FOREWORD

In these pages may you find joys, pleasant memories of friends and school, and happiness in the years to come. We feel a measure of success in the completion of a high school career and the compiling of this annual, but we are looking forward to greater accomplishments, made possible by our high school relationships. May these golden hours and our sun-filled campus days never grow dim in memory's lane, and our toil will not have been in vain.

WE DEDICATE

To one whose glowing idealism, brilliant and sensitive intellect, gracious manners, culture and courtesy inspire all who come in contact with her as teacher, advisor, and friend; for years of untiring and devoted service which have made her an integral part of this school and its finest ideals; for her interest and leadership in the present and future progress of Sumner County High School; and above all for her many contributions to young people because of an unswerving faith in them, in grateful recognition, we the senior class dedicate this 1948 "Panther."

CLASS WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1948, being of sound mind and strong body, do hereby make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament. Knowing the certainty of death and the uncertainty of life, we wish to bequeath the following:

To our sponsor, Miss Marie, we leave, expressing our sincere appreciation for her guidance and interest in us, and hope that she will never have another Senior Class quite like us.

To our principal, Mr. Hunter, we leave, regretting that we had only one year under his supervision, and hoping that the school will attain the A-1 rating after we're gone.

To the Faculty, we leave, thanking them for pulling us through and understanding our troubles during the entire four years.

To the Juniors, we regretfully leave James A. Williams and Bobby Elmore, hoping that they will take the best of care of the precious creatures.

To the Sophomores, we bequeath our name-scarred desks, old books, and worn-out chewing gum.

To the Freshman, we leave, hoping that in the next three years they will lose their adolescent ways and be as dignified a graduating class as we are!

We, as individuals, do wish to bequeath some personal characteristics to a few unfortunate souls:

I, Lloyd Clemmons, leave my place as football and basketball manager to anybody who wants to do all the dirty work.

I, Lawrence Cook, leave all the pretty co-eds of S.C.H.S. with sadness in my heart and theirs.

I, Ray Cummings, leave my ability to make friends to Bobby Wilkinson.

I, Donnie Donoho, leave my broad smile to make life cheery after I'm gone.

I, Bobby Elmore, leave myself. period.

I, Larry Forbis, leave my wavy hair to Larry Collins.

I, Jimmy Fowler, leave without using a single ounce of energy during the entire four years' sentence.

I, Roy Lee Harper, would just like to leave.

I, Eugene Johnson, leave my boisterous manner to Joe Jernigan.

I, DeWitt Law, leave my seat in English class to any Junior who wants to sleep first period next year.

I, W. C. Leath, leave my physique to Willie Moore Sheucraft.

I, Douglas Lear, leave acquiring nothing and willing nothing.

I, Winston Parker, leave my quiet, slow drawl to Garnet White.

I, Thomas Payne, leave my conceit and good looks to Bobby Wilson.

I, Charles Hayden Perdue, leave my position as head-cheerleader and all the antics that go with it to Charlie Wilson.

I, Hoye Stewart, leave my ability to flirt to Melvin Briley.

I, Kenneth Torrents, leave my innocent look to Herschel Stout.

I, "Scrubtoe" Wilkinson, leave my place on the football team to Larry Johnson.

I, Julia Ann Boren, leave my high grades and title of valedictorian to Patty Sue Ray.

I, Beatrice Deasy, leave my popularity to Jean Jernigan.

I, Thelma Deasy, leave a few extra inches of my height to Wanda Hardin.

I, Wanda Denning, leave, hunting a man to call my own.

I, Evelyn Hardin, leave my helpfulness to Wilma Creasey.

I, Pauline Hicks, leave my sweet smile to Eurie Jean Jenkins.

I, Norma Jean Martin, leave my office duties to Joan Link.

I, Gladys, Perdue, leave humming the wedding march.

I, Annie Pond, leave Joe to the tender mercy of all his other admirers.

I, Rosalie Shuecraft, leave my snny disposition to Gloria Dean Lambert.

I, Ollie Marie Wright, leave my giggles and chewing gum to Betty Hunter.

