PHS Is In The

When the classes are over and the memories are made, the spirit will still live on. Every student who leaves this school takes something special with them to remind them of all the wonderful times they've had. At the end of the year the halls are empty, the lockers are cleaned out, and the noises of students are silenced. Regardless of how deserted this building may be, the memories of Portland High School will always be In The Spotlight.

Now & Then

As we grow older, we seem to forget the things that really matter. Growing older means new friends, new experiences, and new obstacles, which we each come into contact with every single day. We do not need to forget these things as we grow up. Who we were makes us who we are today. The memories are the only thing that we have left of our childhood. Never forget those memories. Always cherish them as priceless items.

Let's Have a Sleepover!... Catie Stroud, Beth Briley, Sally Pirtle, Brittany Porter, and Meredith Wiseman take a cute picture during one of their many sleepovers as little girls. With an obvious difference in age, these seniors have endured many hardships and have stuck by each other through the years.

Top stars: Choecin'... Now having hit the double digit age span, Antione Woods and Juan Rodriguez still have the smiles that can brighten up anyone's day. Middle stars: Cute as a Button... With rhyming names and all, seniors Kellie Krantz and Tiffany Lance are two friends who have been through it all. Bottom stars: Nuttier Than Nuts?... Even in elementary school, Carly Escue and Courtney Napier were the "nuts" that topped the sundaes.

Munchin' on Some Grub... Kimi Short, Derek Finn, and Cody Escue celebrate Kimi's fifth birthday by eating some cake.

Senior Class of 2004,

Congratulations! We have finally reached the moment of which we have dreamed. We no longer have playgrounds, field trips, and milk cartons. We have the FUTURE! We have all overcome our own obstacles to make it this far, and now we must make that scary yet necessary step into life. Most of us have been together since Kindergarten and others have joined us along the way. Regardless of whether we are the best of friends or merely acquaintances, we have grown up together and been a part of each others lives. I want to thank each of you for every friendship, every laugh, every smile, and every memory which I will carry with me throughout life. As we disperse and go apart from each other into a new world with new trials, let us always remember the time we have shared in our years together at Portland High School.

Although words seem to say so little,
I hope they help in some small way
to ease the sense of loss that you're experiencing today.

Hold fast to your memories, to all of the cherished moments of the past, to the blessings and the laughter,
the joys and the celebrations, the sorrow and the tears.

They all add up to a treasure of fond yesterdays
that you shared and spent together,
and they keep the one you loved close to you in spirit and thought.

The special moments and memories in your life
will never change.
They will always be in your heart,
today and forevermore.

To the Junior Class of '03-'04,

Well that's three down and only one to go. It has been my utmost pleasure to serve as your class president throughout this year. I am thrilled to see the borders within our class starting to disband. This has been most evident in our class coming together in such ways as blaming me for t-shirts and protesting the price of the class tournaments by having a sit-in. We have shown our brilliance by voting for our class favorite solely by his last name. Let us never forget those that we have lost this year. They will always be with us in our hearts. I would like to say thank you to the Junior Class of '03-'04 for make this year as good as it was. I trust that we will have an even better year next year.

