

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE.

Miss Elizabeth Sedgwick of Richmond wore white lace with touches of pink satin.

Mrs. Dennis Wore Blue

Mrs. William F. Dennis wore a beautiful gown of blue embroidered tulle with the upper part of her bodice and sleeves of lace. She wore diamonds and pearls. Miss Virginia Wood wore white satin draped over white satin with a corsage of orchids and diamond ornaments. Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Cassel, Mrs. White lace and Mrs. Stanton wore a gown of black velvet and lace. Miss Stanton wore white satin.

Mrs. William B. Jones wore a gown of white satin draped with lace. Mrs. Jones of lace and trimmed with brilliants and was one of French fashion. Mrs. Thacker wore a handsome gown of brocade velvet in yellow tones. Mrs. Dorothy Staley wore a brocade with lace and pearls.

Miss Lucy Clark Smith wore a gown of pale blue chiffon trimmed with brilliants. Mrs. Over a gown of draped white satin. Miss Fletcher, colored dress with white lace. Mrs. Fletcher, black velvet and lace, and Mrs. Chester A. Long wore a handsome gown of peacock blue brocade velvet with lace.

Mrs. Norman Moran wore a gown of amber satin and Mrs. Moran wore in black satin and Mrs. Corinne Elizabeth Dennis wore white satin with touches of blue.

White Satin and Lace

Mrs. Timothy Anberry wore a gown of white satin and lace. Mrs. Stephens, wife of Rear Admiral Stephens wore a gown of black lace over green satin, and Mrs. Barbara Stephens wore pale pink satin over white satin.

Mrs. Child wore colored green satin and chiffon. Mrs. Claude West, black velvet with lace and Mrs. Ella Harrison Child, flame-colored velvet and lace.

Mrs. George W. Fairchild wore a gown of white satin draped in black chiffon and trimmed with brilliants. She wore a diamond tiara and necklace. Miss Kelly wore blue chiffon over pale blue satin. Mrs. Mulligan was in pink sequinette and pearls. Mrs. Norman Underwood wore white satin draped in bouffant of lace and orchids, and Mrs. Henry Cooper wore a gown of white satin and lace.

Mrs. Myers, wife of Senator Myers, wore a gown of blue satin.

Mrs. Watson M. Nelson wore a gown of pale blue satin draped in chiffon with touches of blue and gold. Mrs. Russell, wife of Maclean, carried a bouquet of pink flowers.

Mrs. Lyson B. Quinn, with lace over rhinestones. Mrs. Emma Gibbs wore a gown of draped black and white peacock tulle with set and brilliants. Mrs. Jean W. Farnham wore a gown of black satin with the upper part of the bodice of lace. Miss Leonard wore black velvet with a lace corsage and gloves.

Mrs. Linnar, wife of Mr. Justice Linnar wore a gown of black brocade velvet over cloth of gold. Mrs. Mitchell Farnham wore blue brocade with rhinestone trimmings. Mrs. James D. Hancock wore a beautiful gown of soft French blue velvet with the lower part of the bodice of lace and brilliants.

Mrs. John Miller Stanton wore a corsage of white satin trimmed with bouffant of lace and white studded in brilliants. She wore diamond necklace and lace, and carried a huge bouquet of roses of the valley and orchids.

Mrs. Longworth in Marine Velvet

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth wore a gown of pale marine velvet with lace and diamonds.

Mrs. Leonard Wood wore white satin trimmed with lace.

Mrs. Alice Hudson wore a gown of amber chiffon over white satin.

Mrs. Helen wore a gown of silver brocade.

Miss Josephine Carter was in rose-colored chiffon over white satin and trimmed with brilliants.

Miss Nellie Wilson wore a handsome gown of white satin trimmed with lace and fur. She wore a large corsage arrangement of diamonds.

Mrs. McElmer wore pale pink brocade with chiffon and lace.

Mrs. Joseph E. Mann wore white satin with trimmings of marble lace. The guests of the party were Mrs. H. S. Hildreth, wife of Representative Hildreth of North Carolina, wore white satin trimmed in blue. Mrs. Leary, wife of Captain Leary, wore white satin trimmed in blue. Mrs. H. S. Hildreth, wife of Representative Hildreth of North Carolina, wore white satin trimmed in blue. Mrs. Leary, wife of Captain Leary, wore white satin trimmed in blue. Mrs. H. S. Hildreth, wife of Representative Hildreth of North Carolina, wore white satin trimmed in blue. Mrs. Leary, wife of Captain Leary, wore white satin trimmed in blue.

Miss Pauline Elliott, of Wisconsin, with a corsage of diamonds with white satin.

Mrs. Olive Vance wore a gown of pink and white satin with blue. Mrs. Vance wore white satin draped in blue. Mrs. Vance wore white satin draped in blue. Mrs. Vance wore white satin draped in blue.

Miss Clark in Dresden Chiffon

Miss Elizabeth Clark wore a handsome gown of Dresden chiffon with touches of gold and white. Mrs. Clark wore white chiffon with lace. Mrs. Clark wore white chiffon with lace. Mrs. Clark wore white chiffon with lace.

Mrs. F. D. Babcock, of Chicago, wore a handsome gown of white and gold brocade. Mrs. George H. Babcock wore white brocade draped in white and gold.

Mrs. Sarah, wife of Senator Bark, wore a gown of blue and white, embroidered with flowers in the same shade and trimmed with pearls, lace and bands of gold.

Miss Emily Howland wore a dress of the golden hue with satin trimmed with fur and draped with chiffon of the same shade and trimmed with French lace, pearls and diamonds. She wore a necklace and earrings of pearls.

Mrs. William B. Jones wore blue brocade with touches of chiffon and trimmed with silver and blue diamonds of blue roses. Mrs. Harry Wilson, of Detroit, wore white satin draped with gold lace and a corsage of orchids. Miss Annie Randall, wife of a senator, wore a gown of old lace over white satin and diamond ornaments.

Miss Maria Hoffman Adams wore white satin with white net and trimmed in diamonds. Mrs. C. S. Robinson, wife of Mr. Robinson, wore white satin with a corsage of diamonds and a necklace of pearls and diamonds.

Mrs. James Mack wore blue and white with touches of brilliants. Mrs. Mack wore a necklace of diamonds. Mrs. Mack wore a necklace of diamonds.

Mrs. Charles D. Wright wore American brocade with white satin. Mrs. John McMillan wore white satin with touches of blue.

Mrs. George H. Babcock wore a gown of blue and white with touches of gold. Mrs. Babcock wore a necklace of diamonds and a necklace of diamonds.

Mrs. James A. Montgomery of New York wore white and gold with touches of blue. Mrs. Montgomery wore a necklace of diamonds.

Mrs. John, wife of Mr. John, wore blue and white with touches of gold. Mrs. John wore a necklace of diamonds and a necklace of diamonds.

Mrs. William B. Jones wore blue and white with touches of gold. Mrs. Jones wore a necklace of diamonds and a necklace of diamonds.

Mrs. Harry Wilson, of Detroit, wore white satin draped with gold lace and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Wilson wore a necklace of diamonds and a necklace of diamonds.

Mrs. Annie Randall, wife of a senator, wore a gown of old lace over white satin and diamond ornaments. Mrs. Randall wore a necklace of diamonds and a necklace of diamonds.

Mrs. William B. Jones wore blue brocade with touches of chiffon and trimmed with silver and blue diamonds of blue roses. Mrs. Jones wore a necklace of diamonds and a necklace of diamonds.