Reuben J. Ketron, Esq., Bloomington, Tenn. -
Dear Brother, -

I write you, to ascertain whether you owe Mother any thing. Several years ago you owed Sister Alice something. I have the impression that this was transferred to Mother. You may have paid it, but I do not remember. I feel sure you recollect. Please to let me know as soon as convenient.

The reason why I want to ascertain this is that I may understand how to report Mother's taxable property to Mr. Frost the Assessor. I promised to inform him. Of course, I do not report to him who owes her any thing. All this is private.

Yours truly,

Joseph H. Ketron.

Reuben J. Kirtum, Esq.,

Dear Sir: I send you a sale notice to sell the 11-acre tract on the 26th of March. Please put it up at some public place in Bloomingdale, & call attention to it, so that the matter may be made public, and make the property bring all it will. I will put up one here, and one at Indian Springs, one at Bond's Store, and one at Lonedale. Come up on March 26, and bring as many bidders as you can. I commence pull about 1 1/2 o'clock.

W. B. Hicks came up &

2 gave me his check on the Gate City Bank for $546.67, which I give to send to the Nat. Bank of Austin to morrow.

I gave Mr. Hicks two notes to take home & get good security to, but up to this time I have not heard from him. Mr. Brown's intention is not to have Judge Curtin sign the record until the terms of sale are complied with.

I think now you made a mistake in not having the 16 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres sold at public sale.
I have reason to believe it would have brought considerably more at a public sale. But it is too late now.

Mr. R. J. Ketron, Bloomingdale, Tenn.

Dear Sir,-

Your letter at hand and noted. I do not owe the estate of Joseph H. Ketron one cent in any shape or form or fashion: I only owe him personal gratitude for his personal and fatherly interest shown to me.

He and I had a perfect understanding as to our clear settlement long ago. When I quit there in 1886, I owed him a small amount for a work on Teaching and perhaps a little more: but to pay this, I sent him by Hiram Tarter a number of my school books, and he told me afterwards it was satisfactory. I am not the party to give a note in 1884 and then go on to school till in 1896 without paying it. Your claim is a great surprise to me. If there is such a note, the Professor has simply failed to cancel it. Yours Truly,

Geo. L. Wolf
