

Box 1, Folder 1, Item 9--Letter to Dick T. Morgan from Ora Morgan (1889 May 20)

Garden City, Kansas
May 20, 1889

Dear Husband:

To try and write through this day I'm afraid is a poor hive for either of us. If there was any late important news, we'd better make a R.S. of it and do our main writing we's, hadn't we? R. objected to me writing on his sheet so I later this. I must lay only a word now, as I must get up this ever. I didn't get your Sunday letter written yesterday but will by and get it off soon. I didn't get to church today. Seems so hard without you. I was a lonely girl yesterday again, without you. I am hurried too, like you-trying to get everything done.

I see your Guthrie papers, many thanks. The Morgan puff sounded well- did you pay? Salt Celler came this morning Hurrah!

Hope we will be able to use it a right. Mr. Carter brought 'C' last Tuesday down and she paged me that. So I have plenty money get. I think I'll get your pillow-case off tomorrow- let me know when you get it. I send your papers to-day- Call for your papers.

Bye- bye

L. W.
