In preparing this Wahina, the staff has endeavored to combine its pages to form a lasting mirror of school life at East High School during this year of 1960-1961.

It has been a great privilege to initiate a child of progress, for that is how we should classify our school. It has become, in one short year, a way of life for us. It shall remain thus for you, and shall be fondly remembered by those of us who must leave.

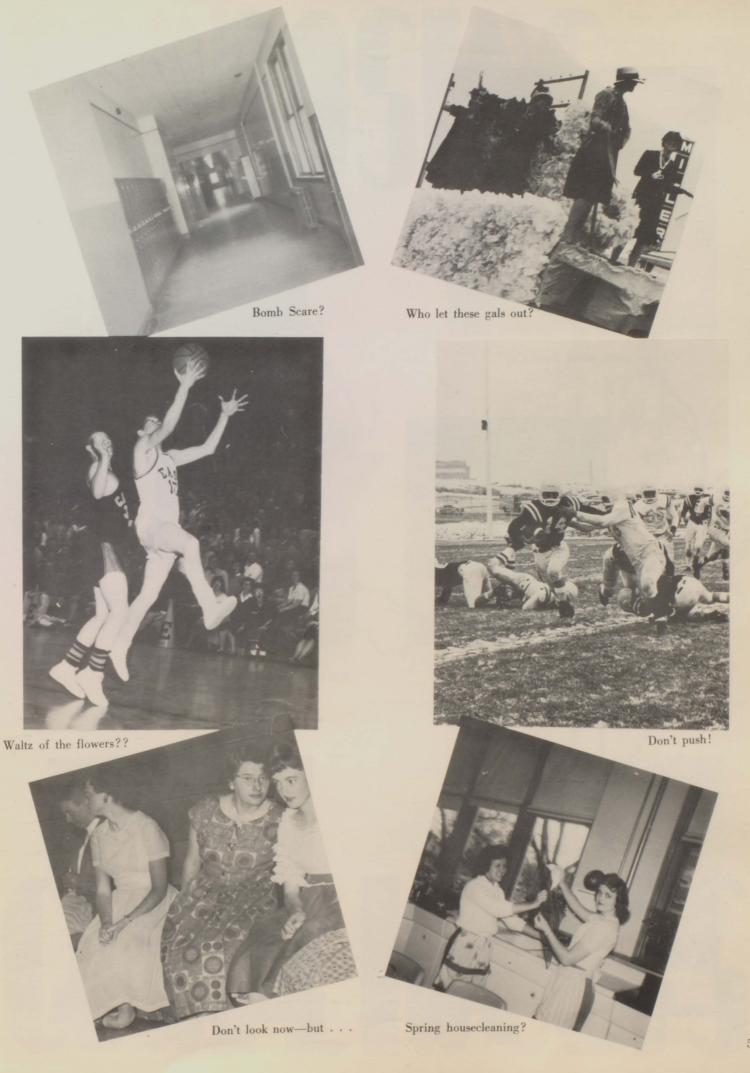

Therefore, it is to you, the body and soul of our school, that we pass on this record. To you, who were too little to play football, but went out anyway to help make the Thunderbirds strong; to you, who donned grease paint to entertain us; to the boys, who learned to till the land and care for their animals; to you, who led the school in cheers during games, no matter what the weather; to you, who blended in harmony and gave us entertainment at the Christmas program; to you, who played that snappy note in band as you moved forward with a quick, proud step for East; to you, who were prompt to classes (and to you who weren't)—it is to you, who did your part, large or small, to build morale behind the lines and prepare for a full, victorious future here, that we dedicate this, the first East High School Annual, the Wahina.

