My Dear Wife:

I presume you got my note. I sent you written from here early yesterday morning. I arrived at [[Mauchetie?]] about 9 o'clock went to hotel and sat around for awhile. Then took a walk out to see who of the Republicans I could find. Found past [[?]] and [[?]]. Had dinner soon after noon. Did not begin speaking until about 3 o'clock. The audience was mostly of farmers and only about 50 present= but we had a fairly satisfaction meeting. as there was no train coming back to [[Wakita?]], I had to morning to go to church. As it was after 11 o'clock when I arrived there. Well, I hope you have been well and that you will enjoy your church service to-day.

It has been lonesome for me around here ten p.m. I am to speak at Arapaho Wednesday night. Can't you write me a letter over there. The letter would have to be mailed Tuesday evening. I think of nothing more to write Hope you will keep well during the week.

Your loving husband,

Dick.
