Foreword

Ah, fond memories! So many things happen in the course of a school year! The more important things are imbedded in your memory; some are completely forgotten. As you turn through the pages of this, the ninth edition of The Panther, may it bring back vividly the memorable events of this school year.

To a man with a mathematical knowledge, a sincere desire to be a helper, and a complete feeling of friendship for all, the Senior Class of 1954 dedicates this edition of The Panther.

WILLIAM M. HUNTER, B.S., M.A.
Superintendent of Portland Schools

Dear Seniors,

When you receive your high school diploma, you have accomplished the most challenging goal in these few years of your life. There will be many more goals in the years ahead, but the foundation of life has been laid during your school days here.

In the years to come, you will cherish the memories of your Alma Mater. Those "unpleasant events," that are a part of everyone's school days, will seem trivial as you think back on them in the years to come.

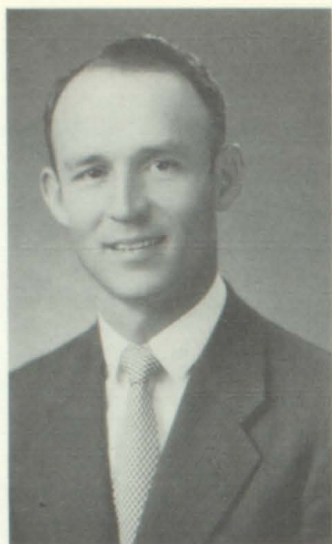

I sincerely hope that you will remember your school days here as an enjoyable and highly profitable experience, and may I wish for you and all students the best of everything in life.

Your friend,

WILLIAM M. HUNTER

Prophecy

After 15 years, my travels were finally bringing me back to Portland! I was so excited I could hardly wait until the plane landed.

The first person I saw was Barbara Freedle. She is now an airline hostess for the L&N passenger plane. She told me that she wouldn't be one for long, though. She was getting married the next week and invited me to the wedding.

After my refreshing visit with Barbara, I tried to find a taxi. Startled by a shrill whistle, I turned and saw J. R. Lamberth, motioning to me to get into the car with him. He told me that he, Charles McDougal, and David Cummings now owned the Yellow Cab Co. in Portland. He directed me to the Lanier and Deasy Hotel, which was nothing short of a palatial mansion. I was overwhelmed by the magnificence, though I always knew that they would be satisfied with nothing short of the best.

When I stepped out of the taxi, two bellhops came running to get my bags. Imagine how shocked and glad I was to see two of my old friends, Billy Harris and J. C. Thompson! As we stood there for a minute reminiscing, they told me that the name, Deasy, was soon to be changed to Bennett. David has been married for quite a while to a girl he met in college.

In the luxurious lounge I saw three well-known entertainers: Donna Faye Perdue, playing the piano, and Pat Cummings and Frances Knight singing "I'd Love to Get You on a Prompt Plane to Pluto," a new version of the old song, "Slow Boat to China."

Immediately afterwards I was shown to my room by Sara Dye, the silent partner in this establishment.

In my beautiful room overlooking Portland Lake, I decided to relax and look at the new MARS Station on TV, but something was wrong with it. When I rang for room service, I recognized the familiar voice of Marguerite Armstrong, who told me that she and Wanda Brown were the telephone operators there. Before I had hardly hung up, in walked Jimmy Graves and Ronny Atchison to repair the TV set. It was wonderful to see old friends again. Ronny told me that Allan Jones, Talmadge Briley, Wayne Lamberth, and Joe Hester, all wealthy sportsmen, were out on the lake fishing.

The efficiency of my service men brought me immediate reception of an old picture of the Vandy-U.T. football game of 1956. Agnes DeJohn (No. 83) was star fullback of Vandy, while Skip Wiseman and Bobby Ausbrooks were—well, what do you think?—Captains of the cheerleaders, who really led a wicked yell.

In the stands I saw Donna Franklin in black and gold plaid glasses and Elwanda Jenkins, highly honored former students and co-founders of the Sphinx Club. Jean Stinson and children were in charge of the concession stand. I hear they have a resort near Cross Roads community with Sue Wilkinson and Betty Douglas in charge while they are away.

A change of stations brought a mystery program, called the "Missing Link," starring Shirley Link and Norman Lane.

About 7:00 I went down to the dining room for dinner. The trim attractive waitress who came for my order was Cherry Craigge, who explained that she had recently taken a job waiting on tables with Mary Bradley, Alberta Hobdy, and Thelma Adams. When I complimented the fine food that she served, Cherry revealed the secret of its success by saying that Herman Crafton was the chef.

