

THE STORY BEHIND THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

Baltimore is filled with monuments; one of them is the "Battle Monument," which is depicted on the University's seal. It was erected to commemorate the Battle of North Point and the Bombardment of Fort McHenry during the War of 1812. The Battle of North Point inspired Francis Scott Key to compose "The Star-Spangled Banner." The monument recalls the battle and serves as a memorial to the men who defended Baltimore. The University of Baltimore is proud to depict the monument on its seal because of UB's commitment to the city and its communities.

Dear Graduates,

Today's ceremony marks a special event in your lives. Through hard work and dedication, you and your fellow graduates have turned dreams into reality. The University of Baltimore community joins your families and friends in celebrating your academic success with you. As you leave the unique community of University of Baltimore students, we welcome you to the impressive community of UB alumni, a community more than 100 graduating classes strong. We look forward to your ongoing interest and support in shaping a University of which you will continue to be proud.

Congratulations on your achievement.

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

At this commencement, degrees are conferred on those who have completed degree requirements during the spring 2013 term. This listing of graduates and honors recipients is tentative, however, because it is not possible to determine whether each person listed has actually completed the degree at the time the program is printed. The official transcript of the University of Baltimore, issued directly by the registrar, is testimony to the possession of a degree.

PROMINENCE OF THE MACE

The mace, carried by the senior marshal to lead the ceremonial procession, is a symbol of authority. The University of Baltimore mace is 42 inches long and crafted of silver and wood, and it bears the seal of the University.

HONORS DESIGNATION

Undergraduate students are awarded degrees summa cum laude, magna cum laude or cum laude based on their cumulative grade point averages.

Summa Cum Laude—with greatest praise; signifies graduation with highest honors, i.e., a 3.9 grade point average

Magna Cum Laude—with great praise; signifies graduation with high honors, i.e., a 3.75 grade point average

Cum Laude—with praise; signifies graduation with honors, i.e., a 3.5 grade point average

Please stand during the procession and recession of graduates and remain standing at the conclusion until all participants have exited the auditorium.

"UNIVERSITY OF BALTIMORE ALMA MATER"

(Lyricist and Composer Unknown)

*Now let us honor Baltimore,
and sing her praises wide,
renew again our faith of yore,
and pledge it side by side;
for vision bright of wisdom's light,
for gift of wings to soar,
for teaching us the might of right,
we thank thee Baltimore.*

*So sing farewell to Baltimore,
and sail on with the tide,
prepared with chart and compass
for life's journies far and wide;
let none forget his course was set
for life's most distant shore,
by this our university
we love thee Baltimore.*