RULING REGULATORS

Student Senate

George Wood

Everett Larsen President

Lvnn Birleffi Secretary-Treasurer

The Student Senate is said by some to be the most important single organization in a school. Be this as it may, it is certainly the only club in which every student is represented. The representatives are elected in each home room at the beginning of the year. Working closely with the faculty and administration. Student Senate strives to serve. In this, the first year of EHS, they have been practically indispensable. They must approve the new charters of each recently organized club and strive to promote a democratic form of govern-

Student Senate sponsored a tremendous Victory Day celebration. They chose the theme. "Birth of the Blues," and organized the best dance and biggest parade Chevenne has ever seen.

Girl's and Boy's State is held annually for students who are desirous of learning the intricate actions of a democratic government. Each student is chosen on the basis of leadership and scholarship, and is a participant of radio and T. V. shows, talent shows, and an election of officers. Climaxing the activities is the core of the whole organization, the participation in government. Each stater group divides into the House of Representatives, Senate, courts, and county offices, which activate bills and hold court cases. They hear from well known political leaders like this year's speaker, Acting Governor Jack Gage. In the end, the students are wiser in their American from of government, and richer in friendships, old and new.

Character, scholarship, leadership, and service are the four outstanding qualities of the members of the East High School National Honor Society. These students are among the finest East High has to offer, and East has every right to be proud of such a fine group.

The Big Sisters organization at East High School is primarily a service organization. These Senior girls make life much easier for the incoming sophomore girls in the fall, and, in general, seem to have a helping hand in most of the school activities. It is very obvious that East High School could never get along without its Big Sisters.

Taendas is an organization that is truly East High's own. The girls in Taendas are honor students who have been invited to join this organization by present members. The Taendas are both a service and an honor organization. They do much for the school throughout the year, sponsoring many diversified activities for the student body.

PEP AND STEAM MACHINE

East Wings

East Wings is an organization formed to support all athletic events and to rouse school spirits.

At every home game and even at some out of town games they were very prominent in their attractive uniforms, blue sweaters and black skirts—cheering our teams on to victory. Membership is offered to anyone having a three average or above.

TWIRL AND WHIRL GIRLS

Twirlers

Giving credit where credit is due, it is obvious that a large amount of it would go to our EHS Twirlers for 1960-61. These girls proved their worth at assemblies, and they did a particularly fine job during our cold, wet "Birth of the Blues" celebration.

Therefore, we say, hats off to Pat Clark, Carole Avelar, Karen Albin, and Jonnie Kilgore.

ROUSING ROOTERS

Cheerleaders

Although some of the beginning organizations in East High School this year may have had their difficulties, this is certainly not true of the first East cheerleaders. These girls went all-out to cheer our athletic teams on, no matter how dark things seemed to be. They never lost their vim, vigor, and vitality, and they were definitely an inspiration to the teams and the student body. Congratulations to these girls for a job well done.

Choir

The group officially called the East High Concert Choir turned out to be only a quadruple quartet, for a group of sixteen girls made up East's contribution to vocal music this year. Not all of these girls were experienced in choral work, but all of them worked long and hard to present East's student body with a few hours of pleasant music during the year.

Helpful Handimen

Student Managers

The student managers are probably one of the more unsung groups in our high school. These boys are definitely members of an organization that means service to our school. They do many good deeds, both at games and other school functions. They really deserve a vote of thanks from the students at East.

Pom Pom Girls

Another pep organization in East this year was the Pom Pom Girls. These girls were selected by the Pep Club and performed at most of the basketball games during the year. Their performances were enjoyed by all, and they, too, helped spur the cheering section on in times of black days for the Thunderbirds.

To promote understanding between members and Spanish speaking peoples across the world is the purpose of the Spanish Club. This year they learned much about these people's customs and history through a Christmas party, Mexican style with a Pinata, a banquet in the spring and by learning their dances and folk songs. Requirements for membership are only that the student be enrolled in a Spanish class or have a speaking knowledge of Spanish.

The Latin Club of Cheyenne East High School carries the study of the classics beyond the classroom, by giving additional opportunities for pleasurable learning about the important role of the Latin language, and the ancient Romans and Greeks in our everyday lives.