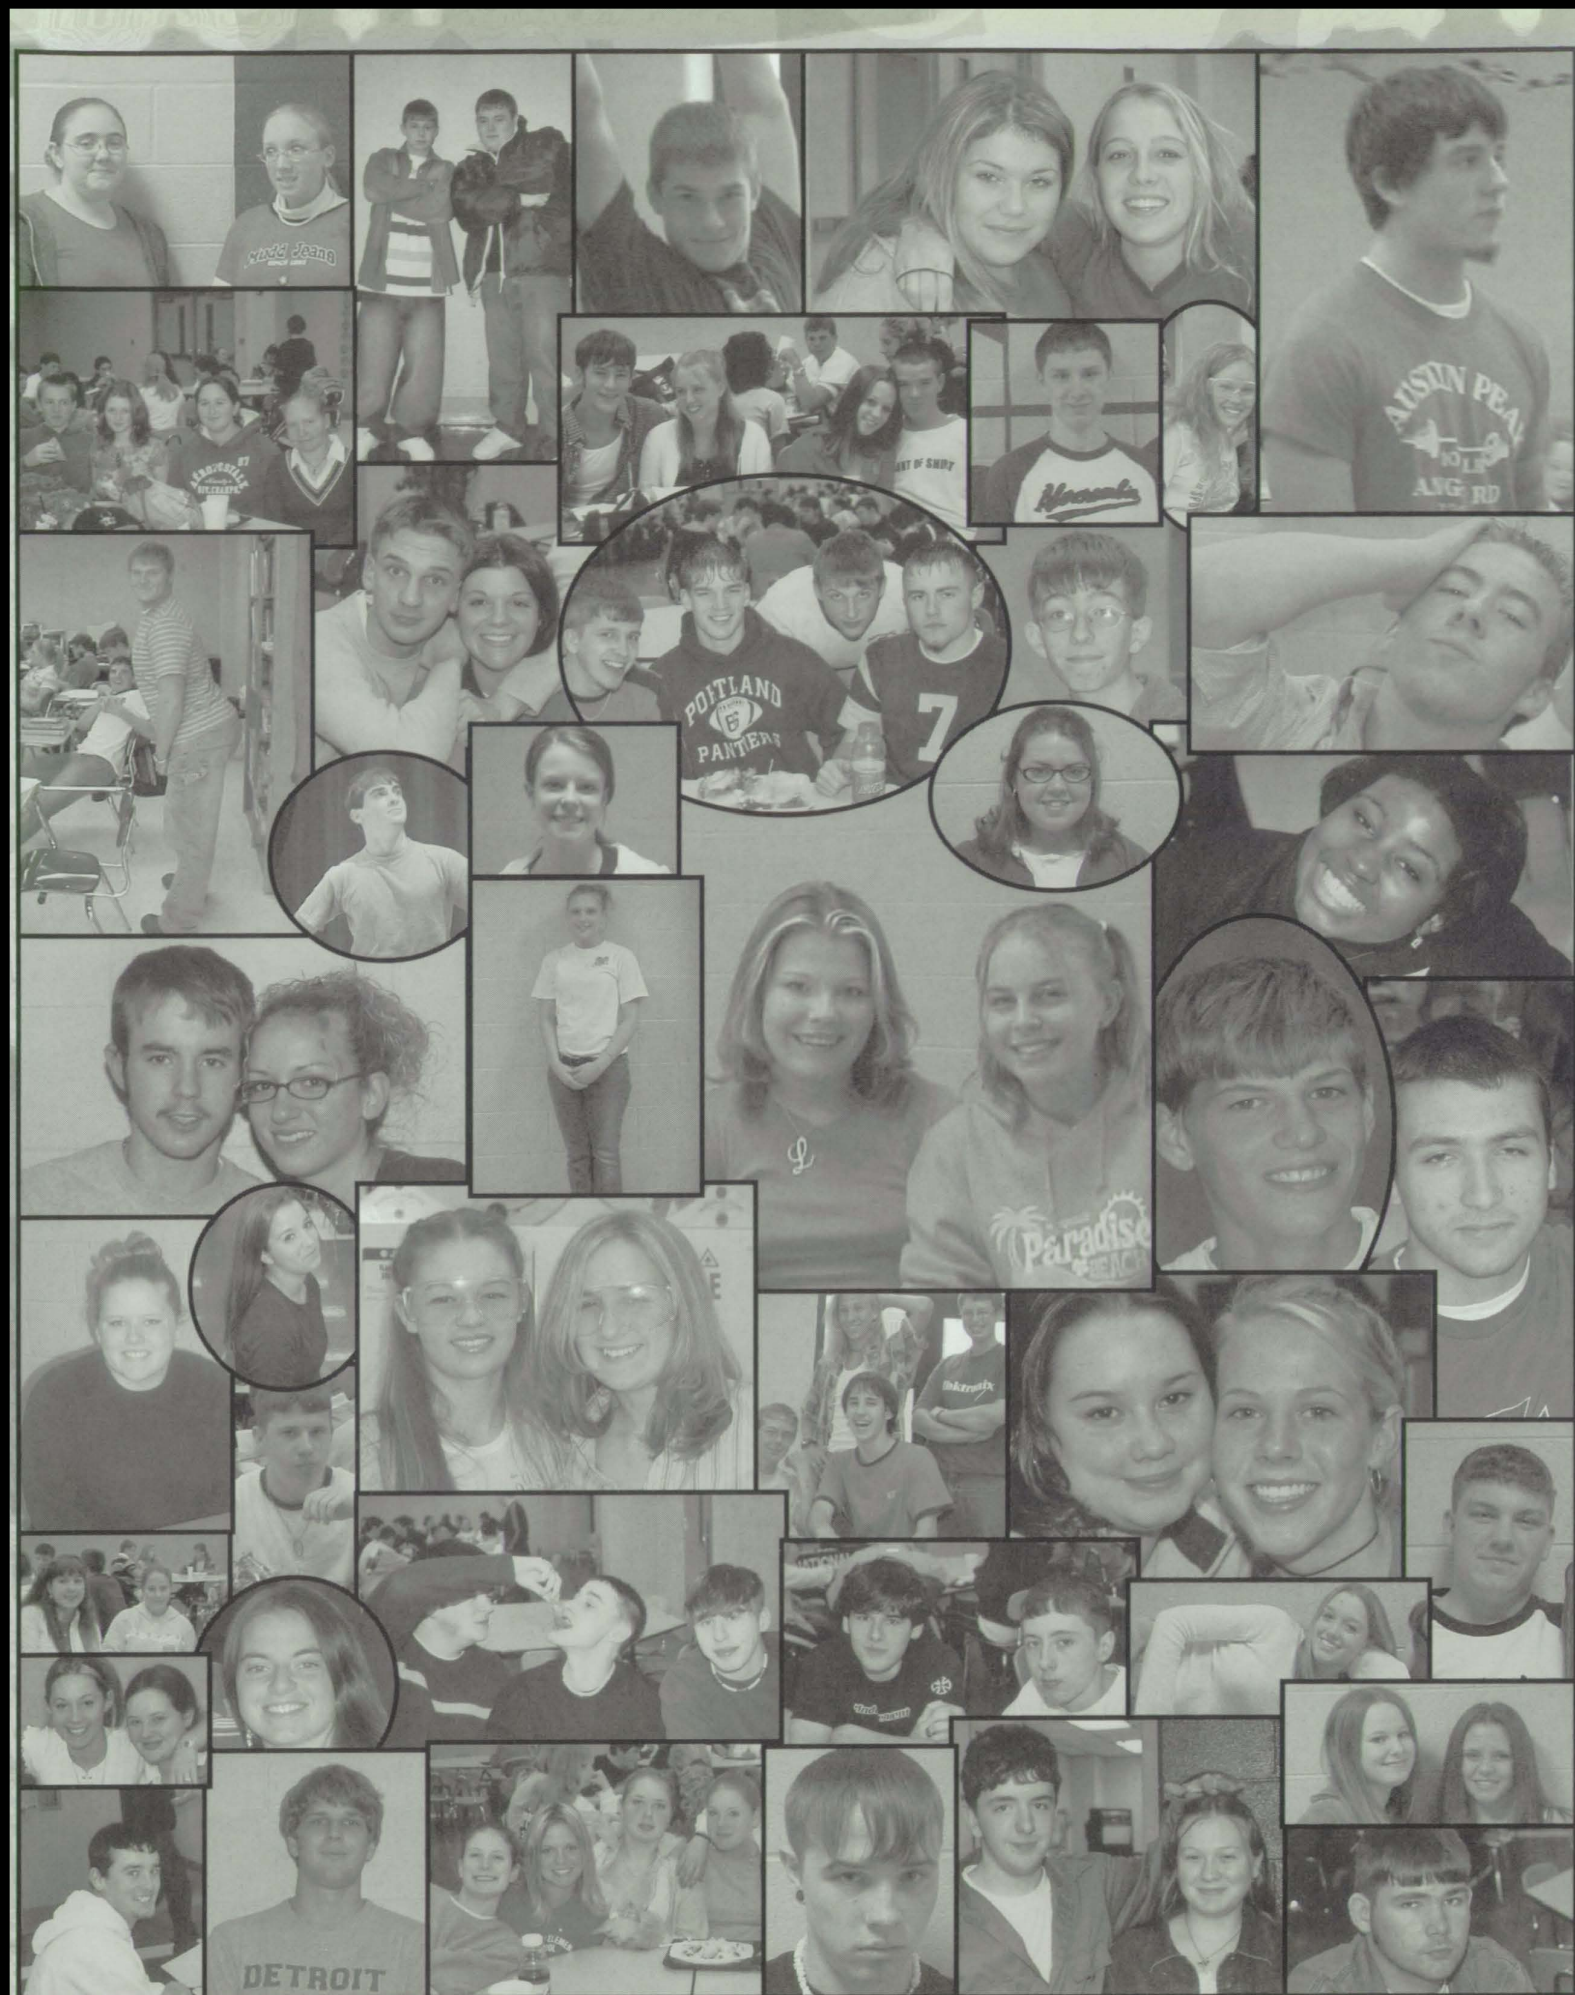

Godspeed,

Joshua A. Freeman
Junior Class President

"My name is Evhenia Novikova, but I go by Jane. I am 16 years old. My hometown is Vinnitsa, Ukraine. America is a lot different from the Ukraine. America has more opportunities for a person's development and I really enjoy staying here. Schools back home do not have an elective system. I really like Portland High School and I think it is an awesome place to study. I have one sister, named Alexandria. I also have a dog named Elsa. I enjoy writing, reading, hanging out with my friends, making bracelets, and watching stars."

I am so glad to have been able to serve as your class president this year. This year has had its trials, tears, and triumphs, but we have stuck together and made it through. Being a Freshman is so tough, but I believe