

Walter Clement Wilson

Training: B. E., National Normal University, 1893; Certificate, Ohio State University, 1897; graduate student, Miami University, 1907-8; Diploma in Manual Training, Miami University, 1909.

Experience: Teacher rural schools, Warren County, Ohio, 1881-85; Principal of South Lebanon (Ohio) Schools, 1885-86; Principal of Bellbrook (Ohio) Schools, 1886-90; Superintendent West Carrollton (Ohio) Schools, 1890-1902; critic teacher, Miami University State Teachers College, 1908-9; instructor of Manual Training, Miami University, 1909-11; Associate Principal Normal Department, Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, 1887-94. (Resident during summer only). Present position 1911.

Authorship: "Mensuration as Objective Geometry for Junior High Schools," published in 1915; Manual Training in the Public Schools," published in 1917.