

DON'T FORGET YOUR SOCK

This little sock we give to you
Is not for you to wear.
Please multiply your size by two
And place therein with care,
In pennies or in cents,
Just twice the size you wear.
(We hope it is immense.)
So if you wear a No. ten,
You owe us twenty, see?
Which dropped within this little sock,
Will fill our hearts with glee.

'Tis all we ask, it isn't much,
And hardly any trouble,
But if you only have one foot,
We'll surely charge you double.
Now if you have a friend quite dear
You'd like to bring with you,
Or if you know some one who'd come,
We'll gladly give you two.
So don't forget the place and date;
We'll answer when you knock,
And welcome you with open arms.
BUT DON'T FORGET YOUR SOCK!
