Hello Mother

How are you, and all the folks? I am alright. I am getting myself a warden.
I go to the movies quite a bit over here all the theatres are open air. They have some rather new pictures.

How is Wayne have him to write
I think we can send but two letters
a day so I wont be able to write to every one.

Have you sold your tobacco yet?

Write me all the news. By Bill

I got your letter today. it was mailed Jan 7th. I got one from Helen yesterday. I have written to every one but Marilyn. I shall have to write her soon or she'll probably get angry.

I am getting along ok, and hope you all are alright.

What was Elijah doing in jail? Jack Halt said last fall that he was leaving. What caused him to want to stay.

You said Drew probably left Feb. Has there been any more "stink" raised over Lyman?

How is everyone? I am ok. although the weather is terribly hot at the moment.

How is Dad? What did tobacco bring, you mentioned high prices?

How is W.O. Bobby Jean and Co? you would to know if there was anything I wanted. You might have "The Reader's Digest" sent to me.

I have sent very much of interest around here.

I haven't heard from Wayne have him send "air", or "V mail", when he writes I haven't received any Christmas presents yet. It will take some time yet.

Hello Mather;

I am ok. I hope you got over your cold alright. The weather here is hot, say. I have acquired myself a winter, as usual.

I am planning on going to the show tonight. "Jane Eyre" is playing. I suppose you and Dean have seen it long ago. There was a "Hollywood Celebrity" over here (recently) in recently. You probably saw it in the papers.

Dobson thinks he is going to be stationed in a hospital in Australia. I don't know?

How is Dad? I hope everyone is well.

Hi, Mother.

Sometimes in the winter

I am out. How is everything with you?
I haven't had a letter in two or three days. They come in, in bunches. I got 9 letters in two days.

I have forgotten Herman's address, have him write to me, and tell him to send "air" or "V. mail."

I broke the chrysler in my watch on the boat. A boy fixed me one out of airplane glass. He did a very nice job.

How is Dad? Is he selling any cattle
now?

I hope everyone is alright.

Hello Mother

How is everyone? I am ok, although the weather was rather hot today. There isn't much of anything to write about from here.

I haven't received any mail in several days. They all come in a "wad" and then stopped. I suppose I'll get another bunch soon.

Write me all the news from home. How is Dean doing in school? I hope you and Dad are alright.
