Portland High School

2008 Panther

Serving as the flagship for Sumner County education, Portland High School was the first four-year public high school in the county. The school began in 1874 as Portland Seminary and sat on a one-acre plot of land donated by J.C. Buntin, the son of the town's founder. The building had two stories, the second being used by the Grange. The first story was also used for church services. In 1897 the principal of the school, Professor Z.K. Griffin, was conducting a lab experiment when a fire broke out destroying the building.

A new building was completed in 1898 and was called Portland Seminary. This building was used until abandoned in 1915. From 1910 until 1915, this school was called Portland High School, but it only provided three years of secondary education. Almost immediately, the student body outgrew the building. A new school was built in 1915 and was christened Sumner County High School, the first four-year public high school in the county. It had no library, no labs, and only one teacher with a college degree.

The year 1961 saw the last graduating class from Sumner County High School. In January of 1962, the school moved into a new building on South Broadway, and the name returned to Portland High School, as other areas of the county were now offering public secondary education. The old school building became Portland Junior High. This building burned in 1967, leaving only the gym, which is now called Richland Gym. Following this fire, the junior high and high school classes met in the same building using split sessions until a new junior high/middle school could be built.

In 1976, a new Sumner County Vocational Center was begun at an adjacent building to the high school. These classes served students from Portland, White House, and Westmoreland. In 1986, the high school expanded its physical facilities with the addition of the new wing and the renovation of the library and office space. The primary purpose of this expansion was the accommodation of the freshman class, which was moved from the junior high to the high school, increasing the student body by one fourth. During the 1994-1995 school year, the Sumner County Vocational Center officially became a part of Portland High School.

Because the student body was outgrowing the current facility, plans were made to build a larger high school. Built in 1998 under the direction of Principal Calvin Short, the new school located at 600 College Street, is a state-of-the-art facility that should serve the student body well for many years to come.

Janet Grogan became principal in November 1998 until her retirement in June 2007. Upon Ms. Grogan's retirement, Mr. Bob Gideon was promoted to principal in July 2007. His administrative team currently includes vice principals Allen Dyer, Robin Venable, and Cam MacLean.

Famous graduates of Portland High School include Samuel Collins (Class of 1916) who became a full professor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1946. Noted for his work with nitrogen and helium, he built the world's first helium liquifier, the first airborne oxygen generator, and the first portable oxygen carrier for aircraft crews. Holding over sixty patents, he is known as the "Father of Cryogenics."

Other famous graduates include famed Watergate prosecutor James Neal (Class of 1946), Robert Riggs (Class of 1960), who became the youngest president of a four-year university in the United States when he accepted the position at Austin Peay University, and noted country music entertainer and artist, Ronnie McDowell (Class of 1968). Basketball great, Corey Brewer (Class of 2004), was a McDonald's All-American while at Portland High School and was an integral member of the University of Florida's 2006-2007 NCAA National Championship teams. Corey is currently playing professional basketball in the NBA.

The history of Portland High School is one of dedicated educators with a commitment to serve the community and society as a whole. Challenged by this history, the present staff is determined to continue this honorable tradition of learning.

“The person who knows how to laugh at himself will never cease to be amused.”

My Most Embarrassing Moments

I was walking with my buddy, R-mack. He was talking to Ms. Baier, and she told him to hurry up. I assumed she was talking to me, and I started to run, and that's when my pants caught up under my shoe, and the next thing I know, SLIP, TRIP, SNAP! I fell and broke my leg!

-Jacob Mayes-12th

I was dared by my friends to grab the basketball net and immediately pull myself up to the rim in front of two gym classes which my coaches for basketball were teaching. When I went to do the dare, I grabbed both the net and the rim but my hands slipped and I fell from the rim and landed on my back. It really hurt both my back and especially my ego when the classes started laughing at me.

-Aaron Curtis-12th

rassing Hour

What was your most embarrassing time?

