reach an uncontrollable stage. Third, to hold a meeting at 3:00 p.m. today for all organizational and dorm presidents to inform them on what the student government is doing and what their function is in solving the problems. Fourth, to plan a campus wide student rally to show student support and unity in the belief that we can handle our own problems. And fifth, to encourage each student to show their support by wearing the "I'VE HAD IT, LET'S START LIVING AND WORKING TOGETHER, NOW" ribbon.

A statement from the meeting emphasized that "we the students of FSC must admit that we are responsible through thought, word or deed, either directly or indirectly for the regretful incidents which have occurred during the last few months. It is unfortunate that the students arrested Monday must suffer the consequences of our failure to act on these matters previously. But, this is a problem of 7,200 students and it going to take all 7,200 of us solve it."

Attending several of the student meetings, and offering their assistance in helping to solve problems, were Mayor Robert T. Horan and Dr. Laurence Jensen and Norman Christensen, president and manager respectively of the Chamber of Commerce.

STUDENTS PULL "ALL NIGHTER"--Staying up throughout the night is nothing new to college students, but the group shown above did everything but study Wednesday night. They put into motion the "I've Had It" program hoping for unity and understanding among the 7,200 students at Ferris State as a means to stop present racial troubles. At one spot well into the morning, long hours after the start of the movement, The Pizza Hut contributed half a dozen pizzas and a case of pop for the workers.
