

Bill Rausch

b. 5/18/1957 d. 10/20/1998

A former Board Member with CENTAUR and one of the favorites sales associates at Out & About Books during the late 1990s. A friend of Armistead Maupin from his days in San Francisco, it was rumored that Bill was one of the inspirations behind the character of Michael "Mouse" Tolliver in the TALES OF THE CITY series.