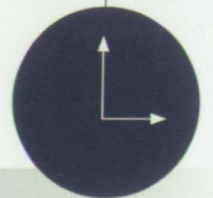

I was walking into the lunchroom after I had just gotten tea, and I slipped on some water and my tea spilled all over my face, and my shoe went underneath the table. The worst part was that everyone saw it.
-Jessica Prior-12th

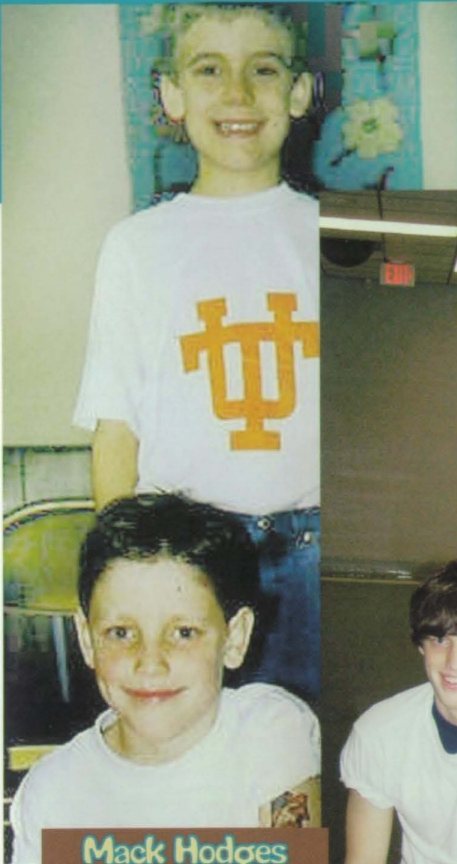

My most embarrassing moment takes place at our last basketball game of the season. I was tumbling across the gym floor, and it didn't go exactly how I wanted it to. I ended up falling on the floor and walking off laughing like crazy. It was a disaster!
-Macy Ball-9th

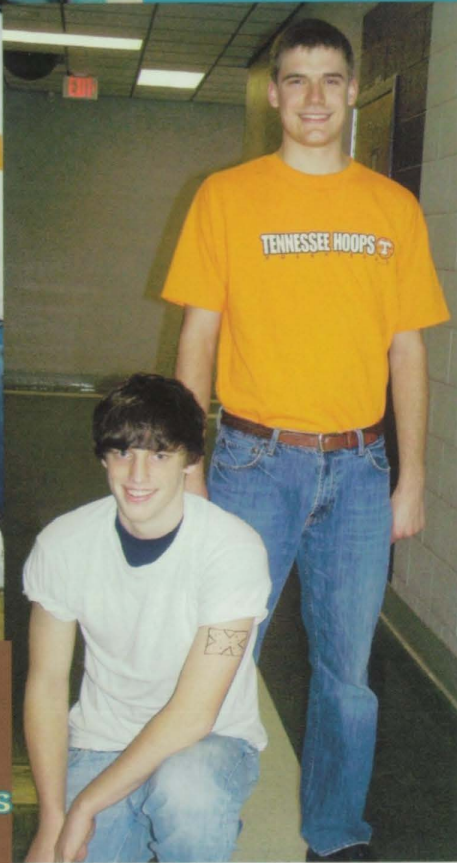

I had just arrived at school my freshman year. I had not eaten anything that day so I was feeling kind of dizzy, so I started to my 1st block class. As I was going to my class everything turned bright white, and then I slammed my face into the floor. When I woke up, students and teachers were surrounding me asking what had happened.
-Ricky Shelton-12th

Dear Class of 2008,

About thirteen years ago, we all walked into class together for the first time. Since that day, we've all moved toward the same goal together, Graduation! First off, I would like to say congratulations to all of you. We've finally achieved our goal. Some of us might have struggled along the way, and others, maybe not. But we've all made it one way or another. With this accomplishment, it's time for us to move on to the next part of our lives and set our own personal goals. As before, some of us might struggle, and some of us won't. But I pray that we all, once again, end up in the same place. All I can tell you is no matter what your goals may be, Good Luck and God Bless!

Gold Key

Katie Perry

“You will understand what is right and honest and fair. You will understand the right way to live. Your heart will become wise. Your mind will delight in knowledge. Good sense will keep you safe. Understanding will guard you.”

-Proverbs 2:9-11

Silver Key

Mitchell Keen

“Be more concerned with your character than your reputation, because your character is what you really are, while your reputation is merely what others think you are.”