After dinner, I hurried into the lobby, where I was overcome by a mob evidently trying to get autographs from some stars. These proved to be three popular actors: Carolyn Davis, Sue Moye and Bobby Gray.

I spent a week of leisure at the hotel, meeting some old schoolmates, Howard Martin, history professor at Vandy and Thurman Harper, owner of Harper Dairies near Portland.

The day before I left Portland, I went to Barbara's wedding. Carolyn McDowell, famous designer of Carolyn evening gowns and Barbara Bracken, coach of basketball at SCHC, were the bridesmaids. The Reverend John Payne pronounced the marriage vows. Charles Stout, real estate agent of the Hollis Chapel community, acted as best man.

The next day when I had barely gotten seated in my plane, I found my companion for the journey was Janette Gourley who told me of her interesting work with the FBI in Washington.

As we passed over the Cumberland River, my eye was attracted to a beautiful bridge. Janette informed me that it had been built by Joe Elliott. After graduating from high school he took a course in engineering and built the bridge.

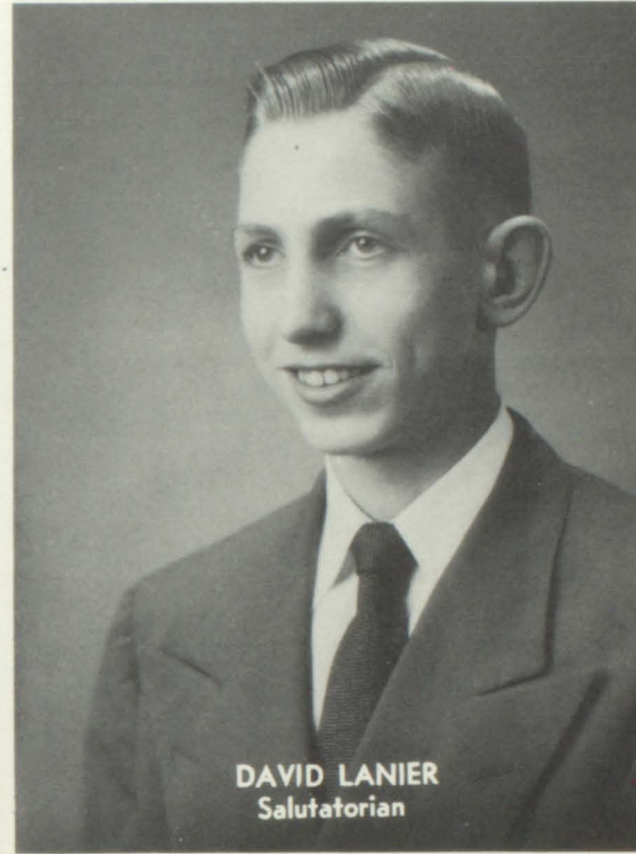

That night, before retiring, I thought over the many exciting and wonderful experiences that I had had during my week's stay in Portland. They were exciting because I had once more enjoyed good times with my classmates, and wonderful because they brought back the grand memories of the glorious days spent at Sumner County High School—memories that I hope to share with the readers of my efforts in journalism.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of Sumner County High School, being so filled with knowledge that we depart from school with few quarrels and misgivings and have passed the required courses, do hereby publish this our last will and testament.

SECTION I—Endowments

We therefore bequeath to our principal, Mr. W. M. Hunter, our gratitude for all the things he has done for us during our four years at SCHS.

We bequeath to the faculty, without whose guidance we would not be thus far along our way, our appreciation for the time they have sacrificed to help us.

We leave to the Juniors the wish that they are as successful in obtaining funds for the Senior trip as we were.

To the Sophomores, we will our orderly conduct in chapel.

We leave to the Freshmen our dignity and natural reserve which we feel that they need more than we do.

SECTION II—Personals

I, Norman Lane, leave my ability to be late for school (and get by with it) to Norman Stovall.

We, Jean Stinson and Barbara Brackin, leave our "M.R.S." degree to anyone who can make it and is willing to keep house and cook three meals a day!

I, Janette Gourley, leave my neatness to Nancy Freeland.

I, Barbara Freedle, leave my position on the basketball team to Patsy Johnson.

I, David Cummings, leave my mathematical mind to Donald Taylor.

We, Marguerite Armstrong and Thurman Harper, leave our quietness to John Alden and Archie Claiborne.