everyone had a great time and a great year. Hopefully next year will be even better, and I hope that we can share three wonderful years to come. Good luck in the future years and have a wonderful summer.

Ready or Not... Here come the Panthers ready to greet their eagerly awaiting fans.

Can't Stop This... Nothing can stop Michael Garrett as he escapes a tackle.

Team Work... The Panthers work together to keep Upperman's offense from scoring.

Memorable Moments

Colby Prichard, Senior

"With 43 seconds left in the 4th quarter when we played York, I kicked a 37-yard field goal to win the game. It felt really good to know that I helped lead my team to victory."

Zach King, Senior

"I will always remember playing on a team that was as close as brothers and scoring the last touchdown of the 2003 season on a 85 yard kickoff return against Smith County."

Justin Summar, Senior

"I will always remember being a part of a team that fought game in and game out and never stopped trying."

"When I reflect back on the 2003 football team at Portland High School, I think of a quote from Vince Lombardi, "The greatest accomplishment is not in never falling, but in rising again after you fall." I feel that the 2003 football team did just that.

-Coach Roger Perry

I Don't Think So... Cody Escue brings down the runner before he gets the chance to gain any yardage.

Lookin' For Somewhere To Go... Darryl Hartley looks for an opening to run through so he can get the first down.

Give Him Six!!!! Zach King flies past Upperman's defenders on his way to the endzone.

Careful... Katie Summers watches the line while bowling to ensure no fouls being called on the Panthers.

