

PORTUGESE

HAVE FEAST DAY

High Mass and Afternoon Festivities Form Program

The Portugese celebrated the Feast of the Holy Ghost on Sunday, in the same manner as in previous years. The procession formed at 23 Water street, the home of Manuel Costidio, and from there went to the home of Olimpio Garcia, on Walnut street, where the sacred crown was procured and escorted in procession to St. Michael's church.

The procession was led by Officers James B. Hayes and George F. Reid, followed by the Civic League band, children in white, crown bearer and attendants, and men of the society.

Rev. Joseph D. Hawes celebrated ~~high mass, after which the proces-~~sion marched to Liberty hall, then back to 23 Water street, where dinner was served.

After dinner there was a return to Liberty hall, where the band played, the auction incident to the feast took place and a decision as to where the crown should repose for the ensuing twelve months was determined. Joseph Rainha was the fortunate winner and the crown was escorted to his home by the procession and left there.