On train to Kan. city

Didn't sleep much last night- was flayed out and anxious. Could had more rest but misunderstood time we'd really reach it.- You know we were late. Had breakfast at old place- a poor one. I've tired, and [?]. D. not well to-day. I had to leave to tell you, but didn't find we on the train I went and looked in chair- The Conductor inquired [in?] other [?]. I consulted Cou. in regard to change at Great Bend. He consulted folder and said this train left G.B.Q. and has since reached there 11- But Mrs. D. and I she had a folder found it to be that that was a [?]j and conducted with Main line after debating the letter, have decided to get on home no later: Conductor explains G. [?] connection with 116, not with No. 6