"", as we bid farewell to our Alma Mater, dear old S. C. H. S., we leave our appreciation for the ideals, the knowledge gained, the spirit which leads us always onward, and the pleasant associations we have had during our high school days.

CLASS PROPHECY

Last night I dreamed I was in Pasadena, California. It was May 2, 1958, and I was at the Rose Bowl to see the two most outstanding football teams of the year perform. They were the University of Tennessee, coached by James Leroy Wilkinson and the University of California, coached by W. C. Leath.

Since this was my first visit to the Rose Bowl, I was interested in the big stadium and the crowd of people that had gathered to see this exciting game. I had a rather high seat which I found suited me perfectly, for I could see almost everyone that came in.

While I was looking around I heard from the loud speaker a strange yet familiar voice: "Ladies and Gentlemen, the President of the United States." Lloyd Clemmons entered the stadium and we were led in the national anthem by Pauline Hicks, the world's greatest singing teacher.

The President was accompanied by Thelma Deasy, his secretary. Then, I noticed two friends, sitting directly in front of me, apparently deep in conversation. They were Kenneth Torrents, Principal of Sumner High School and Julia Ann Boren, Mathematician, from the University of Alabama. I was amazed at seeing them together because the last time I saw them, they weren't getting along so well.

Then came that voice again over the loud speaker and this time I recognized it. It was Dewitt Law, the great sports commentator. He was saying that the captains of the two All-Star teams, Lawrence Cook and Bobby Elmore, were meeting in the center of the field. Lawrence and Bobby had finally decided to resume their college courses which they had dropped after two years.

Hearing a giggle from someone in the crowd behind me, I turned to see Ollie Marie Wright and her escort, trying to get up a bet on the game. Ollie Marie is a graduate nurse, now teaching nursing at Vanderbilt.

Looking directly below me, I saw two admirals from the navy. Finally I was able to see their faces and they were none other than Larry Forbis and Doug Lear who had gotten special leave to see Elmore and Cook play in their greatest game.

Not far from them, I saw Mrs. Warren Douglas, the former Miss Gladys Perdue, with her daughter. They had come to see Gladys' friend Wanda Denning, crowned queen of the Tournament of Roses. Wanda was still a very attractive girl.

Jauntily and happily searching for his reserved seat was Donny Donoho, a successful businessman, with his two sons, Gene and Hoye, the latter being named for the present Governor of Tennessee, Hoye Stewart.

Catching up on the game I learned that neither team had scored, so I turned again to seek faces in the huge crowd.

Rosalie Sheucraft, Manager of Sheucraft's Style Shop, was anxiously watching her two heroes, Cook and Elmore, try to score against each other.

I noticed Norma Jean Martin, sports editor of the Tennessean, wasn't too much interested in the game, but was lost in admiration for the two coaches, especially W. C. Leath. Then I spied on the front row Mr. and Mrs. Tom Payne and their family. They seemed to be thoroughly entertained. Mrs. Payne? Oh! I've forgotten who she was, but it wasn't Anne Pond.

Winston Parker was now a great scientist. His greatness was due to the discovery of an automatic machine that does the "home assignments" for high school and college students.

Looking to the people at my left I saw Eugene Johnson, now a prominent senator who was well versed in politics. Not far from Eugene I saw Evelyn Hardin, a beautiful Powers model, who was excited over the game. She was sure James' team would win.

Immediately after the crowning of the queen, the Governor of California, Charles Hayden Perdue, made a short talk about the history of the graduating class of '48.

