

Box 1, Folder 27, Item 6- Letter to Ora Morgan from Emma W. Williams (1905 July 13)

[[preprinted]]

GOOD LUCK

MILLINERY STORE.

DEALERS IN FINE MILLINERY.

133 Main Street., MRS. EMMA W. WILLIAMS, Prop

[image- located on right hand side is of a horseshoe surrounded by four-leaf clovers and ribbons.]

Oklahoma City, Okla., [[handwritten annotation]] July 13[[/handwritten annotation]] 190
[[handwritten annotation]]5[[/handwritten annotation]]

[[/preprinted]]

Mrs Dick T Morgan

Woodward Oklahoma

My Dear Friend

I expected you and Brother Morgan are, to the State hood Convention. Their were 25 from Perry here- and I thought you would come how are you any way- I never hear a word from you- don't know how you liked your Hats supposed they were all right or you would of said so- Edith has got home I miss her so much she wanted to see you before she went back she still has her little presents you have her- I received a letter from my first Lady Friend in Springfield Mo- and as you all ways took such an interest

[[preprinted]]

GOOD LUCK

MILLINERY STORE.

DEALERS IN FINE MILLINERY.

133 Main Street., MRS. EMMA W. WILLIAMS, Prop

[image- located on right hand side is of a horseshoe surrounded by four-leaf clovers and ribbons.]

Oklahoma City, Okla., 190

[[/preprinted]]

in my friends, I will inclose it. I expect her Husband most any day now write me I am always anxious to hear from you, I think now I will go to New Park in August I will go if I can make my finance stretch that far [[?]] is dreadful and [[?]] oh my how are you getting along with your new church- I could write all day but must stop and go to work- with much love and hoping to hear from you soon I am as ever,

your friend

Emma Williams.