Dear Mama and Papa:-

Clemmer has written quite a letter and has told you most of the news-so I can't write much. Both of your letters, one from Bonsteel and the other written in Sioux City have arrived and of course we were glad to know you had gotten away from Bonesteel. Did things keep on getting quieter? Received a letter yesterday which Uncle Fred had forwarded and so I guessed that you were gone. We are doing nearly nothing and after I get over my boil I think I will enjoy the rest here a great deal. Glad you both are feeling so well and hope, papa, that your cough will leave you entirely. It seems to me, mama that you ought to stay in Indiana while papa makes his trip down to Oklahoma, for he will be running around all the time that he is there and you wouldn't get to be with him anyway. then you can go out to Bonesteel when he goes back there after the campaign is over. I have been thinking to remind you papa that maybe you would want a Republican Campaign text Book and that you ought to send for it now. Guess this is all for now. Love to both of you.

Your loving children,

Clemmer and Porter.
