stay with us for #opainterlude

We want to extend a sincere thank you to our readers and listeners for connecting with us online. It warms our heart to see your virtual reactions. Right now, that's as close as we can get to hearing your cheers, claps or laughs in a theater or music hall. Your engagement makes us even more excited to reunite soon! For more upcoming digital learning and live entertainment opportunities visit o-pa.org.

O-pa NHSTA Spotlight: Elliott Purdy

Nebraska High School Theater Academy student Elliott Purdy talks about his four years as a NHSTA member and how it's impacted his career as a performer. Plus, learn more about how high school seniors like Purdy are coping with a new norm since COVID-19.

O-pa participates in #VirtualEarthDayOmaha

We're excited to share that we are practicing sustainability through recycling and composting, reducing energy consumption and reusing materials. As the country celebrated Earth Day in April, O-pa partnered with #VirtualEarthDayOmaha to celebrate and promote green initiatives. Learn more about how we're working to reduce our carbon footprint.