A Look Back

Will Oldham Junior

"This was a good year for our team, not because we won a lot of our games (we didn't), but because we had fun. Enjoying ourselves was important after a rather terrible season last year. Winning games is a trivial factor in bowling. The acme of bowling is the companionship therein. Bowlers never die; we just end up in the gutter."

Chelsea Cash

Junior

"This was a good season for us. Although we didn't win many games, we had fun doing what we loved. We all got really close this year and I'm going to miss the Seniors. I can't wait until next year. Life gives you pins, throw a ball at them."

Brandon Reynolds Senior

"We really had a great year. We won more matches than last year and continue to improve. Next year's Seniors will carry the team to a lot more victories with the help of our coach, Mr. Filson."

"The Boys Bowling Team improved dramatically this year, winning three matches, but the real success was how competitive they were each week. The Girls Bowling Team improved each week and by the end of the season they were pressing most teams for wins."

Coach Filson

Practice Makes Perfect... James Connelly practices his approach before bowling so his ball will not go into the gutter.

Steady-n-Slow... Jessie Conway makes a perfect release to send the ball straight down the lane.

Thoughts From ...

Nick Jared - Junior

"The best advice I can give any aspiring runner can be summed up in four words . . . run fast, turn left."

Jacob Cook - Senior

"Without growth we stagnate and die; without perseverance, nothing of lasting importance would ever be."

James Cain - Junior

"Running gives me an opportunity to sort out my thoughts. It gives a peace that nothing else can."

"Although the competition gets tougher every year in our region, we sent a team to the state cross country meet for the fourth straight year."

Coach Henson

Run, Run, Run... Bill Robertson strides to the finish line after an exhausting run.

Students produced an adaptation of the fairy tale "Sleeping Beauty" in early November called DOES SHE SNORE? In early April, they produced a 1940's farce called RADIO DAZE. "Goodbye Michelle our friend, you gave us love & helped us find the sun,
and everytime that we were down,
you would always come around,
and get our feet back on the ground.

Michelle it's hard to say Goodbye,
When all the birds are singing in the sky,
Now that the spring is in the air,
With the flowers everywhere,
We wish you could be here."

Sally, Ginny, and Tasha are always busy working.

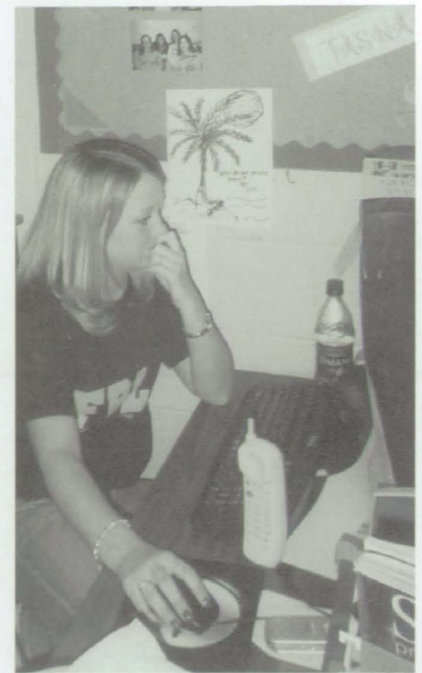

Man This Is Easy... Kyra helps with a page by scanning a picture.

Takin' it Easy... Lauren, Tabby, and Alyssa get together for a picture.

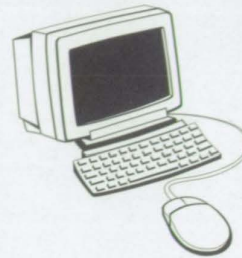

Is That How it Goes?... Kyra needs Elizabeth's help before she turns her pages in.

Hard At Work... Tasha and Beth work hard on their softball pages to get done before graduation.

Thinkin' Hard... Crystal thinks hard about what all should go on to her page.

Hmm... Ashley wonders what all should be done to the pages that she is editing and getting ready to send in.