Membership is open to all present Latin students as well as interested former students. The Club is affiliated with the National Junior Classical League, and with the Cheyenne-Colorado District Federation.

The basic purpose of the Girls Athletic Association is to stimulate interest in sports and provide opportunities for these activities, by encouraging healthy recreation and developing fellowship and friendliness in sports. The East High School GAA, although it is small, is working toward these aims.

These future "Mad Scientists" are striving to increase their knowledge of science and scientific skills. We notice that the EHS Science Club is doing an excellent job with its program of advancing scientific knowledge.

At the beginning of this past year, the members of the newspaper staff led by Karen Tyson as editor and Jo Griffit as assistant editor were faced with a tremendous task. Starting from nothing, they were to build a newspaper which would be approved by the teachers and accepted enthusiastically by the students. They had precedents to set and problems to solve.

Their work was certainly not in vain for, looking back, we, the student body, can thank the Thunderbolt staff for creating a wonderful newspaper and for setting high standards for future school papers.

With work as the password and originality the recognized key to success, the Wahina staff, at the beginning of the year embarked upon the difficult task of accurately recording the major events of the school year.

On all of these occasions one could see the flashing bulb of the Wahina photographer and the scribbling pencil of the busy reporter. Nancy Olvey, editor, with the help of her staff stood always ready to receive and organize the material.

Now we present this annual to you with the sincere hope that you, the student body and teachers, will find in it a record of the memorable year 1960-61—the first year of East High School, recorded in its first yearbook, The Wahina.

With sore muscles and aching ligaments, the track stars of a future Olympics forms a new team at East High School anticipating record breaking jumps, throws, and race time. Indeed, with practice they become experts in track events and made an enjoyable spring sport hold students with interest and provided students with another chance to cheer their East team to victory.

Early in the spring the cry "Fore" sets many a male's heart to the fancy of the green—the green of the golf course. East High males composing the Golf Team are caught up in this fancy and enjoy the sporting competition of driving small balls over expanses of grass to make a hole-in-one or have a par game. Here's hoping they are successful men of the green in East's first golf competition.

Senior Class Play

"Years Ago" by Ruth Gordan Jones, is a play which takes place in Massachusetts and is about a 17 year old girl, Ruth Gordan Jones, who wants to be an actress. Her father, Clinton, wants her to be a physical culture teacher while her mother, Annie, is in favor of Ruth's acting ideas.

During the play Ruth disobeys her father and goes to see an actress, where she is told she will never be able to be an actress as she has no talent.

Her father felt sorry for her after this episode, so in the spring after her graduation he sent her to New York to live and to learn the art of acting.

As the curtain rose, the auditorium was jammed. Enthusiasm was high back stage and out front. Our talent scout witnessed auditions of many groups which presented musical numbers, interpretations, and several one act plays by the faculty and students.

The audience was well pleased with the high caliber performance and applauded wildly,

Roaring 20's

Multicolored decorations and the music of ALLAH AND THE LEBAS set the delightful tempo of real fun for all at the Roaring 20's Spring dance. Many of the couples were costumes typical of the flambouyant period.

Oren Stillwell and Janet Collins made an attractive "Best Dressed Couple," while Ann Reaves and Mark Evans took the honors as "Best Dressed Girl and Boy."

The duet combo of Steve Carlson and Chris DiFraia sang several popular songs and Stuart Kirk was Master of Ceremonies.

FAREWELL CANG

With the passing days, we the Wahina Staff worked to produce a memorable album of pictures, which captured moments to remember, and superlative description to add to those pictured moments.

At last, our labors have borne fruit and we proudly present the first Wahina, dedicated to the Class of 1961 and their fellow schoolmates. As we are now enjoying the book, may you enjoy it, autograph it and use it as a memory book, for we hereby present the Wahina of 1961 to YOU!

Cliff Steele and Sharon Mutart have fun visiting Ben Franklin Store.

Congratulations . . .

May good health, happiness and success be yours!