-John Wooden

Danforth

Cassie Martin

“ Oh Lord, you have searched me and you know me. You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. Before a word is on my tongue you know it completely, O Lord. You hem me in-behind and before; you have laid your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain. Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence? If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there. If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea, even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast.”

-Psalm 139:1-10

Aaron Curtis

“The difference between a successful person and others is not a lack of strength, not a lack of knowledge, but rather a lack in will .”

-Vince Lombardi

-Mr. Allen Driver

BAND

What's the "Panther Band" made of? It is a group of talented musicians who love playing and making music. They work very hard to accomplish their goals. They start practicing in the summer and stop when they have completed their last competition. They perform on Friday nights at the Portland High School football games and at pep rallies. Without the "Panther Band", our school spirit would not be where it is today.

"These past couple of years in band have been tremendously fun. I will miss all my friends. Good Luck to the rest of you."
-Crystal Parker

"Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened."

Play a Little Tune: The Saxophones get ready for the big night.

Break it Down: Thomas Akers breaks it down for a little fun.

Focus, Focus, Focus: Jessica Bazenet concentrates while playing the xylophone.

Jungle Boogie: Ashley Akers, Alex McCain, and Cody McFarlin play hoping to win the competition.

Coach Missy Humphrey

This basketball season was exciting. Even though games did not always turn out like we wanted them to, WE HAD FUN!!! Being a part of a team is the best part. And this team is a family!! Like sisters, we don't always get along, but no one else better mess with any of our family! We improved and proved ourselves as basketball players and more importantly as great citizens!! When we look back on this year, we will remember the good times!! That is what it is all about.

It's Good... Emily Gurchiek keeps the ball up high while she shoots it with perfect form and makes the basket to help her team win the game.

Banquet... These girls were recognized at the banquet, with plaques, for all of their accomplishments during the basketball season this year.

Our senior season was a BLAST! Although we didn't win as many games as we wanted to, we created wonderful memories along the way. We will miss everyone and GOOD LUCK next year! We Love all of you!!!
Love,
Seniors

CHEERLEADING

The 2007-2008 Cheerleading Squad consisted of 13 girls. The girls want to wish the Seniors Brittany McCuin, Ashley Baker, and Rachel Henson good luck in all they do. The squad worked hard and helped keep spirits up at our school. They were always pumped and spirited to keep the crowd going no matter how the game was going. They had a lot of fun and made a lot of memories. They each had a special bond and that is what makes cheerleading such a special sport.

Passing the Torch...

After 14 years, it is time for me to pass the torch on to someone "younger and peppier". This has been a fine squad to have as my last squad. The girls have gotten along well and have cooperated. They never gave up on the teams and really enjoyed cheering for some exciting games. We would like to thank the football team and the basketball teams for all their hard work and effort. We would also like to thank the fans and especially the student body, for all the enthusiasm they brought to the games. Thanks again to all!

BRITTANY MCCIIN

Most of the time 13 isn't a lucky number, but this year it worked out pretty well for us. Even though we've had stressful schedules and stressful lives we still manage to support each other and have a good time. I love you all and I will miss you guys very much. It's been a great experience. I wish you all the best.

ASHLEY BAKER

"Wow! I can't believe it's time for graduation! I am going to miss you girls. Although the squad has definitely had it's times of up and downs, I'll miss the friendships that were formed. Some of you were there for me when I was having troubles that had nothing to do with cheerleading, and I'll never forget you guys. Good luck next year. And remember, you all now know how to "Lean With It, Rock With It." I love your girls!

RACHEL HEASON

"I have really enjoyed my three years of cheerleading. They have been so much fun, all the sleep-overs and games. I just want to thank Mrs. J Smith and wish luck to all future high-school cheerleaders."

SMILE... Macy Ball, Olivia Rowley, Mary Jared, Rhealee Drummond, and Brittany McCuin put on their smiles before a football game.

GO TEAM GO! The girls put up Ashley Baker in a liberty before the basketball game.

GO PEPPY! "Peppy" joins in with the cheerleaders to help get the crowd pumped by throwing out tee shirts to the people who cheer the loudest.

ITS GAME TIME The girls are getting pepped up for the PHS football game.

