My Dear Wife: I presume you have gotten the letter I wrote and mailed at the depot Wednesday night as I got on train to go to Enid to attend meeting of trustees. I arrived at Enid on time and got home last night at about 9:30. The first thing I heard this morning was a knock at the door. and I answered, and got up thinking it was somebody waking me but they knocked again and I found out it was the boy with the cloths. I looked at my watch and found out it was ten o'clock. So I get dressed in a hurry- went down and Mrs. B. gave me a cup of coffee and I ate a little bread and butter and rushed down to the office. Found all at work and Mrs. Higgins had arranged for a half-holliday on account of Flag-Day. So I let it go- though I doubt some whether it is really a holiday. So I came down this pm. and though I would send you a few lines.

At the families meeting here when present Humphrey Smith, Hawkins and Ind. Ter., and the two Enid Trustees. We had a pretty long session and did not get time to go out to building. B. Mowor was not there. At the occasion of the laying of the corner stone, a stone erected for the body feel, and injure. Bro M. so he has be in confined to his room at home since But I guess nothing survives.

the special good news i have to tell you is that I received a letter from the Commission stating that I was allowed the cancellation for extra-[[?]] $3000 preyer. So we are to be congratulated I think. For the next two years this will amount to at least $750 per year. [[?]] all the Land office building rented and this extra slurry, we will certainly be able to pour considerable us our income will be about $4500 per year.

I received your card but have heard nothing further from you or Ma, except I had a letter from her. This morning whisk she wrote the 10th saying that before she got my letter telling her to go to Terre haute She had decided to go there an way and had not find Homer to meet her. She seemed to be in good spirits. I hope she got through all right. There is no new news about the Bounce House. Hope you have rested up and are enjoying yourself. I think I am doing fine in writing don't you? Shall expect you to follow my good example and write often.

Your loving husband,

Dick.
