

James T. Brock

1940-1998

In the fall of 1983, the Rev. James T. “Jimmy” Brock, former pastor of Blessed Redeemer MCC Atlanta, was called as Pastor of Joy MCC. Although relatively new to the Fellowship, he had more than 30 years of pastoral experience in Southern Baptist churches. Rev. Brock was able to articulate the church’s vision and oversaw a time of growth at Joy MCC. On May 20, 1998, Rev. Brock died of a heart attack.