Blue Collar Life

Who's Naked?

Who claims these butts?

Stick out you're tongue and say AHH...

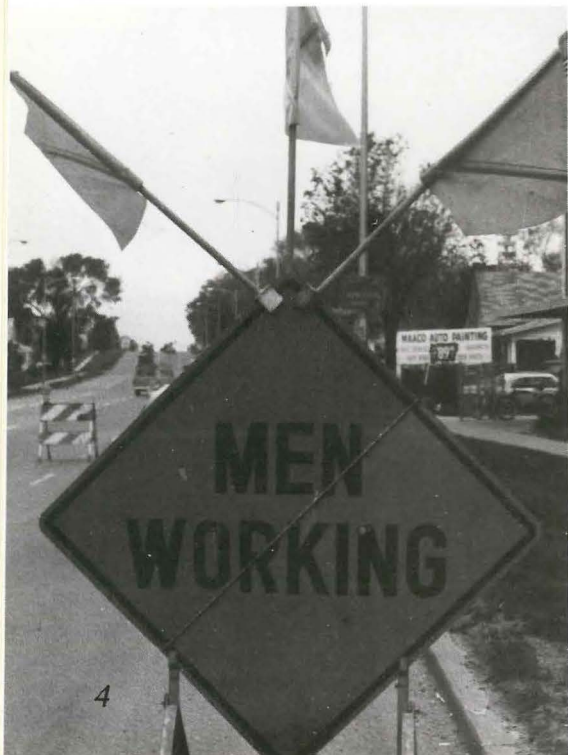

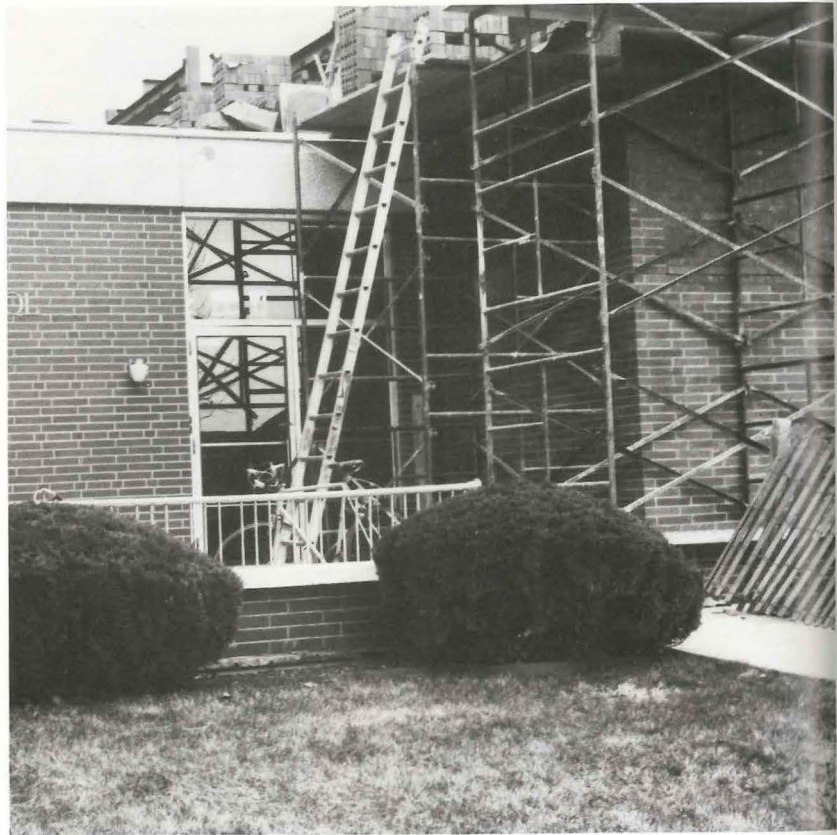

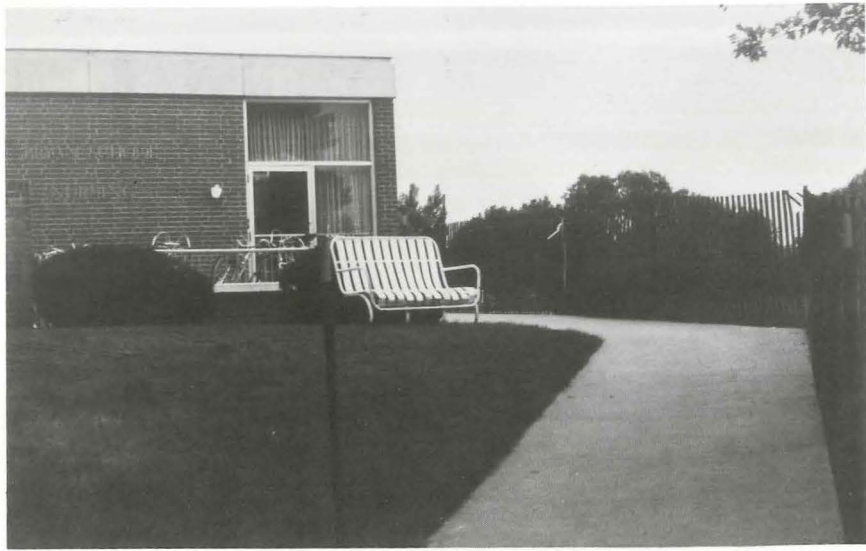

Lynette B. tells Nancy S. . . . "Wake up already it's 7:30!"

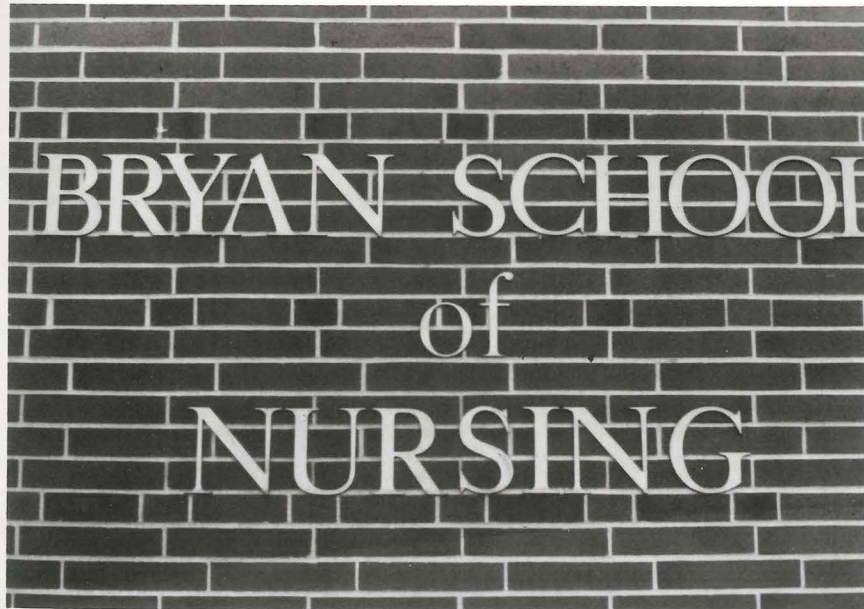

