Study breaks are taken frequently. Above some juniors make sweet music at half-way party. Right, Birthday parties are numerous around the dorm, they're also fun.

Around Christmas time television sets started showing up in student's rooms. These attracted many "friends".

J. Reinke sets her alarm while thinking to herself, "If only I didn't have to get up at six o'clock".

Above L. Gruenberg sets her hair late one night. At right, juniors enjoy themselves at an instructor's home after their half-way party.

Capping,

A first for Bryan, the Drill Team is composed of Freshman.

A Great Moment

Capping is the most important day in a probie's life. Since the cap is a symbol of the nursing profession, it is an honor to wear it. The ceremony was held in the First Methodist Church on the Wesleyan campus on February 25. The church was filled to capacity with relatives and friends who had come to share this great moment with the class.

ACTIVITIES

Residence Director Mrs. Davey ponders over a stack of mail as she prepares to distribute it to eager students.

Bryan Housemothers

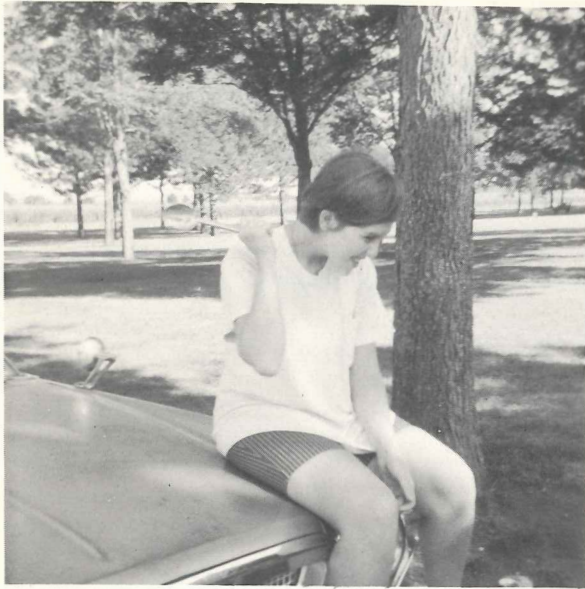

Checking signouts are housemothers Mrs. Miller, bungalow; Mrs. Faulhauber, new dorm; and Mrs. Boyd, senior dorm.

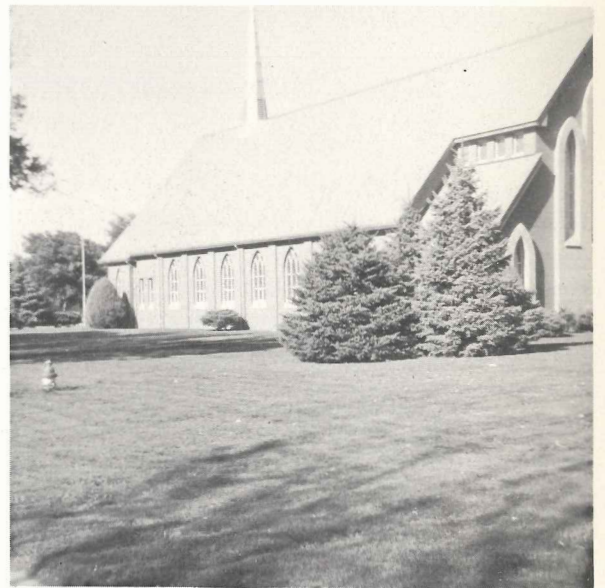

The Singing Nurses

Bryan's "Singing Nurses," under the direction of Mrs. Raymond Brakhage, began the new year with a welcome concert for incoming Probies. The highlight of the year came at Christmas when a dual concert with the Varsity Men's Glee Club of the U of N was given. Other concerts were given at the Calvary and Fremont EUB churches. A concert "Under the Stars" entertained friends, relatives at summer's end. As a treat to all for singing so well throughout the year, Mrs. Brakhage entertained members at the Fremont Lake for a day.

Psych

Psych provided many valuable experiences for all students. For instance, we became wonderful cooks and hard, diligent studiers. Many new friends were made with students from other schools, and we all came to know the "whys" of our actions.

Convention

Honors

Above - Miss Clarice Bouska was named as Bryan's Miss Methodist Candidate. Right - Miss Irvene Weber was presented the best all-around nurse award at graduation.

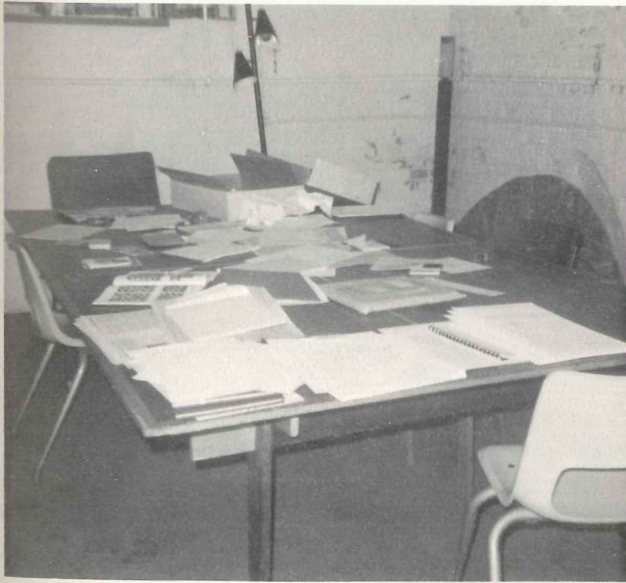

Miss Linda Staub was named as the most congenial senior of the annual Junior-Senior Tea held on July 20, 1968.

Mrs. Laws, Librarian, orients one of the Junior transfer students, R. Freese, to the well supplied library.

The annual staff works diligently to prepare this edition.

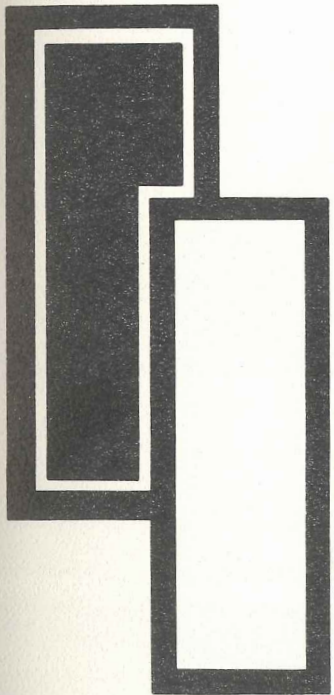

The William Jennings Bryan Home is an inspiration to students.

Our weekly chapel services, directed by Chaplain Reed, lends a moment of reflection and soliliquy to our hectic lives. The programs have been planned to include social and political problems as well as religious activities.