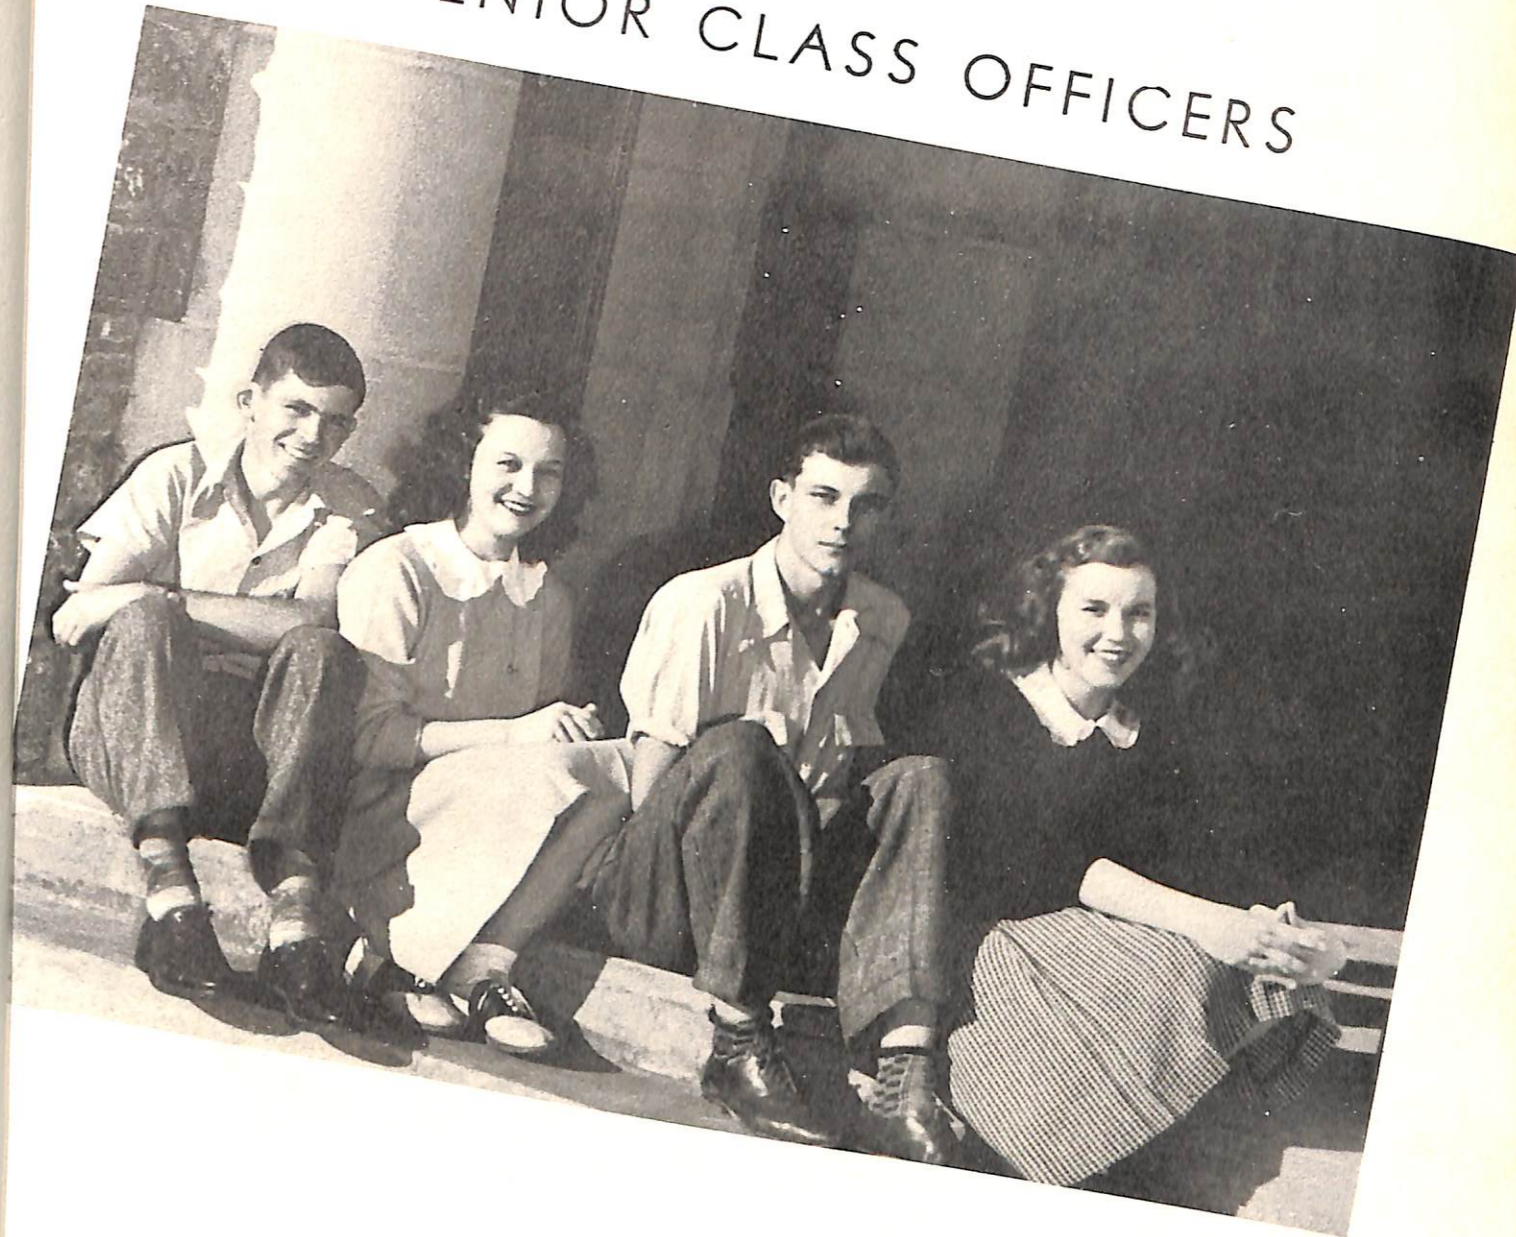

I heard someone in the crowd behind me say that Anne Pond and Jimmy Fowler couldn't come because they were tied up in court trying to get Annie's third divorce. Jimmy was a famous divorce lawyer.

Roy Lee Harper, a handsome movie actor, was contemplating marriage, so the Hollywood gossips said. His buddy, Ray Cummings, sat beside him at the game. He had just struck oil out in Texas and now he's being chased by the females.

I wish I knew how the game came out, but the next thing I did know was that my little sister was yelling, "Will you please shut up and lie down?"

CLASS HISTORY

In August, 1944, a group of "green-horns" gathered at Sumner County High School to be enrolled as freshmen under the capable leadership of Principal C. O. Jett and his staff of teachers. There were approximately fifty who assembled in the auditorium the first day, but a few others were added in the following weeks, bringing the total to sixty freshmen by the end of the year.

On our return to the campus the second year we found we had lost some of our members who fell by the wayside because they didn't think they could live through another brain-straining year of school. Some of us finally lived through it though, and the third year we were under new management, Prof. E. V. Walling. The highlight of this year was our trip to Mammoth Cave on the Junior-Senior Party.

We finally entered into this, our Senior year, with all of the members who were faint-hearted or had been struck by Cupid's darts having dropped out, leaving only the faithful few, twenty-eight. We've even lost one this year, Charles H. Perdue, who moved to California, but we happened to gain one from our neighbor, Hartsville, Miss Evelyn Hardin.