Smile . . . It makes people wonder what you've been up to!

Jackie A. tells Lori F. . . . "Don't tell Shari S. the dog just had an accident!"

Shari S. and Mary E. ask: "Who's in the wig?"

Patty H. is all wigged out.

*Hark the herald
angels sing.*

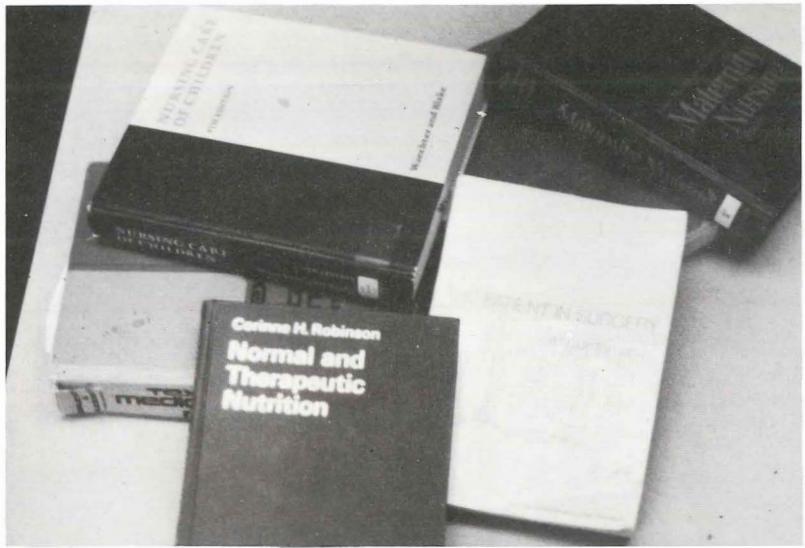

*Kathy G. wishes
Lee G. a very Merry Christmas!*

Caution! NOISE, NOISE, NOISE!!!