Aww... Emily and Crystal stop from their busy day of work to take a picture together.

A Li' Chit Chat... The Senior girls have a discussion about senior last wills and what they have left to do before they are ready to be printed and sold.

It Feels Good To Be A Senior... The senior staff members get together outside of yearbook to eat at O' Charleys.

What Should We Do Now?... Racheal and Kalie wonder what else should be done to complete their pages.

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things (all the things you need at PHS and elsewhere) will be added unto you."

Mr. Dyer -
Assistant Principal

*"Life is a test, life is a trust, and life is a temporary assignment." -
The Purpose Driven Life*

Mr. Sprouse - Assistant Principal

"This school year has been a wonderful year, with lots of school spirit and a lot of cooperation from everyone - students, faculty, and staff!"

Teacher of the Year

Mrs. Angela Rippy

I believe that, for me, teaching was a calling. I did not plan to be a teacher. My first degree was actually a business degree in merchandising, but once in that field, I felt that something was just missing. I felt that I needed to be doing something so that I could make a worthy contribution to society. From the first days of my teaching experience teaching has just felt right. Although I am not the teacher I need to be or want to be, I continue to strive to improve. Everyday I pray for guidance. Everyday I pray that God will help me to treat each with patience, love, and understanding. Although I fall short of that many days, I continue to strive to do better, to be a better teacher and a better person. My goal for each year is to affect the life of at least one child in a positive way. If I can succeed at that, then I will be happy.

We Will Miss You !!

Carolyn Culbertson
Library Aid
- 8 years

"She is one of the sweetest, most unselfish people I know. She is a wonderful friend, a great listener, and the perfect confidante. I enjoyed working with her and appreciate having her as my friend."

J.R. Lamberth
Maintenance
- 17 years

"J.R. has done a fantastic job while he has been here. He's like an uncle to me. He will be missed very much."

-Mr. Dyer

Linda Napier
Vocational Clerk
- 32 years

"The sweetest friend, co-worker, and ninny in the world. Thank you for the confidence you have in me and for being my guide when no one else was there. I will forever love you and miss you."

- Mrs. Rodriguez

These three individuals will be greatly missed by both faculty and students.
We appreciate all the hard work they put in at Portland High School and wish them the best of luck.

Funniest Teaching Moments

"My first year of teaching, I was standing in the front of the room talking and I had my leg propped up. I noticed my students laughing and whispering things and finally someone told me I had a hole right in the crotch of my pants!!!" -Coach Cline

"One year I was teaching class, trying to be very professional. I went over to my chair and as I sat down it completely flew out from underneath me! Now I always pay attention to what I am doing!!!" -Mrs. Gregory

"I had a girl in my first period class and she said she wasn't feeling well. I told her to lay her head down for awhile. In a few minutes she told me her stomach was hurting. I told her to go to the office and get some Roloids. She did and when she returned she spent the rest of the class period with her head down. About an hour or two later she was rushed to Highland Hospital here in Portland. Upon arriving she gave birth to a child. I will never forget that I told her to take Roloids- but I didn't know she was pregnant!!!" - Mr. Steve Driver

"When I was teaching a Sociology class, we had a "Create-Your-Own-Product" Day and one girl made her own coke using black cake coloring. Well I was the taste-tester and after drinking it my teeth were solid black. No one told me until the end of the day!!!"

"Our funniest moment is when we told Tabby Boyd not to lean back in her chair with wheels or she might fall. However, she didn't take our advice and fell on her head the very next day."

The 2003-2004 Yearbook Staff would like to thank all the parents, grandparents, and loved ones who purchased a Senior Ad for the yearbook.

Your contributions and support helped make the yearbook full of great memories for the seniors to look back on in the future.