I, Howard Martin, leave my historical knowledge to David Mink.

I, John Payne, leave my bashfulness to Bobby Williams.

I, Carolyn McDowell, leave my intelligence to Pat Wright.

We, Sara Dye and Patricia Cummings, leave our pleasing personalities to Barbara Hunter and Joyce Poole.

I, Skip Wiseman, leave Bobbie Jo in the merciful hands of "Callis."

We, Ronny Atchison and Bobby Ausbrooks, leave. (We hope!)

I, Herman Crafton, leave my brains for chemistry to William Hall.

I, Joe Hester, leave my position as the only boy in shorthand class to any other boy that lucky.

We, Bobby Gray and J. C. Thompson, leave our ability to chew gum to the rhythm of typing to Bobby Denning.

I, Sue Wilkinson, leave my position as basketball manager to anyone who wants a good job.

We, Donna Franklin and Elwanda Jenkins, leave our giggles to Elouise DeJohn.

I, Donna F. Perdue, leave my typing ability to Jeanette Street.

We, Alberta Hobdy and Wanda Brown, leave our position on the class tournament team to Cindy Jenkins and Lois Beasley.

I, David Lanier, leave my remarkable ability to get along with the women to George Caudill.

I, Charles McDougal, leave my ability to sleep in class to Jim Johnson.

We, Carolyn Davis and Sue Moye, leave our ability to catch Franklin boys to Dot Devasher and Jean Jernigan.

I, Billy Harris, leave this time, for good.

We, Jimmy Graves and Talmadge Briley, would just like to leave.

We, Agnes DeJohn and Betty Douglas, leave our sophistication to Joyce Brown and June Poole.

I, Carol McGlothlin, leave my blushing ability to Priscilla Austin.

We, Thelma Adams and Frances Knight, leave our kindness to June Austin and Peggy Armstrong.

I, Fayola Deasy, leave my talking ability to Jackie Smart.

I, Allen Jones, leave my politeness to Richard Hunter.

We, Cherry Craigge and Mary Bradley, leave our friendliness to Peggy Harper and Anne Collins.

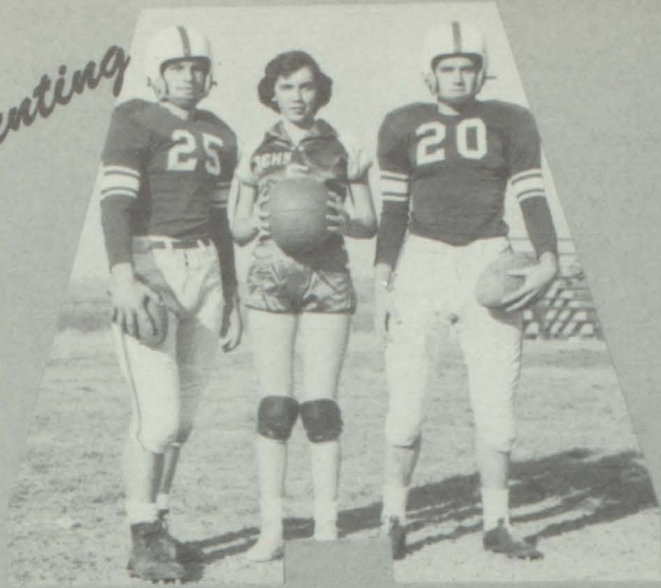

I, J. R. Lamberth, leave all the pretty girls with regret.

I, Joe Elliott, leave my place of leadership to Charlie Caudill.

This is our last will and testament and we leave wishing the best of luck and success to the remaining students at SCHS.

PEGGY ARMSTRONG

The best things come in small packages.

DONALD BARRY

Listen to everyone's advice, then do as you please.

NELLIE BREWER

Like the deep blue sea, always calm.

HOWARD BRIZENDINE

The more I study, the more I forget.

BILL BROWN

Young fellows will be young fellows.

BONNY BROWN

Moving through life with gracious reserve.

CAROLYN BROWN

Women of few words are the truest.

JAMES BROWN

Why should life all labor be?

M. H. BUSH

I believe in taking life easy.