As this year comes to an end, under the capable leadership of Mr. William Hunter, we look back on the past four years with sadness in our hearts at having to leave such a wonderful institution of learning. In leaving this school, we hope we have benefited it during the time we have attended instead of abusing it.

Our last wish is that the rest of our days will be half as happy as these last four years have been.

Winston Parker

The title of the Class Poem is Two Doors.

TWO DOORS

The door of memory is ajar today!
We pause a moment now to view
The four fair years that lie behind.
We Ponder them with grateful mind
And long to live them o'er anew.

Four short years of work and play
Have found us with our goal attained
With loving help from teachers dear
Who have guided us from year to year.
We count these years not lost, but gained.

The door of hope is ajar today!
We turn a moment now to scan
The Vista of the years that lie
Beckoning us to come and try
Our part in the Master's plan.

We close the door to memory's way.
With steady heart we open wide
The future's door, to take our place
Along with others who shall face
Tomorrow's tasks with God as guide.

Treasured Memories

Your yearbook is a store of treasured memories. The oft repeated thrill of recollection which accompanies each new search through its pages will many times repay you for the care and consideration which has gone into its creation.

We are publishing 1948 Annuals for more than 900 Colleges and High Schools. This patronage indicates a wealth of ideas and service which has no doubt made possible the long record of our school annual achievement.