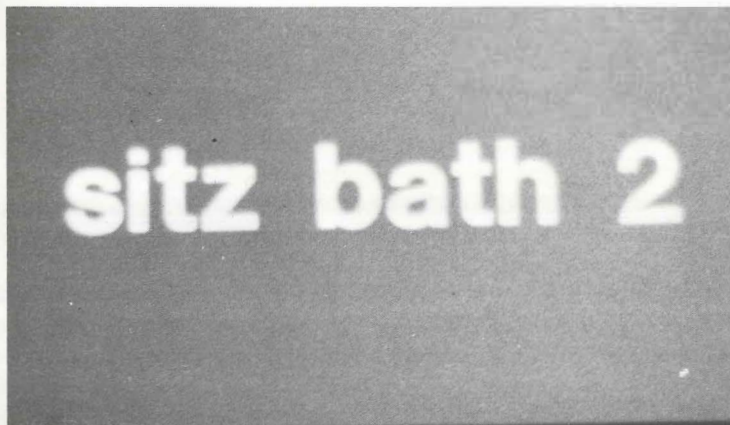

Remodeling a social life . . .

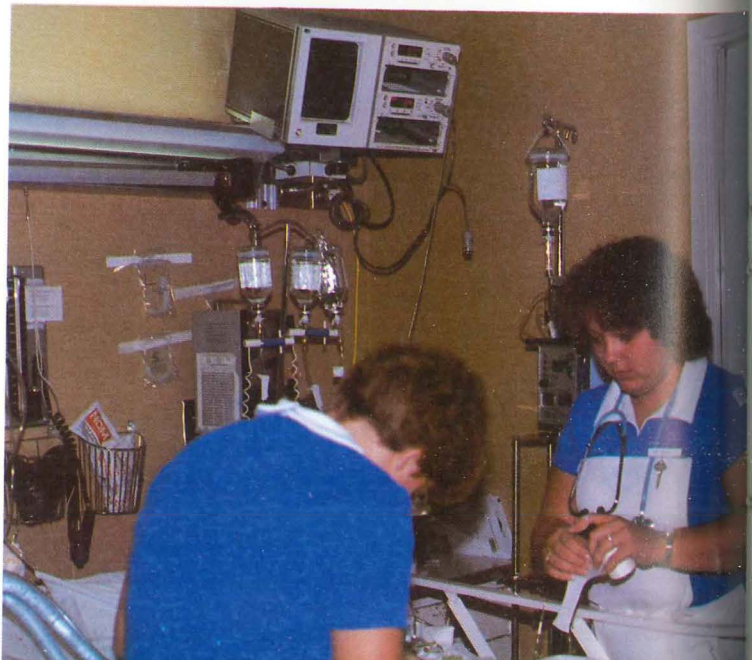

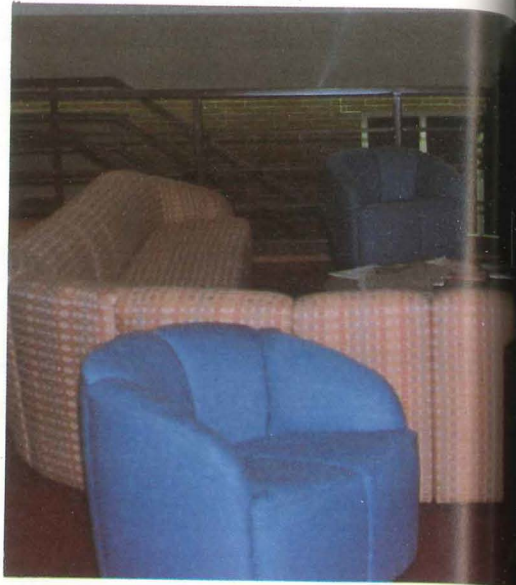

Is there any parking places?