LOUIS CALLIS

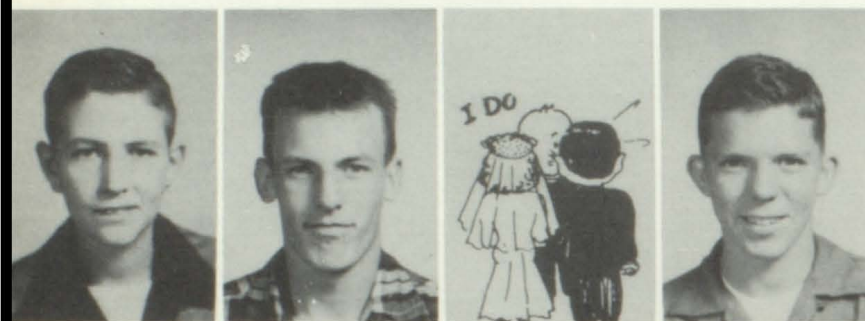

Girls are made to be loved, not understood.

JUNE CANIDA

She preferred to be good than to seem so.

CHARLES CAUDILL

Laughing, smiling evermore; he's a boy we all adore.

YVONNE CHERRY

Quiet, reserved, and demure: a friend of whom you're always sure.

ARCHIE CLAIBORNE

I follow the path of least resistance.

WILMA CLAIBORNE

It's nice to be natural, when you're naturally nice.

JOHN COLLINS

When joy and duty clash, let duty go to smash.

JEAN CRON

*A sweeter, kinder girl you'll never meet
She's a fine gal, and a real athlete.*

BOBBY DENNING

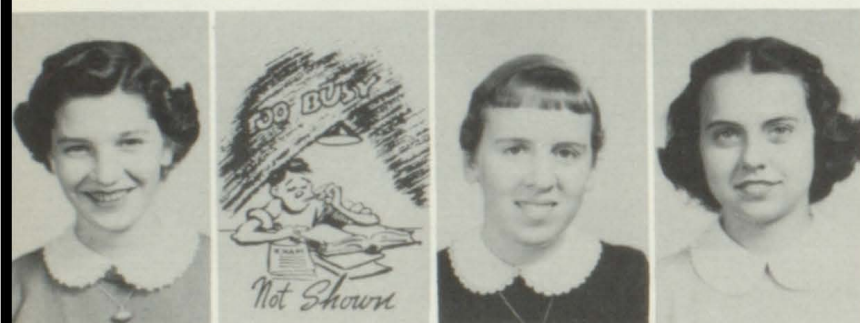

None but himself can be his parallel.

DOROTHY DeVASHER

Leave silence to saints, I'm only human.

DOROTHY DOBBS

If silence is golden, she's bankrupt.

DONALD EDENS

Men of few words are the best men.

CHARLES FISHER

Live and let live.

CAROLYN FLEMING

Working, working, never shirking, always happy and content.

BOBBY FORBIS

Let me live in a house by the side of the road, where the pretty girls go by.

NANCY FREELAND
She seeks the ill will of no one.

JOE FREEMON
Give me a hint of what it's all about.

GLENDA GARRETT
Her ways are ways of peace.

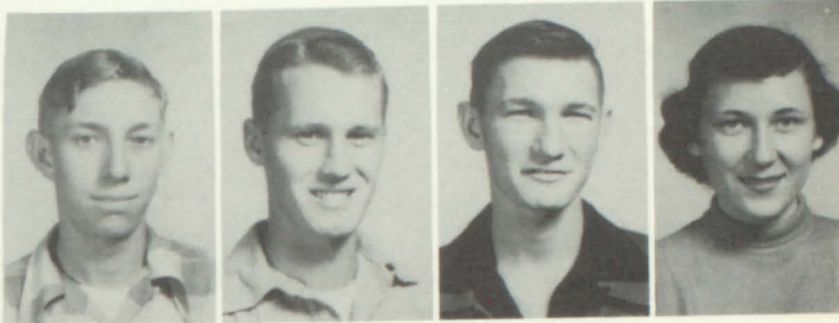

WILLOVENE GRAVES
Neither too sober or too gay, a sweet gal in every way.

WAYNE GROVES
God wrought splendidly and gave to earth a gentleman.

BILLY HALL
If ignorance is bliss, I'm a blister.

BOBBY HARPER
A ready wit helps him along, Life to him is but a song.

PEGGY HARPER
A girl's hair is her crowning glory.

PATSY HOBDY
The surest way to make others happy is to be happy oneself.

EUNICE HODGES
If God can love us all, why can't I love a dozen?

FRANCES HUDSON
The temple of our purest thoughts is silence.