Heather Ann,

The years have gone by so fast, it seems just like yesterday that tiny, precious baby that we had to bless our lives. We have watched you grow into a beautiful young lady. We are so proud of you and who you have become. All of the memories, the laughs, and the tears will be with us always in our hearts as you move into another phase of your life. You have accomplished much and there are more challenges and accomplishments yet to come. Dream dreams and set goals with God being the center of your life. With HIS guidance and your work ethic, you will accomplish much. Live your life in a way that you, your family, and most of all, the Lord can be proud. Our prayers and thoughts are always with you and may God bless all that you do in the years to come.

We Love You Always,
Daddy, Mom, and Andy

Jaska Webb

Dear Jaska,

You have turned into a beautiful young woman! I can't express with words the joy and happiness you have brought into my life. I am so proud of you. I can honestly say that I am the luckiest mom in the whole world. The person you have become takes away part of the sadness I have that my little girl is all grown up. Jaska, I love you so much. I want you to be extremely happy always. Your life is what you make it. Keep God first and you can't go wrong. I am always here for you, and remember how much I love you! I'm just gleaming with pride, and congratulations sister girl for all that you've accomplished.

All My Love,
Moma

P.S. Ronnie says he's very proud of you, too. He loves you, too.

Tyler White

Tyler,

The day you were born and I looked at you I knew I had been blessed in a special way. That was eighteen years ago. When I think back on your childhood years, all I can do is smile (and cry, cause I'm a mom). You have brought us much happiness and joy. We are extremely proud of you for pressing on and finishing your goals. I admire your dedication to not give up and wanting to do it yourself without help. (Mr. Independent) I know there were times when decisions were not made in consideration of your interest but you have learned so many valuable lessons. Lessons you will carry with you for life. Hopefully, through these experiences you will be able to help and relate others in which you have a special gift. Remember through experience comes knowledge, through knowledge comes growth and with growth comes wisdom. (Proverbs 4:1-27; Colossians 3:12-17). As you close this chapter in your life, I pray you will feel a great sense of accomplishment and I wish you much success in college and your "wise" choices in the future.

I love you, (I can say that cause I'm a mom)
You'll always be my "Little Man",
Mom

You've always been there for me. Good Luck in life.
Austin

Tyler,

Apply the things you have learned and always strive to be the best at whatever you choose to do in life. We wish you much happiness. Stay the way you are. Have fun and be good.

Robert, Cynthia, and Craig

Tyler,

I am so proud of you for all the accomplishments you have made. You have been knocked down and you always got up. Tyler, NEVER GIVE UP, NEVER! Always, chase your dreams. Enjoy life.

Love,
Dad
Doughboy #76

Tyler,

When things go wrong and they will sometimes, when the road you are traveling seems all uphill when the stress starts getting to you, stop and rest but don't you quit. Don't give up on your dreams. You can do anything you want if you want it bad enough. Your grandfather and I are so proud of you.

We Love You

Billy Forbes

Billy,

God gave me the most precious gift on the day you were born.

Billy, watching you grow has made life such a wonderful sight.

Watching you crawl on your knees, and taking that first step.

Hearing you say "Mama" for the first time.

See you loose your first tooth.

Walking you into school on that first day.

Teaching you to ride your first bicycle.

Singing to you at bedtime and reading bedtime stories.

The years we spent in boy scouts, t-ball, baseball games, and football games were some very special days that we spent together.

Watching you ride your first pony and training that first horse. Riding in rodeos and horse shows. Just being the cowboy that you were.

What a handsome cowboy you were.

Billy, words can't say how proud I am of you. You have so much going for you!

As years have gone by, you have grown up into a handsome young man.

Billy, your graduation day came on March 17, 2002.

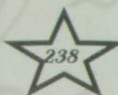

Your memory will always be with us. You are sadly missed by many, many, friends and family.

We Love You very much! You are always in my heart!

