't handle it anymore.

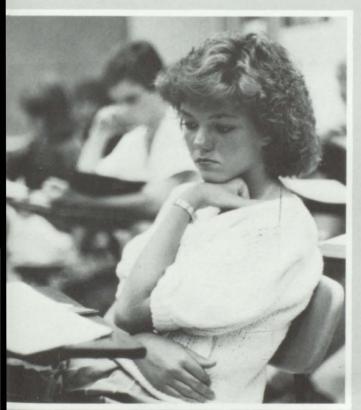

You call her Newla the good witch of the North?!?

I've gotta stop this all night partying.

Ahh - those summer nights!