SAY CHEESE! The girls strike a goofy pose at cheer camp over the summer.

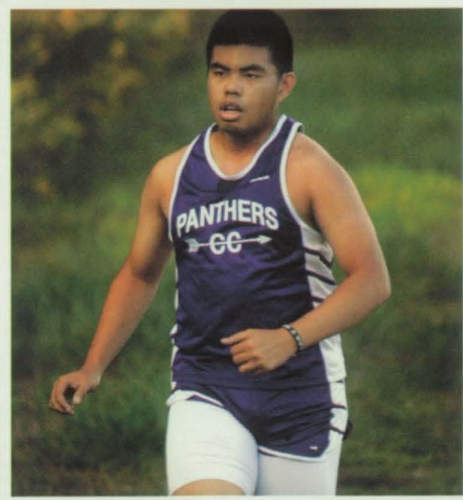

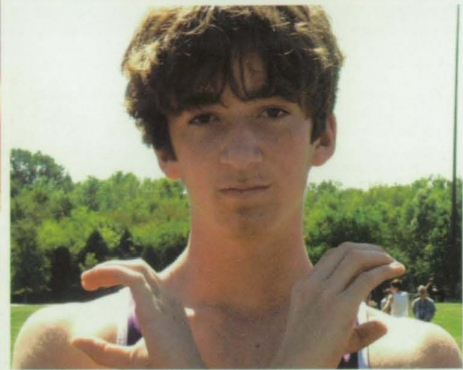

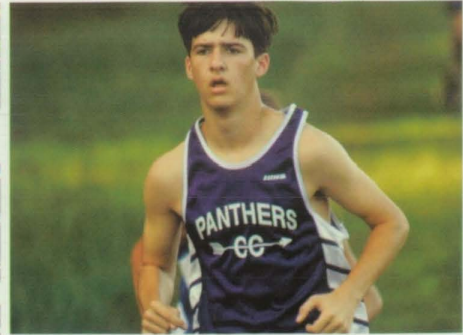

Coach Ray Henson

"I really appreciate all the effort given by our cross country athletes both at practice and during meets. We were few but we were dedicated."

Cooling Off... The team hangs out under a canopy out of the sun waiting on their next race.

At the Line... Derek Estes, David Key, Drew Napier, Elias Groft, and Zach Henson wait in anticipation for the gun shot to start the race.

Mrs. Ginger Lesemann and Mrs. Connie Moyher

This was one of those years that did not end as we would have wished - but - lessons are learned through all kinds of experiences. We hope that each player learned that confidence and consistency truly pays off. We have probably never coached a better group of girls. We were always confident they would represent Portland High School well. We will miss our seniors - Amanda, Becky, Denae, and Kendra tremendously. They have left a positive mark on Portland Volleyball the past four years. Dedication, commitment and hard work were traits they displayed with excellence. We were a better team because of them.

Reach For It... Ashleigh Burns reaches high to hit the ball.

Spike It... Denaee Dorris reaches for the ball so that she can nail it over the net.

Look At That High Jump... Amanda Rogers jumps high in the air to get one of her many kills to get a win for the team.

Putting Our Heads Together... The team lays around in a circle like one big happy family, while Amanda Rogers' dad, who takes many pictures, stands over the team to take a snap shot.

- Rachel Dyer

"The thing I will miss most is all the fun times we had with Mrs. Meadows and Mrs. Keith."
- Lacey Nichols

"I am going to miss all the friends I made and just being a part of Yearbook."
- Chelsea Youngblood

"I will miss all the fun times us girls had and Mrs. Meadows' Famous Model Walk!"
-Kasey McFarlin

Yearbook

1. Vanessa Hilgadiack, Dillon Lamberth, and Lynsey Dunn take a quick break from working on their pages. 2. Jada Henson and Rebecca Denning are working hard on all their pages before their deadline. 3. Denaé Dorris is concentrating on fixing her page.