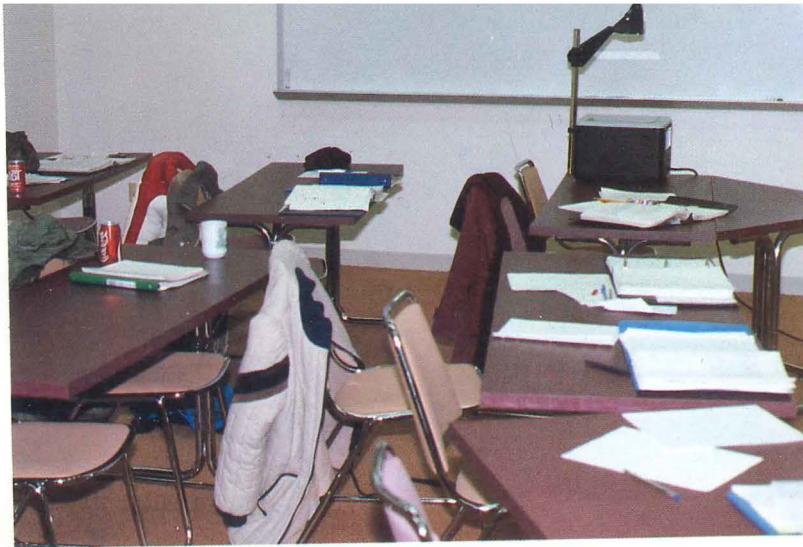

BSNA funeral arrangements made on this tour.

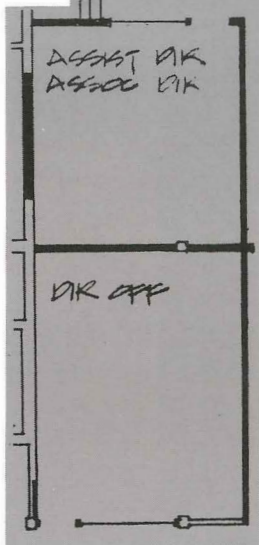

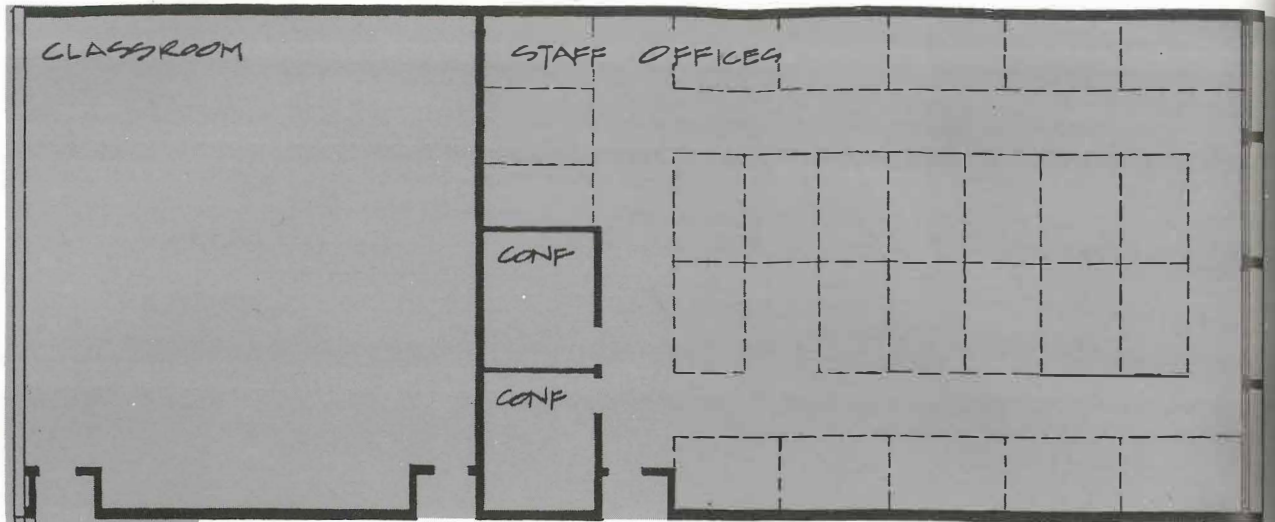

When it's time to relax . . .
Have a SITZ!

Volleyball

Are we here to play volleyball or basketball?

"Nancy, I'm setting it up for you!"

"Shelly, are you helping me stretch, or dislocating my shoulders?"

"I'm still not sure it's volleyball!"

Registration

All we do is pick up uniforms and write checks...

and then

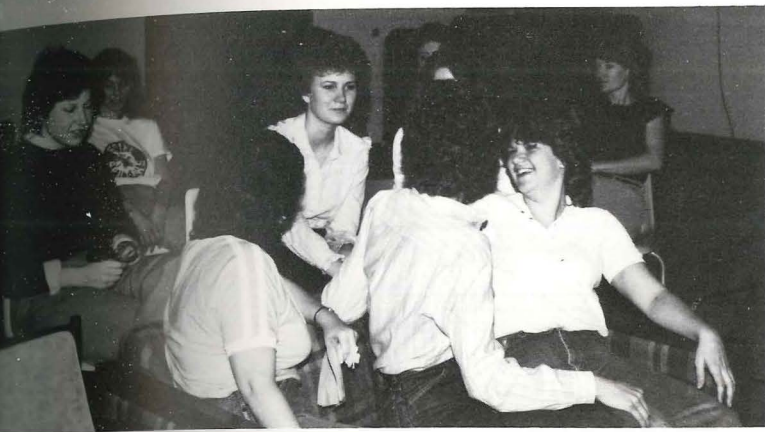

waiting and signing forms.

