A variety of land problems were presented to the legislators for a solution. The following are representative of the situations which arose on the Western Waters. In 1782 numerous citizens of Montgomery and Washington counties, who had settled on land surveyed for the late James Patton, complained that Patton's representatives had refused to make titles for the lands for which they had contracted. Many of the Patton lands had not been granted but his executors were later able to obtain title from the Land Commissioners under the new Virginia government. The petitioners felt that they had been deprived of a fair and impartial trial before the Commissioners. They asked for an amendatory clause to give the Commissioners power to determine the rights of the parties in all cases where grants had been obtained since the passing of the law appointing the Commissioners. The request was referred to "propositions" but rejected (Montgomery County Legislative Petition, June 21, 1782, Virginia State Library, Archives). The men who signed the petition are listed below, using the same spelling as in the original document:

Ministers

It is evident that the Faith of our forefathers was an element in the formation of American civilization. Therefore I've endeavored to identify the Denominations of the ministers appearing in the register. It has taken more time and patience than transcribing all of the marriages. The result of this effort has been mainly a failure. Up to 1825 there were Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptists, Lutherans and Quakers. No Episcopal Churches were until a much later date. I'm told many Lutherans and Quakers in this section became Baptists. In other parts of Virginia they appear to have become Methodists. I will try and show the Denominations of more of these ministers in a later volume. If I continue to delay in regard to this detail this volume will never be released.

Minister	Appears	Denomination
John Frost	1785	Baptist
Thomas Woolsey	1786	Baptist
Charles Cummings	1780	Presbyterian
Jacob Link	1791	Lutheran (?)
[There may have been no such person. This possibly was the Rev. Jacob Link. His name also appears as Linck, or Zinck (?) B.F.]
Edward Crawford	1795	Presbyterian
Simon Cockrell	1782	Baptist
Andrew Baker	1794	Baptist
William Brundige	1798	Baptist
William Wilson	1800	Presbyterian (?)
Stephen Bovell	1801	Presbyterian
Moses Foley	1808	Baptist
Charles Pennington	1810	Baptist
James Harper	1811	Reformed Presbyterian

[Note: As a High Church Episcopalian I simply cannot imagine anybody attempting to reform a Presbyterian. R.F.]

George Eakin 1814 Baptist

Drury Senter 1822 Baptist

[Note: The Senter family later on Hard-shelled Baptists. They seduced a young Methodist minister from his faith, immersed him, soaking him thoroughly into their fold. The Rev. Drury Senter must have laid the foundations for this sort of thing. R.F.]

David Jessee 1820 Baptist

Alexander McEwan 1820 Presbyterian

[The Rev. I. P. Martin, D. D., Knoxville, Tenn., has been kind enough to identify the following as early Methodist Ministers:]

Minister	Appears	Denomination
Charles Hardy	1797	Methodist
Barnabas McHenry	1795	Methodist
William Vermillion	1809	Methodist
W. P. Kendrick	1823	Methodist
William Patton	1825	Methodist
John Tevis	1824	Methodist
David Lockett	1790	Methodist

[This name appears in the Register as Daniel Lockett. There was a Methodist Minister in Washington County in 1790 named David Lockett. We presume this to be the same person. R.F.]

[It has not been possible (within my limitations) to identify the Denominations of the ministers to follow. There would, or should be Lutherans and possibly Quakers among them.]

Nicholas Reagan [or Ragan] 1792

[We presume, by process of elimination that he must have been a Lutheran of the Saltville district. But we are not positive.]

Ebenezer Brooks	1781	Zacharin Mitchell	1820
J. T. Moore	1800	James Porter	1820
James Hobbs	1802	Henry H. Reynolds	1823
James Foley [as Foley]	1810	Nathaniel Holley	1824
Boys Williams	1810	Robert M. Shankland	1825
John Jones, Jr.	1818	Andrew S. Morrison	1825
Jeriel Dodge	1819	John Stranger, G. M.	1804
David Young	1819

Complaints and Lamentations

My good friend Grady Garrett tells me to put this memo well forward ahead of the Register. This gentleman has an unholy and unwanted habit of accuracy. Even I have a respect for the truth, if it is not too expensive.

Anyhow:

In spite of the great amount of data of genealogical interest here, still there is no knowing what Witch or Devil ever possessed me to include this Register in Virginia Colonial Abstracts. It is not Colonial, the entries are not Abstracts. All that can be said of it is that this volume is a modern transcript of a modern transcript. Thus about 6000 opportunities for mistake. Perhaps I've taken advantage of all of my opportunities at one fell swoop in putting it out at all.

But of error there is no end. Some men have truth marked on their faces. Others have not, and there are gradations between. Books are like that.

All conscientious Virginia students know the mischief we have been led into in having too much faith in transcripts of the records of Accomac, Westmoreland and York Counties, which are offered as official records by the County Clerks who do not bother to know the difference. They are just near enough to the fact to lead you astray forever. God help us few in our search!

This Washington County, Virginia, Marriage Register, is another modern transcript placed in the Clerk's Office as an official record. It does not bear the mark of truth on the face of it. To repeat: it is just near enough to the fact to lead you astray forever.

Now one expects the peculiar and phonetic spelling of names in old records, particularly in a marriage register. Signatures on the bonds are often impossible. The ministers' reports uncertain. In the transcript of this register there is more evident error. There is a frequent interchange of the small 'e' and the small 'o'. There is no excuse for Monroe appearing as 'Manrae', Rae as 'Roe' and so on. Change the 'a' and the 'e', then reverse it, and what chance have you? The name Jacob Link - or Zink (?) - disturbs me. Now being 310 miles away, I'm not strong enough to go back and contradict the official records of Washington County - and prove it.

So this is offered, with many reservations, as the best to be had under the circumstances. But be well warned. Perhaps we have here a sea of floating error. Sink or swim as you please.
