Kansas City, Aug. 4, 9 a. m.,

Dear Ode: Well here I am- arrived here this morning. Well I spend day here and go to Chicago to-night. Finally concluded to go by Chicago- 1. to attend to business referenced to in my letter. 2. I could get excursion rates to Chicago and save considerable will spend tomorrow in Chicago and get home some time Wednesday- if nothing happens to prevent. Left home Saturday night and went to Guthrie to spend Sunday with Fred but they had gone out in the country. Attended church at Guthrie in morning and the close of S. S. they hold in court-room. I will call on Jim Stays here and see some of the [?] [?]. I am in the upstairs waiting room when we staid last winter and that breakfast at same place.

Goodby.
