

Cherie Goyette

1940-2006

Cherie Goyette was one of the originators of the Full Moon Parties – a women’s potluck gathering that later became Loving Committed Network (LCN) of which she was one of the founding members. LCN published the LCN Express, a monthly newsletter, and was the premier organization representing the interests of lesbian women in Central Florida.