Love,

Mom, Sloan, & Steve

Alec Hardin

Dear Alec,

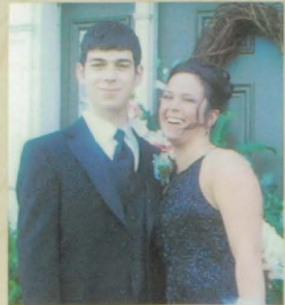

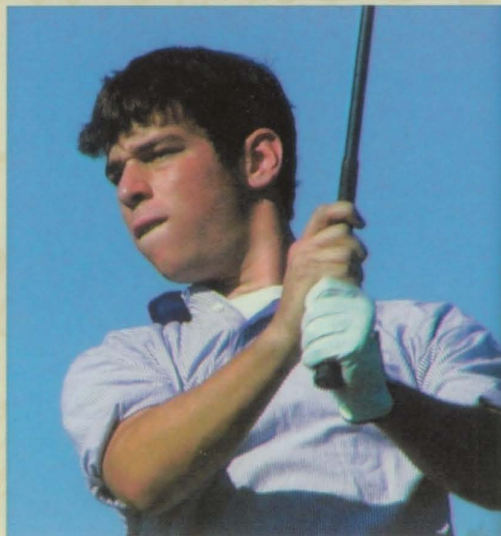

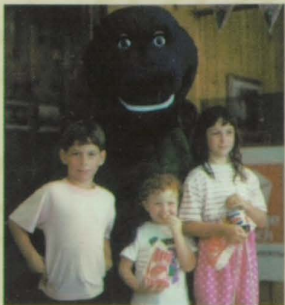

What can we say? You have brought so much joy to our hearts. You were the baby who was named after Papa, he was so happy and proud. From the start of your life- we worried! In your early years- you ate a lot of soap, because you said some "words" that weren't very nice. We thought you'd never outgrow that stage- did you?? Ha. You loved your "sissy" (Natalie), where she went, you were there too. Remember running and Bingo stopped and you went over him and landed on your face? How about the mouse you found in the sand box? Jeremy was so mad when you caught the chicken-pox, he said you should change your friends! Alec, you seemed to be the life of the party. You are the little "bubba" to Jeremy and big "bubba" to Natalie and Courtney. You liked t-ball and baseball. But as you grew, golf was your pick, and you play very well. Alec, the list goes on. You have grown up so sweet and we are so very proud of you. We loved you when you were born, as a child, and as you grow closer to being a man. These days, you have really changed- you are priceless!! You are full of hugs and loved to be loved on. You have the biggest heart and everyone loves you. Thank you Alec for being the person that you are, our little boy all grown-up. You will always be mama's "Pumpkin Head". We are all so proud of you. May all your dreams come true!

"Congratulations Alec" for all your hard work!

We Love You,

Nanny & Papa, Mama & Jeff, Jeremy, Natalie, & Courtney
XOXO

Remember to put God first in your life and stand by your beliefs and you'll continue to excel in everything you attempt.

We Love You,
Daddy & Moma

Kalie/Sis,

You've always been there through all my trials and heartaches. We've shared secrets, tears, & laughs. I've always looked up to you. Congratulations! I'm proud of my big, older sister. I love you!

Ashley West

Your years of growing,
 all our shared thoughts and feelings,
 the carefree and happy times a family shares,
 we remember the joy, the tears, and the sorrow-- stormy emotions for changing times.
 We remember the squeeze of your hand,
 whispered "I love you's,"
 the snapshots and memories of time and years.
 We remember all the ways
 you've kept our lives busy.
 Every day, we celebrate and honor
 all the ways you make our hearts proud.

Throughout your life, we hope you will always pursue sensitivity and kindness as your chosen way.
 Your sense of humor is wonderful; hold on to it.
 Being able to laugh at the world will see you through many hard times.
 Guard against bitterness and sarcasm; they can destroy you.
 Be yourself; the world will benefit from your talent and humor.
 Search for people who love and appreciate you for who you are and who encourage you to improve.
 Don't be satisfied with less than all you can be, for you have greatness within you.

Love, All of your Family!
