October 20, 1883

My Dear Little Porter,

Auntie will have I write this we a hurry. as Grandpa and Uncle E[?] almost ready to go home.

The caters that nurse in the yard when Rayan were here being in the field. Word of the house and Uncle Esan has fixed a place to feed them bran so they will grow big and fat. and he also fixed a place and in the same field to feel the pigs if you were here you could go with Efram and heap him down corn with pigs and of the little cow and that would be fun.

Any Bill has had a very bad cough got so fat, and so Grandpa will not let him haze any more corn or hay so [?] he will soon be small. Little Frank is getting to be quick on horse, Expect Porter can ride him next time he comes. Bonnie Cousin Nell, Roy Waddle all go to school now. You must kiss Papa, Mama, and Aunt Florence for Aunt Dell, and you must write to Auntie soon again for she enjoys your letter very much.

Your loving Aunt Dell
