Dear Ora:

It is now 10:00 p.m. I remained here over last night- went north on this mornings train to Renfrow speak there this p.m. Had quite a good meeting. [[?]] of men only. Took supper up there- arrived here at 7 p.m. Got shaved and went to alpha House meeting was not very well attended for this sized place. But I went through [[/]] later. Thought the train might be late and that I would go down to Enid to-night= where i change trains

And go to work= but the train was on time= So I go down in the morning at 8:50. I am supposed to make connection with the train going west. I speak tomorrow p.m. at Idabella, and tomorrow night at [[?]] Next p.m. at Ames, and at night at Araphaho. Then, Thursday night at Bridge[[?]] (have no speech Thursday p.m.). Friday p.m. at Hinton, at night at Binger, and Saturday p.m. at Anadarko. So you can tell about when I will be. I have been feeling very well so far. And have not gotten hoarse. This is Halloween night. and the boys are having a time. I have been reading the book and I want to thank you for bringing it down to me= though it should have been all right to have left it at home as I could have gotten along [[?]] it all right.

I hope you have been well I think of nothing more to write. I shall look for a letter at Arapaho.
from

you. your true and loving husband.
