My Dear Ora and Porter:

Your very good letters were it this morning. It was the best thing I have had since I left home. I was very glad to hear from you, and I would like so well to be at home with you, and hope to be soon. Glad your back door fixed. I thought about it so much, but when I knew you would master the situation.

We expect our bill to pass this week certain.

You talked so very sweetly- and I appreciate your words very much. If I thought all our mutual good would be served by me returning home immediately. I would certainly come for church, but I cannot think so. While you are lovely and want me with you so much, look on the other side. I see what you would advise me to do.

The thing we are nearing the end here and I hope each day to give you something more definite about when I will start.

I attended church last night. I called on hale ford, Press Secretary this morning. Also went to see P.M. General. Called on [?] and some other person who I thought might aid me.

Porter, I was so glad to get your good letters, and mama says you have been such a good boy. I hope to be home soon.

Much love and kisses,

Lovingly Yours,

Dick