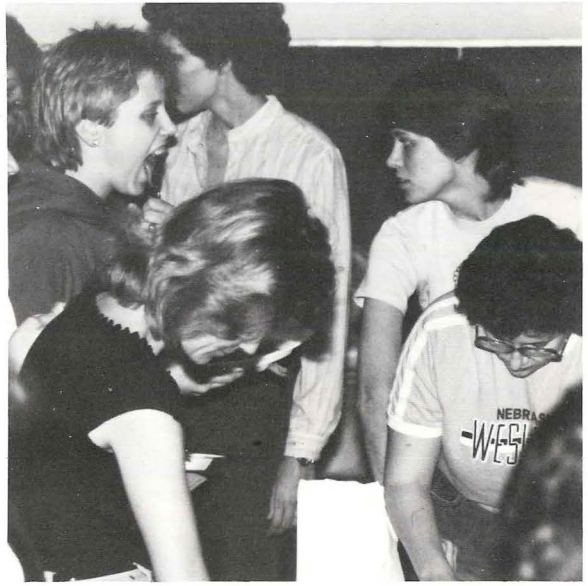

"What's next?"

"What is next!!!"

"We're waiting!"

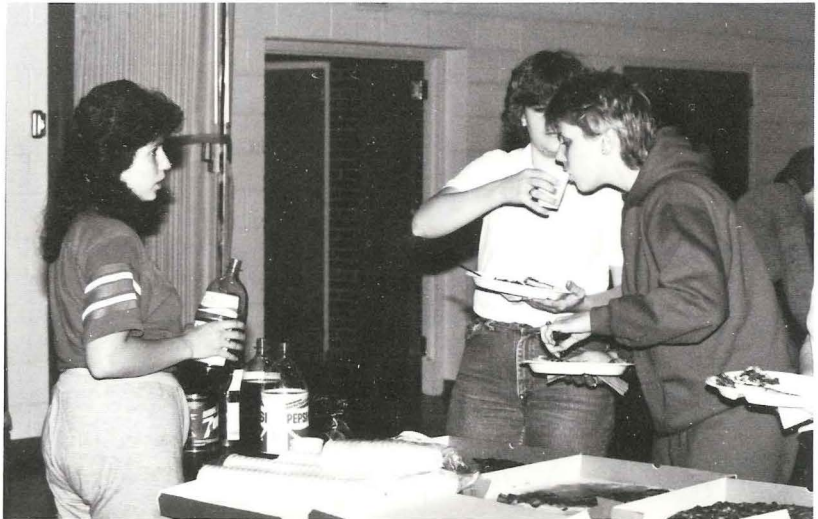

"What is it?"

Comes

"PIZZA!"

"You've got to be kidding me! She's a complete feed?"

F O O D

"I can't wait any longer."

Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

*Today we are on the road to becoming nurses.
We have taken another step in the direction of our goals.
As we receive these caps, we accept the responsibility of all they symbolize*

Respect

Determination

and Helping Others.

*Yesterday we were formed into the persons we are today.
Each of us has followed a different path to where we are now.
We have been shaped by our experiences and by those we love.
Many of our paths have not been straight, but have been winding.
Yet here we all stand on the same road.*

Even so, we must not become so caught up in yesterday or today that we lose sight of tomorrow.

Tomorrow will decide the results of our yesterdays and todays as they become interwoven.

Tomorrow our goals will become reality.

*Our goals: to relieve suffering and pain from the lives of our fellow man
to communicate empathy and love and to remember that each life is a treasure and each treasure is equal.*

Florence Nightingale Pledge

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly that I will strive to conduct my life in a manner that is becoming to my profession and to perform my duties faithfully. I will not knowingly administer any drug or be a party to any deed that might be harmful to my health or to the health of those entrusted to my care. I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standards of my profession. Unless necessary for the welfare of my patient, I will not discuss any personal or family matters coming to my knowledge in the practice of my profession. At all times I will protect and respect the rights and dignity of those assigned to my care. I will contribute my knowledge, loyalty and understanding so that I might function as a valuable member of the health care team
