

Dec. 22, 1909.

Mr. Dick T. Morgan,

Washington, D. C.

Dear Father:

You will remember one Anthony Devine of 1208 East Tenth Street, who was to see you when you were here this summer, concerning his pension, and I told him I would write you.

Guess there is nothing I can add to my letter of last night.

I remain,

Very sincerely your son,