LINCOLN GENERAL HOSPITAL

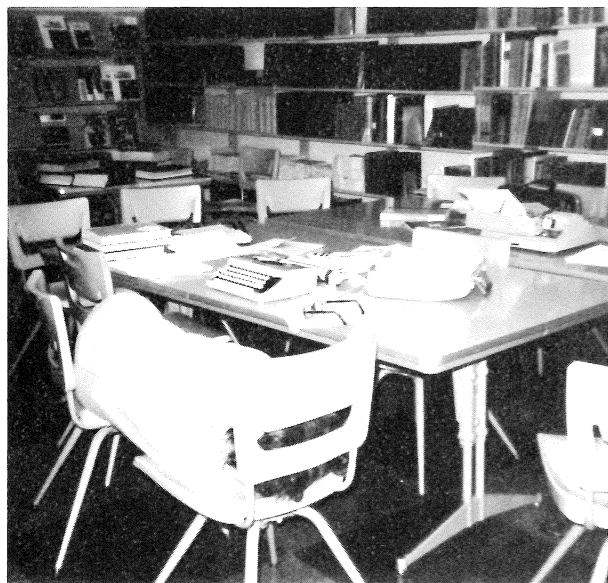

SCHOOL OF NURSING

This institution of higher learning is dedicated to producing professionals. We sincerely hope that this book will represent to all those who read it, the making of those professionals. Only through an equal amount of education, practice, patience, determination, hard work, and relaxation is a professional nurse produced.-Ed.

Seniors Of '71

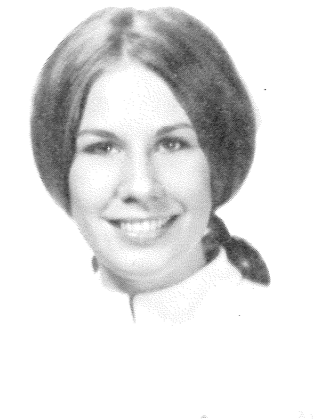

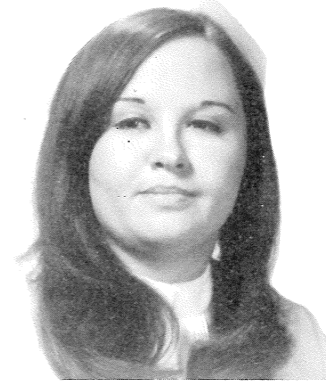

The smiles indicate the delight experienced by all seniors when it's close to graduation. Representatives are; Kathy Stewart, Secy., Shelley Murray, Pres., Sue Peterson, Treas., and Sue Merrill, V. Pres.

Mary Pelan takes a break to catch a few winks. Our Seniors learn how to make every minute count.

Trying to keep up with the kids at Children's are; Pat, Norma, Peg, Kathy, Judy, and Bonnie.

A "free" picnic at the dorm is enjoyed by all the students---no cooking!!!!

One of the many wedding showers given for those fortunate seniors.

Eloise, Mary, and Gayle find the steps of Ingleside hard but good for exercising.

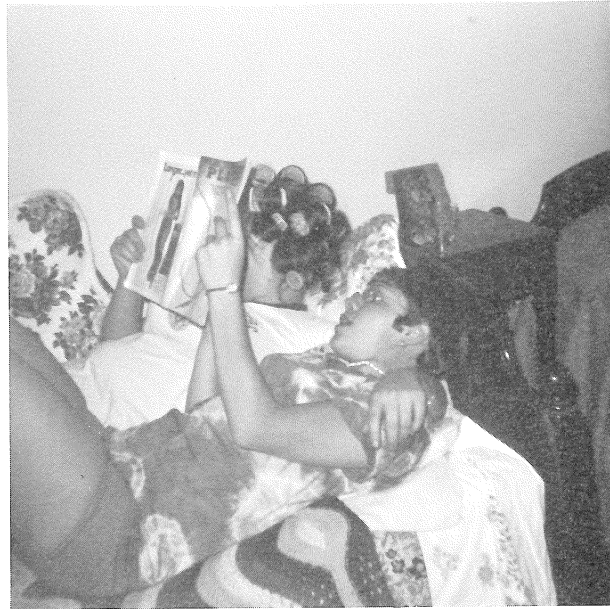

Planning the great escape from Ingleside tunnels.

The only way to celebrate your 20th birthday . . . at Big Fred's in Omaha.

At right-Sara shudders at the thought of another one of the many trips down Dodge with 9 girls packed in "Elma."

At right-Carol and Mary search for the "Dropped Stitch." Knitting was one of the domestic skills the girls learned while at Hastings.

Norma, rare'un to go. . .Hey you guys quit it.
