

Ginger Walsh

1933-2003

Ginger joined the West Volusia chapter of NOW early in its history after arriving from Chicago in the 1970s. She devoted many years of service to NOW despite health problems and envisioned a better world where women benefited from the Equal Rights Amendment and lesbians and gay men were free to love and marry. She was the original “Red Hot Momma” at Rosie O’Grady’s Good Time Emporium at Church Street Station.
