Dear Patron,

As fellow arts and music lovers, we think you'll agree a huge part of what makes live entertainment so important and special is its communal nature. It brings us together and put's a smile on our faces. Unfortunately, we're facing the reality that large gatherings must cease for now, but this is only the interlude.

Due to the ongoing impact of COVID-19, we're saddened to announce the cancellation of Jazz on the Green at Midtown Crossing.

While we can't physically gather on the lawn to enjoy jazz, we're still planning on bringing you the best in jazz entertainment this summer. Stay tuned as we announce more information about these changes in the weeks to come.

We wish you good health and can't wait to share the arts with you again soon.

Sincerely,
Omaha Performing Arts
