Saint Marianne Schoolyard Song

Cassandra Harris-Lockwood

It makes me smile to think
That you once walked this way
I am humbled 'cause I know
T'was in this church you prayed
St. Joseph's was your schoolyard
Though cars park there today
The poor are fed where you were taught
Then humbly go their way

You led six nuns of valor great
To treat the sick and poor
St. Francis was your model
Now mine forever more
You did not fear the worst disease
You conquered men of might
You demonstrated woman's strength
With wisdom, skill, and Light

We honor you St. Marianne
Your legend speaks 'cross miles
Your beauty and your piety
Turned sadness into smiles
In Utica and Hawaii
Your blessings now bestowed
Saint Marianne we thank you
Your outcasts here below

Birdsong you heard is in my ear
Your Mohawk River mine
Your people are my people
Your charity divine
Please pray for me and help me hear
What God wants me to do
You were so brave, so kind so smart,
I want to be like you

HYMN TO SAINT MARIANNE

KA MAKANI KA 'ILI ALOHA

REFRAIN

The image shows a page of a hymn book. At the top, there is a prayer text. Below it is the title 'HYMN TO SAINT MARIANNE' and the Hawaiian title 'KA MAKANI KA 'ILI ALOHA'. The word 'REFRAIN' is written above the first line of music. The musical score consists of several staves with treble clefs and a key signature of one flat. A large black rectangular redaction box covers the majority of the page, obscuring the lyrics and the melody. The text 'Copyrighted Material' is written in large, red, serif font across the center of the redacted area. Below the redaction, there are some fragments of lyrics: '1. S', '2. S', '3. S', 'I', 'p', 'da', 'sp', 'b', 'lo'.

Text: Theresa Laureta, OSF.

Music: KA MAKANI KA 'ILI ALOHA, Matthew Kane (1872-1920); arr. Theresa Laureta, OSF.

We are standing in His presence on holy ground.
