Get Out the Count Crawfordsville

Security and Confidentiality for Montgomery County 2020 Census

Online Data Security in Crawfordsville

- The Census Bureau is working with leading cybersecurity experts to make sure your data is safe
- Security software produced by the FBI
- All information is confidential

Lock and Key

- All personal information is locked away for 72 years.
- County-level information is a broad overview, not personal, so your address will not be public
- Census Bureau employees take an oath to keep information secret

Legal Protection

- Personal information can't be used in court
- Census Bureau employees will face fines and jail time if they release information
- ICE, FBI, and CIA are prohibited from using census data

Get Your Count In Montgomery County

All the data is secure and no one can access it. Help our community for the future by filling it out April 1st.