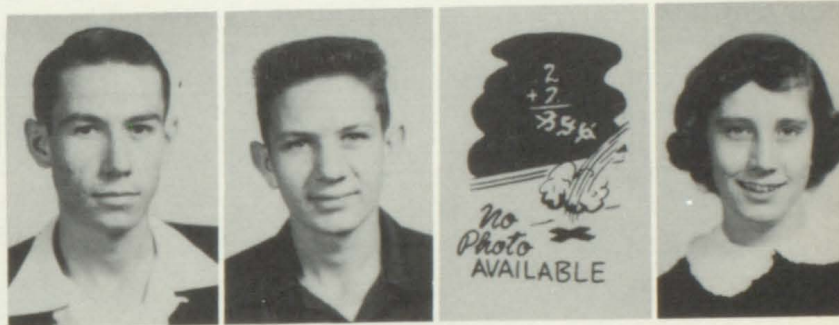

JOAN HUNTER
What's the use of thinking, if you can't say what you think?

RICHARD HUNTER
*Athletic, witty and full of fun,
He's made a friend of everyone.*

ARMEL JACKSON
Quiet and ready to lend a helping hand.

JIM JOHNSON
Life is no longer if we hurry.

PATSY JOHNSON
Be a live wire, and you won't get stepped on.

JANE LAMBERTH
Always talking, never saying anything.

JANETTE LAMBERTH
Not for herself, but for one other she lives.

ADELLA LINK
Better to let the feet slip than the tongue.

SUE ELLEN LINK
A little girl with a big heart.

GLENDA MAYES
A good sport and true, Why can't we have more just like you?

JOYCE McDANIEL
A head packed full of brains and a heart packed full of sunshine.

BIRDIE McCOIN
One who possesses good nature, good sense, and good sentiments.

GORDON MEADORS
By his works, one knows the workmen.

HAROLD MINK
True worth often lies in being quiet.

PATSY MYERS
*Can't cook, can't sew, don't resemble Venus,
Can't draw, can't write, guess I'm just a genius.*

ANNETTE OLDHAM
Above all things be carefree and gay.

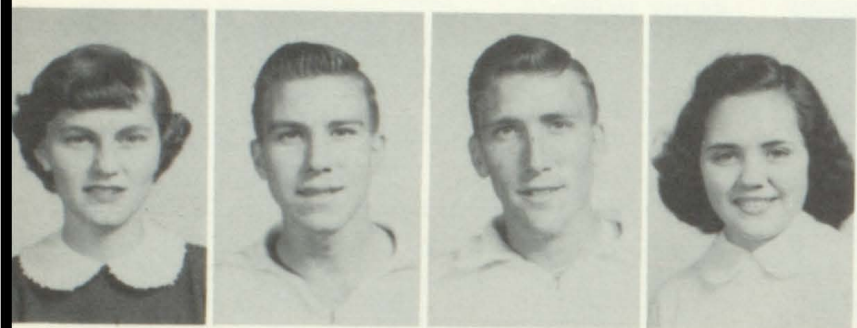

WAYNE PERRY
A good student with the right amount of mischief thrown in.

CARL PIKE
Let not women's weapons stain my manly cheek.

JOYCE POOLE
Why waste time worrying, when there's so much fun in the world?

LULA SHERRILL
A good laugh is a light in the house.

JANICE SIMPSON
She's always willing to carry her load.

JACKEE SMART
*The fates to this lady have been kind,
Beauty, wit, besides a brilliant mind.*

BILLY STEPHENS
Always jolly ever true, never sad, never blue.

JAMES STEPHENS
There's no need for words, believe fact.

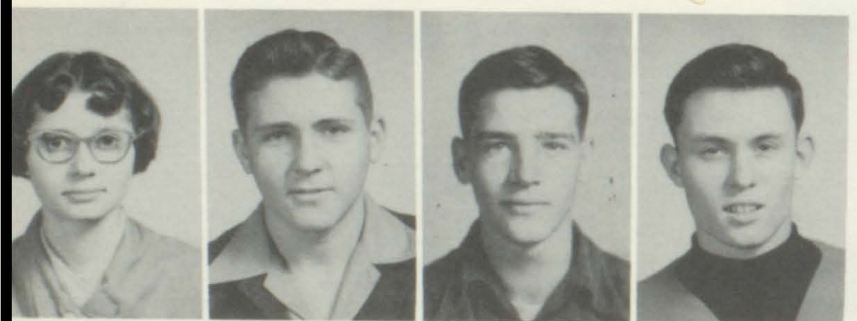

ILA DEAN STORY
A friend to all, a foe to none.

