

CHRISTMAS IN THIS AND OTHER LANDS

Christmas celebration in many lands was depicted in tableau form by girls of the International Institute at the Girl Community Service club last evening and the program presented was most interesting. Foreign girls in native dress faithfully portrayed the Christmas rites and spirit of the countries across the water. The program ran as follows:

Overture

Portuguese Orchestra

Polish Carols

Polish Girls in Costume

Play, Why the Chimes Rang

Institute Club Girls

Act I—Interior of peasant's cottage

Act II—in the woods

Act III—in the beautiful church

Dance

Manuel Dias

Tableau: Shepherds Watching Their Flock

Greek Girls

Greek Christmas Carol

Tableau, Three Kings Following Star

Polish Women

Polish Christmas Carols

Tableau: Manger Scene

Portuguese Women

Portuguese Christmas Carols

Tableau: People Worshipping Child

All Nationalities

English Christmas Carols

American Girls

General Dancing, Portuguese Orchestra

The entertainment was in charge of

Miss Helen Hutton of the Institute and Miss Georgia Sharpe, recreational director. The musical program was directed by Paul Correia, leader of the Portuguese orchestra.