Dear Mama and Papa:-

Dinner is just over and I guess I had better write you a line or tow. Have been busy all morning. IN the first place I undertook to mow the yard and that took me until ten, then Clemmer asked me to hitch up and then we ran a few errands and it was noon. Yesterday was quite a busy day. Church held whilst quite late and by the time dinner was over it was time to go to the "meeting for men". The evangelist gave a good talk. Clemmer and I did not go to church but took a long walk instead and did some planning. We will leave here a week from today- we are not quite sure of the route yet, but am to get to Chicago Tuesday morning. That will give us a full week in which to do our ~~packing~~ fixing up etc.

please excuse my change of [?] on the other page- my pen acted badly and I had to change. Clemmer has not written this week but I believe she has had a good excuse, for she has been sewing for dear life all week. Had a lady helloing her a couple of days. Wednesday we went down to Pulaski to visit with some new relatives, Uncle Doc and Aunt Mary- we started about nine oclock and got there about half past ten- had a good dinner and come back here in time for a late supper. Clemmer and Mother are sewing on some night-gowns for me this afternoon- they are making three- and they are to be of the outing flannels. Don't you think that will be fine? Have received a catalog of the Chicago Law School and Matriculation begins Sept 28th and continues three days. School begins Oct-1-. The matriculation fee is payable on or before Oct 1- and for the term amounts to $50. plus a registration fee of $5.00. That's about all I know about it. I have compared the two courses Columbia and Chicago and find them much the same- Guess I wrote you that I had received a letter from Chicago saying I would be given full credit for work done in Columbia without examination. I should say I was surprised to hear that Grandma went to the "fair" with you. Am glad that she accepted your invitation and hope she enjoyed the sights and stood the trip well. We had been wondering what had become of you- why you did not write etc. but knew of course, that you were on the "go" Am afraid you did no get much rest, papa. but perhaps the change of surroundings will help you. Don't know where to send this but from your other letter I suppose you are going on to El Reno from the "fair" and so will start this letter to you there. We are both well and having a fine time. Love yo you and Clemmer sends some too, Your boy and girl, Clemmer and Porter.