NORMAL STOVALL
Talk to him of Jacob's ladder and he'll ask the number of steps.

JEANETTE STREET
A good disposition is finer than gold.

DONALD TAYLOR
The world knows nothing of its greatest men.

BARBARA VANATTA
Dare to do right and you'll come out right.

BARBARA VAUGHN
Grind, grin, and attain.

JAMES WALTERS
Be silent and safe. Silence never betrays you.

KENNETH WHITE
He never does today what he can do tomorrow.

CHARLES WILKINSON
A good addition to any gang.

BOBBY WILLIAMS
Quiet and unassuming, his nature never varies.

Miss Carol McGlothlin, center, was crowned 1953 football queen last Friday night, by Co-Captain Ausbrooks and Wiseman of the Panther squad, at the annual homecoming game with Hendersonville. Her attendants were, from left to right, Jean Porter Jernigan, Fayola Deasy, Shirley Link, Bobby Jo Crunk.

Teen-Town Socials To Be Sponsored By Portland PTA

The Portland PTA, realizing the need for social activities for Portland teen-age school children, are laying plans to open a teen-town after each home football game.

The teen-town will be held in the high school cafeteria and all high school teen-age students along with the visiting football team and their cheer leaders will be invited. The students will be chaperoned by four adult couples who will direct the activities.

The Junior Class of Sumner County High School was given a kiddie party by the high school room mothers of the P-TA for getting the most P-TA members in high school. The party was given in the high school cafeteria under the direction of the room mothers and members of the school faculty.

The class came dressed in Kiddie clothes with dolls and buckets and short pants.

First prize for the best dressed was given to Bobby Jo Crunk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crunk, for the girls and the boys first prize was received by Norman Stovall son of Mr. and Mrs. Stovall.

Games and refreshments were enjoyed by the group.

Hobo Week To Be Held Nov. 2-7

The senior class of Sumner County High School will have Hobo Week beginning Nov. 2-7.

The boys and girls will do a kind of work to earn money to finance the annual trip to Washington.

Any of the citizens desiring a work to be done may call the high school or see any member of the senior class.

They will work any day between 3 o'clock in the afternoon and Saturday.

Three outstanding defensive men for the Panthers are...

...rdall, Mr. Robert Woodall, Mr. J. C. Williams...

Mrs. Woodall will teach history, economics, geography and English.

Mr. McCowan, the assistant coach, will teach physical education. Mr. Williams, head coach, will teach general science.

coach the football and basketball teams.

Sumner County high school will open its cage season Dec. 8 with East Robertson, there.

The Portland boys should come up with a better than average team this year since none of the five were lost from the squad last season.

The boys will be coached by Bill McCowan and the girls by J. Williams.

The schedule follows:
 Dec. 8 East Robertson, there
 Dec. 11, Hendersonville, there
 Dec. 15 Jo Byrns, here
 Dec. 18 Hartsville, there

Jan. 5 Coopertown, there
 Jan. 12 Hartsville, here
 Jan. 15 Jo Byrns, there
 Jan. 19 Hendersonville, here

Jan. 22 Gallatin, here
 Jan. 26, East Robertson, here
 Jan. 29 Lafayette, there
 Feb. 2 White House, there

Feb. 5 Coopertown, here
 Feb. 9 Gallatin, there
 Feb. 12 White House, here

Education Week Observed By Local Schools

SCHS Seniors Have Gala Trip To Capitol

On Thursday, April 23, a jubilant group of 43 seniors with their three sponsors, Mrs. Earl Jernigan, Mrs. Duncan Empson and Mr. Lawrence Bradley, met at the Portland Railroad Station to leave on the annual senior trip, Washington, D. C. was our destination and a wonderful send-off we had. Underclassmen waved their hands and dreamed of the day they too will enjoy.

Turner To Be Speaker At Family Night

Gordon Turner, moving representative of the Nashville Tennessean, will be the guest speaker at the Annual Family Night banquet to be held at the High School Cafeteria on Friday night Nov. 5, at 7:30 p.m.

The banquet will be held in the gymnasium and everyone is invited to come and speak on an interesting topic.

The speaker asked that everyone bring two covered dishes for their family and they will furnish the bread and drinks.

Coach J. C. Williams has announced that 1953 football practice will begin at 7:00 p.m. Monday, August 10 at the softball field. Assistant coach Robert McCowan will be in charge of the program.
