

Garrett Park Ind.
March 3rd 1902.

E. P. Brady,

Mayor of Garrett Park, Ind.

Dear Sir:

I am very much annoyed by Mrs. Womern's chickens.
They are on my place continually and do considerable damage.

After spending both time and money to keep my place in order, it is very discouraging and annoying to have my neighbors' chickens turned loose and allowed to scratch up my flower beds.
I would keep chickens here, myself
but I know what a nuisance they would be, to my neighbors, were they allowed to run at large.

I dislike to make a complaint, but hope the Council will be able to do something to prevent them from annoying me.

Very Truly
Yours,
Furley Coburn.