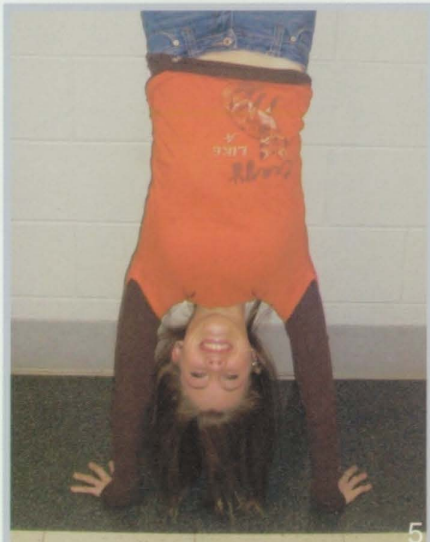

4. Melissa Bratton, Rachel Groves, Brittany Brown, and Katie Willis spend time together on Brittany's last day before she moves. 5. Will Perry hides from the upcoming deadline. 6. Kasey McFarlin and Kassie Bradley together at a Yearbook party.

Staff of 2007-2008

1. Will Perry and Cassie Porter work together quietly on their pages for this year's Yearbook. 2. Mrs. Meadows and Mrs. Keith, the wonderful Yearbook sponsors, are fierce. 3. Lexi Hallum looks confused about what to do for a page.

4. Katie Brown and Shana Whiting are finding ideas for their pages from an old yearbook. 5. Ashley Baker takes some time out of her workday to have a little fun. 6. While trying to select a background, Drew Rowley flashes a smile for the camera.

What is the most important thing you learned from being on the Yearbook staff?

"This year was great and I can't wait for the next one. It has taught me everything I need to know to accomplish my future plans."
- Katie Willis

"I have learned the meaning of hard work and how to work well as a part of a group."
-Shana Whiting

"I learned how to work well with other individuals. I can't wait to have even more fun next year."
- Dillon Lamberth

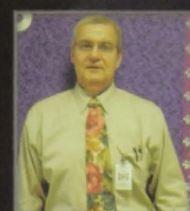

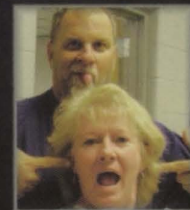

"My experience this year on the Yearbook staff has taught me to be very patient."
- Rachel Groves

ADMINISTRATORS

What did you like best about your first year at Portland High School?

"I like the students best. I have found the students to be friendly, and welcoming and very cooperative. There is a feeling of family at PHS. We all care about each other and want everyone to be successful. I enjoy seeing students successful in the classrooms and in athletic competitions as they strive to be the very best they can be."

Bob Gideon
Principal

What is the best and worst part about being an administrator at Portland High School?

"The best part of being an administrator is having my own office and being able to 'boss around' my husband all day! Seriously, I really love organizing, planning, and doing paperwork. PHS is my alma mater and my second home. The worst part of being an administrator is always being labeled as the 'bad guy' because so much of my day is spent dealing with disciplinary issues."

Robin Venable
Assistant Principal

"The best part is that I love to help people when they are in need or if they have made some mistakes. The best part of my job is helping others, teachers or students, and of course seeing the smile on their face that I helped put there. The worst part is that everyone assumes that you are trying to be mean or wanting to punish. We often get a bad perception because of having to do what the job calls for. As administrators, we are just 'reacting' once someone else has 'acted.' None of the administrators here like to be 'the bad guy'."

Allen Dyer
Assistant Principal

"The best part is having the opportunity to work with a wide variety of great people throughout the day. The worst part is having to work off all the weight I gain from eating all the great free food that people bring by the front office."

Cam MacLean
Assistant Principal

PHS Teacher of the Year & Sumner County Teacher of the Year

Jim Miller

Mr. Miller has been a high school math teacher since 1985. This is his second Teacher of the Year award, he was previously awarded at Oakland High School in 1998. "Mr. Miller was awarded this because of his character, and he sincerely cares about his students. You enjoy being around him because he is always upbeat", says Mr. Gideon.

Retiring Teacher

Nancy Payne

Mrs. Payne has been teaching for almost 31 years. Her favorite class that she taught was Health and Physical Education. Her favorite part of teaching is being around the kids, because she said that she has a tendency to become close to them. Mrs. Payne has been with the 2008 Seniors since they were in 6th grade. Mrs. Payne liked being a counselor better than teaching, but it was a close race.
