

February 21, 1920.

Mr. Winfield Jones,
Washington Manager, American Newspaper Syndicate,
1406 G Street, N. W.,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Jones:

In further reference to your letter of the 12th inst., and pursuant to my letter addressed to you on the 17th inst., I am inclosing you herewith an article which I have prepared on the subject of "Soldier-Aid Legislation."

I trust that this will be along the line which you desire, and will be of service to you. I should be pleased, if possible, to receive copies of papers publishing same.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours very sincerely,

DTM:RK

Inc.