Dear Creatives,

We miss you. Our open space is not the same without you. The KANKO team is working on some exciting projects that are live now which you can participate in, as well as planning for a strong return.

So much about the future is uncertain, but one thing is sure: you can help make KANEKO's future bright. Today we're asking you to commit to a monthly donation of $25. By doing so, you'll have an immediate impact on our ability to thrive. We'll get through this together.
